STOCKS WALL STREET NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today although down somewhat from best levels. There was a good sprinkling of losers. Volume for the day was estimated at 4,000,000 shares compared with 4,120,000 Friday. Gains in pivotal stocks were usually limited to less than a point. Texas Instruments gained more than three points, Zenith as much as six, Radio Corp. more than two and Raytheon almost two. American Telephone & Telegraph was up 2 1/2 but fell back slightly later. Steels lost a part of early gains and the motors were mixed from the start despite reports of increased auto sales. Chrysler and American Motors declined. General Dynamics and North American Aviation both ran up more than one. Metals were ahead minor fractions. Chemicals scored moderate gains with Du Pont up one. Baltimore & Ohio was the best of the major rails, gaining one. U.S. government bonds declined.

City Council To Mull Plan

DUNSMUIR—A projected plan of the use of land in Dunsmuir and vicinity for the most orderly and profitable development will be presented to the Dunsmuir City Council by the planning commission on Wednesday evening. This plan of land use is the result of months of study under the supervision of Hahn, Wise and Barber of San Carlos, planning consultants. Bob Dewey, chairman of the commission, explained. It has been posted since its publication in prominent places around the community and two public hearings were held last month at the city hall to hear any possible objections to the plan. The plan notes existing industrial use within the area studied as only 2.08 per cent and recommends an increase to 6.9 per cent of the land to be designated for heavy and light industrial use. Land used by schools, parks, utilities, parking lots, city hall and other public buildings is only seven per cent of the developed area. This is less than half of the area required for adequate public usage, the plan notes, and suggests planning include more school and park areas. Emphasis is placed on recreational planning with suggested expansion of motel and hotel areas and greater commercial uses to make up for deficit in basic industrial development. The council will schedule another public hearing on this plan before its formal adoption. The next phase of planning will be the presentation of a zoning ordinance by the commission.

Scribe Plans Talk On Book

"Dr. Zhivago," a novel which has stirred worldwide controversy, will be featured at Wednesday's meeting of the Klamath Unitarian Fellowship. The novel will be reviewed by Lamar Hoover of the Herald and News editorial department. Attention was brought into sharp focus on Russian writer Boris Pasternak after the Nobel committee chose his book for its annual literary award. Early acceptance of the honor by Pasternak and his subsequent refusal, after he was severely criticized in his home country, have increased interest in the work.

Hoover will first review the book and an open discussion will follow. The meeting, arranged by Mrs. Frank Johnson of the Unitarian Program Committee, will be held at the regular meeting place, the Klamath Art Center, in the former Mountain View housing project. Coffee will be served at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

NG Opens Doors To Blood Donors

Blood donors to the Red Cross Bloodmobile, in Klamath Falls today and Wednesday, may appear tonight at the National Guard Armory, Shasta Way, from 7 to 9 o'clock. This operation and the operation Wednesday will be sponsored by the National Guard Batteries, B, C and D, 732 AAA Battalion.

CHRISTMAS BONUS

DORRIS — The First Western Bank and Trust Company has announced it will distribute a Christmas bonus to its employees December 5. The 2,700 First Western employees will each get half of their regular monthly salary. The Butte Valley branch at Dorris employs 13 people.

THROWN FROM HORSE

Bonnie Walton, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Walton of Bray, was admitted to Klamath Valley Hospital Friday evening after being thrown from a horse at the Bray Ranch. Bonnie was reported resting well Monday afternoon from her back injury, which did not appear to be serious.

APPENDECTOMY

Mrs. Lee Hobbs, Klamath Falls, the former Susan Bretches, is now recovering from an appendectomy at Sacred Heart Hospital in Medford, where she was taken ill while visiting relatives over the Thanksgiving holiday. She will make the return trip to Klamath Falls by air after completing her five-day hospitalization.

