

Girl Scouts Name Officers

New officers for 1958-59 were elected recently at the first meeting of the Girl Scout Planning Board in the YMCA.

The new officers are president, Gail Brotherhood of Troop 67; first vice president, Betty Horn of Troop 31; second vice president, Cheryl Ball of Troop 67; and secretary, Faye Brannon, senior Girl Scout. Retiring president, Margaret Dotson, of Troop 31 and retiring secretary, Kayleen Johnson, of Troop 31 were awarded friendship pins.

Eighty-six troop representatives and visitors were present to discuss and outline council plans and activities for the ensuing year. The Day and Established Camp programs of the 1958 season were evaluated by Girl Scouts and leaders who attended the camps. Suggestions were made for improving the 1959 camping programs.

The theme of the annual May Festival was discussed. A May and means program was planned for all Brownies and Girl Scouts in the council to send two senior Girl Scouts to the 1959 International Senior Girl Scout Roundup at Colorado Springs, Colorado, in July.

The girls took part in a get-acquainted game session following lunch at noon. In the evening, members of Troop 31, assisted by members of Troops 67 and 40, were hostesses at a dancing party in the YMCA to honor out-of-town senior and eighth grade Girl Scouts. Several Boy Scouts of the Klamath area were guests at the dance.

Mrs. Edward V. Brotherhood, Mrs. Kenneth Brisco, Mrs. David Dotson, Mrs. Harold O. Horn, and Mrs. J. C. Renie were advisers for the day and evening activities.

RITES SET FOR CLERIC

PORTLAND (AP) — Funeral services will be held here Wednesday for the Rev. Pius Alaska, 64, the canon lawyer for the Catholic Archdiocese of Portland's chancery office.

COFC Chairman To Attend Meet

Francis Landrum, Klamath County Chamber of Commerce Roads and Highways chairman, plans to be present in Coos Bay on December 7 at a meeting on the East-West Highway development in Southern Oregon.

Landrum will speak on "Highway Systems of Southern Oregon." The meeting will be attended by Julius R. Jensen, director, Oregon State Department of Planning and Development; Howard S. Walker, commissioner, Port of Coos Bay; Charles W. Mahaffy, president, Port of Coos Bay Commission; Julius Herndon Jr., district attorney, Lake County; Judge James W. Harrison, Coos County, and Mark O. Hatfield, governor-elect of Oregon, who will speak at the luncheon at the Tioga Hotel, Coos Bay.

KF Guardsmen Attending Drills

Two Klamath Falls National Guardsmen are among those attending drills on a temporary assignment with Eugene's two National Guard companies while attending the University of Oregon.

They are Sgt. Kaye C. Robinette, son of Kelley Robinette, Route 1, and Pte. Lloyd G. Seely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seely, 4433 Bryant.

Regularly assigned to Klamath Falls Battery B, 72nd AAA battalion, they are taking advantage of the guard's program of fulfilling their military obligation while completing their education.

Robinette, in his second year at the University Law School, is a 1954 graduate of Henley High School. Seely, a business-management major and a freshman, is a 1957 KHS graduate.

POOR LOSER

MILAN, Italy (UPI) — Mike Bongiorno, popular radio and TV master of ceremonies of the "Double or Quits" quiz program, was given a traffic ticket Monday by a man who thought he had good reason to do it. The policeman who nabbed Bongiorno was Piero Salvagnini, who had appeared on "Double or Quits"—and lost.
