A Yuletide Story

Dragnet Theme Grim Reminder

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — David Gottlieb and his family were robbed of $9,110 in jewelry, furs and cash Tuesday night by two bandits who left them bound on the living room floor.

The Gottliebs freed themselves. Gottlieb said that while the men were tying him up, the television set remained on.

"And what should come on," he said, "but that Dragnet song. You know, dum de dum dum."

Police Seek Boy Friend

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police are looking for the boy friend of a blonde, 19-year-old model whose body was apparently thrown off a steep mountain road.

The girl, Charlotte Trosper, was apparently stabbed before she was pushed off a precipice in the San Gabriel Mountains north of Los Angeles.

Her body was found Tuesday by a motorist on a ledge below a scenic parking area along the mountain highway.

She had been reported missing when she failed to show up at her modeling job at a photo studio Tuesday morning. Her employer Emmett Hubbard went to her apartment and notified police when he found she wasn't there.

Hubbard told the officers Miss Trosper had been having "difficulties" with a boy friend. Investigators learned that the boy friend had been at the apartment Monday night.

The girl's body was fully clothed except for shoes and stockings. One shoe was found along the road 50 feet from the parking area.

She had been stabbed in the chest and there were cuts on her hand as if she had tried to ward off a knife blow, the police said.

Loan Approved, Solons Informed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rural Electrification Administration Tuesday notified Sen. Richard Neuberger and Rep. Charles Porter, both Oregon Democrats, it had approved a $1,172,000 loan to the Valley Telephone Co. in Silverton.

The loan is to allow the company to install dial phones and extend service to 636 more farm families in Marion and Linn counties.

Attorney Claims Settlement Near

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Debbie Reynolds' lawyer says she is nearing a financial settlement with Eddie Fisher and may soon sue for divorce.

"Of course, these things are never definite until signed," said Frank Belcher, "If a settlement is reached, it naturally follows that Miss Reynolds will file a California suit for divorce."

The rift between the Fishers started last Sept. 9 when he returned home after touring New York night spots with Elizabeth Taylor, widow of Mike Todd.

Modified Filibuster Rule Receives Backing By Solon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett Dirksen (R-Ill.) announced today he will support efforts to modify the Senate's filibuster rule.

The rule now requires the votes of 64 senators to shut off debate, and the number rises to 66 when Alaska's two senators are seated. Some senators are demanding a rules change to make it easier to end filibusters.

Dirksen, who is in line to become the Senate's new Republican leader, said in an interview that he has changed his mind since he voted in 1957 against opening the Senate's rules to changes.

He now has come to the conclusion, Dirksen said, that Vice President Nixon had "logic on his side" in holding informally then that new rules can be adopted by majority vote at the beginning of each Congress.

"A change in the rules is in the wind," Dirksen said. "The situation has been altered since 1957 because the Rules Committee subsequently has considered the matter and formal reports have been filed. I will support some modification of the present requirements."

His change of position lent additional weight to a drive by Senate liberals to alter the filibuster provision.

Three of these, Senators Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.), Clifford P. Case (R-N.J.) and Jacob K. Javits (N.Y.), told a news conference Tuesday they are not going to make any deals in their fight to curb debate by a majority vote.

They have contended that if the present rule is permitted to stand, it will be impossible to pass additional civil rights legislation.