CHICAGO DEATH REPORTED

Word was received this morning by Roy E. Larsen, 2813 Homedale Road, of the death of his brother, Henning, who died unexpectedly this morning in Chicago. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Henning Larsen was sales manager of International Harvester Company in Chicago, and had been a visitor in this city. Another brother, Louis Larsen, is also a resident of Klamath Falls.

DANGEROUS DOG

Sharon R. Musgrove's car missed the dog she was trying to avoid Sunday afternoon, but side-swiped another vehicle, driven by Leonard A. Gionet, 15, Oretech. Gionet was headed east and Miss Musgrove, 18, 5440 Walton Drive, was going west on Shasta Way near Gary Street, when the accident occurred. No serious damage resulted, according to state police.

Main Street Alters Name

Main Street, Klamath Falls, is no longer Main Street. The city council changed that in its regular meeting Monday night.

Acting on a petition from the Klamath Merchants Association the council voted to re-name Main Street as "Christmas Tree Lane" for the duration of December.

The street is appropriately named, the merchants pointed out, as it is now adorned with an endless string of little Christmas trees atop each parking meter.

The move was first begun last year when Main Street and all the side streets were given yuletide names to highlight the Christmas season.

Mayor Lawrence Slater signed a formal proclamation to make the name change official. In other action, city manager, G. S. Verger, and police chief, Charlie Howard, made a recommendation on the awarding of bids for two new police cars.

The council approved applications of the Pastime, The Eagle, and the Waldorf Billiards for Class "A" Dispenser's licenses, and referred them to the Oregon Liquor Commission.

Only three councilmen were present for the session. Oliver Spiker was absent on a trip and Floyd Wynne was ill.

Mild Weather Replaces Cold

United Press International Relatively mild weather displaces sub-zero temperature readings in New England, and light snow and rain fell along the northern tier of states Monday night.

The U. S. Weather Bureau reported temperatures in the Northeast as much as 20 degrees higher than Sunday night's bone-chilling readings. Although the nation was generally due for more pleasant weather, another cold snap was moving into Minnesota.

There were some snow flurries from the Great Lakes to Maine, none of any consequence, and showers in the Pacific Northwest, parts of Montana, the Southern Plains and the Southeast. Nearly half an inch of rain fell in parts of Oklahoma, heaviest precipitation area.

There were also gusty winds clocked at more than 40 miles per hour in Montana and Wyoming, but no damage was reported.

Tuesday's forecast showed continuing snow flurries from the Lower Great Lakes to New England, scattered snow or rain in the Northern Rockies, and showers in the Pacific Northwest and the Southeast.

Except for the Northern Plains, generally warmer weather was expected.

Bite Of Bat Kills Woman

BERKELEY (UPI) — The Health Department reports that a Butte County woman died on Nov. 4 from the bite of a rabid bat.

The victim was Mrs. Flora Elizabeth Menzelaar, 53, Paradise. She incurred the bite last summer when she picked up the bat in her yard and placed it on a tree branch to protect it from her dog.

Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill, director of the department, said tests proved conclusively that Mrs. Menzelaar died of rabies. She received 14 Pasteur shots, but they could not stem the disease.

Merrill said it was the first case in the nation of anyone dying from the bite of a rabid bat.

Driver Nabbed On Theft Charge

A truck driver from Portland who made a regular weekly run through Klamath Falls was arrested by Portland police Monday on a Klamath Falls warrant charging him with possession of property stolen a month ago from J. W. Kerns implement store.

City officers said Roy Mullins, 12605 SE Holgate Boulevard, Portland, was charged with having in his possession three radios and two phonographs stolen from the Kerns store.

Officers said Mullins was released after posting $1,500 bail. Two Klamath Falls men charged with the theft of $700 worth of equipment from Kerns are awaiting action by the Klamath County Grand Jury. They are Earl Nolte, 30, 617 Adams Street, and Frank N. Addison, 31, 926 Klamath Avenue.

