Fire Truck Delivery Set

MOUNT SHASTA — Phil Gutzler and Darrell Barnett, members of the Mount Shasta Volunteer Fire Department, are on trip to Clintonville, Wisconsin, where they will take delivery of a $26,000 FWD fire truck.

When received, this will make five trucks belonging either to the city or the fire district which is in the fringe areas beyond city limits. The department may use any of the trucks in either the town or surrounding areas, as a fire, if not checked, might be a threat to surrounding property, either inside or outside the town.

The truck that was demolished by a railway engine last April is now restored to use. A Redding firm that specializes in such complete repair jobs guarantees the restored equipment to be safe.

Beside the locally owned fire fighting trucks, the city and district have on loan a truck from the state civil defense unit which is available for use when needed.

All of the fire trucks here are equipped to answer an alarm despite deep snow, Fire Chief Frank Menlo stated.

Besides the fire fighting equipment stored at the city hall, forest service pumps are always available if needed, and the city is responsive when need arises on forest service holdings.

Supervisors Plan To Enforce Law

DORRIS — The Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors, because of increasing juvenile vandalism against county property, decided this week to use and enforce a 1947 ordinance which requires minors under 18 to be off the streets by 10 p.m.

The board recently posted a $100 reward for information causing the arrest and conviction of persons destroying county property. Supervisor W. A. Barr said the vandalism "is still going on."

Barr said a few days ago additional snow posts were knocked down on Everett Memorial Highway, signs were stolen, and gas taken from county equipment. Barr suggested that a county-wide curfew could be effective in ending the widespread vandalism.

Siskiyou County Sheriff Al Cotlar agreed to use extra men in trouble spots and to cooperate in enforcing the county curfew. Supervisors also agreed to send to all city and county law enforcement officers in the county copies of the curfew ordinance, which provides fines from $10 to $300 and up to six months in jail for the responsible parents of the offending juvenile.
