F. Frankfurter Showing Gain

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter continued to make good progress today from the mid heart disturbance he suffered last Monday.

His doctors said Sunday the jurist, oldest member of the Supreme Court at 76, was resting comfortably at George Washington University Hospital.

"If there's been any change, it's been for the better," the doctors reported.

CUB SCOUTS FROM MILLS SCHOOL, under the direction of Mrs. Thurman Turner, den mother, took a conducted tour of the Southern Pacific roundhouse recently. The boys got to see several types of diesel-electric locomotives from the inside, as well as the rotary snow plow, the sand house with its machinery, the power plant, and the Flanger cars that are used to clean snow off the tracks. The boys also visited the roundhouse office with its telephones and radio communications devices, and wound up the tour with a ride on the hundred-foot turntable. Shown with roundhouse foreman S. C. Selby are, left to right, Cubs Tommy Warmack, Dennis York, Lee Turner, Ronald Hamilton and Jimmy Uerlings. Selby conducted the group on their tour.