Deputies To Question Man In Hopes Of Finding Clues

MARTINEZ (UPI)—Contra Costa County deputies made arrangements today to question a former employee of William Roy Anderson in the hope of finding a clue to his slaying.

The employee, Laurence Swinecki, 38, was fired by Anderson last summer and was later indicted for cashing money orders mailed to the San Francisco collection agency Anderson headed, deputies said.

They also learned that Swinecki had proposed to Anderson's attractive secretary, Mrs. Maxine Filiberti, 25, this fall. She turned him down.

Anderson, 60, was shot to death the night of Nov. 25 when he answered the doorbell at his luxurious Orinda home.

Investigators disclosed previously that Mrs. Filiberti had spent the weekend before last with Anderson in Reno, and that he was paying the $140 a month rent on her San Francisco apartment.

Swinecki is now reported staying with relatives in Pennsylvania. N.J. Deputies said they wanted to know his whereabouts on the night Anderson was shot.

Meanwhile, a grand jury investigation into the office of Sheriff Harry Brown loomed as a result of Brown's belated disclosure of a telephone call threatening Anderson's life two days before he was shot.

Brown disclosed Sunday that the week before a mysterious caller who gave his name as "Johnson" called him at home and said: "If you don't keep Roy Anderson away from my wife, I'll kill the..."

Brown said he did not report the call to his subordinates because he wanted to see how "those Keystone cops" would make out on their own. He was referring to Inspector Ray E. Stoffels, in charge of the case, and Inspector Norman Wilson.

V. CRAIG BULL, Oakland lawyer and chairman of the grand jury's Law Enforcement Committee, said he would ask the grand jury Wednesday to investigate Brown's office.

Later, Jury Foreman Ed Valentino said he was thinking of asking for an investigation of all law enforcement in the county as well as Brown's office.

Dentists Set For Conclave

Three Klamath Falls dentists are planning to attend the Oregon State Dental Health Conference at the University of Oregon, on Saturday, December 6.

Dr. Donald P. Noel, Dr. Robert L. Jensen and Dr. John Cox will be delegates from this area. Oregon dental health needs will be studied and plans set to meet them at this conference.

Information gathered at this all-day meeting may assist in obtaining federal grant-in-aid funds for dental health which could result in an annual grant of $100,000 to aid development of statewide community dental health services.

Announcing aims of the conference, Dr. Herbert Goodman, conference chairman, Portland, said, "Organized dentistry in Oregon has long urged a constructive approach to state dental health problems. We hope that a permanent state council on dental health will be set up as a result of this meeting and that the findings of this conference will result in a scientific feasible and economical approach to the problem of dental disease."

PROBATION DUNSMUIR — Alfred Beardon, 23, of Weed was given a 30-day suspended sentence in Dunsmuir Justice Court on Monday on a charge of fraudulent collection of unemployment claims. He was put on probation for six months and ordered to repay the state the money he collected.

Requiem Mass For Sheehy Set

A requiem mass will be celebrated Wednesday for James S. Sheehy, longtime Pacific Division radio editor for United Press.

Sheehy died early Monday in Fort Miles Veterans Hospital. He had been ill since February 4. He was 62.

A rosary will be said tonight at 8:30 (PST) at Halsted's Funeral Home in San Francisco. The mass will be said Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Star of the Sea Catholic Church.

Judge Receives Guilty Pleas

Guilty pleas were entered in circuit court Tuesday by two California men arrested here in mid-November.

Fred L. Schwab, 33, Modesto, pleaded guilty to burglary not in a dwelling growing out of thefts from a Fort Klamath ranch November 14.

Philip B. Brunner, 36, San Francisco, pleaded guilty to a charge of obtaining money and property by false pretenses resulting from his purchase of a can of antifreeze from the Payless Drug Store November 12 with a worthless $15 check.

Judge David R. Vandenberg set 10 a.m. arrest for sentencing both men.
