STOCKS

WALL STREET
NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed mixed today, falling to hold gains scored early in the session.
Volume was estimated at 3,800,000 shares compared with 3,460,000 Wednesday.
The market was largely erratic with the largest gains scored by special stocks. These ran from fractions to about two points. There were a good number of losers.
Oils, rubber, most airline and farm equipment stocks generally gained. Chemicals and motors good advances in aircraft and electronics, but the strength was not uniformly displayed by all stocks in these categories.
U.S. Steel ran up 2 points. Good-year 3, Goodrich 1 1/2 and U.S. Rubber 3/4.
Standard Oil (New Jersey) was strongest among the leading oils. Gulf lost an early advance.
U.S. Borax gained nearly 2 points. Olin Mathieson more than 1. Raytheon 2 1/2 and Zenith 6. Grumman and International Harvester gained more than a point.
U.S. government bonds were firm.

Laborer's Body Found In Cabin
Water running in a kitchen sink for some time, led to the discovery last night of the body of a Klamath Falls man, Ray Ofield, 50, a laborer who lived alone in a small cabin apartment.
Apartment manager, Charles Larson, and investigating city police, found Ofield dead on the kitchen floor, apparently of a heart attack about midnight. He was last seen by Eric Berg, a neighbor, entering his home at 10 p.m.
Ofield was a native of West Virginia and has no known relatives in the West.
The body is at O'Hair's Memorial Chapel.

THE OTEI BAND posed for this picture with Director Brooks Custer during yesterday's final rehearsal before the "Spirit of Christmas" parade tomorrow. The band will be one of eight musical entries of various types in the parade which starts down Christmas Tree Lane (Main Street) at 11 a.m.

OEA Delegates Go North To Vote On Amendments

Several revisions of the Oregon Education Association's rules and bylaws are scheduled for consideration this weekend in Portland when the OEA Representative Council convenes. Carol Whetstone, Klamath Falls OEA president announced today.
Mrs. Whetstone said that three local area delegates will attend the meeting with instructions concerning dues, rebates to Classroom Teacher's Association, placement bureau fees, deduction of taxes for education, increase in accumulated sick leave, and reappraisal of the Basic School Fund distribution.
The local unit, which met recently in the Willard Hotel, voted to send Benj. Elliott, Stan Kendall and Goldie Peterson un-

Indians Use Bid Privilege

Klamath Tribal members took advantage of a sales provision permitting them to meet any high bids and pre-empted all but three of the highest bids at the recent sale of Indian lands held by the Indian Sales Office in Klamath Falls.
Earl Wilcox, manager of the sales office, reports that the three units not pre-empted were Nos. 83, 85 and 132.

Two Jailed For 5 Years

Two California men each were sentenced to five years in the Oregon State Penitentiary Friday by Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg.
The sentences were passed on Fred L. Schwab, 33, Modesto, for burglary, and Philip B. Brunner, 36, San Francisco, for obtaining property and money under false pretenses.

Funerals

Funeral services for Martin Sass Kroeger will take place from the chapel of Ward's Klamath Funeral Home on Saturday, December 6, 1958 at 11:30 a.m. The Rev. Leroy Redal of the Klamath Lutheran Church officiating. Concluding services in Klamath Memorial Park.

SHED BURNS

Fire destroyed a small storage shed at the W. L. Rodgers residence, 3317 Cannon Avenue, during the early hours of Friday. The Suburban Fire Department reports that the fire destroyed about 300 pounds of potatoes, along with sacks, clothing and other items. The cause of the fire is unknown.

WOCUS CABIN DESTROYED

A fire started to burn off the grass along a ditch bank in the Wocus area, got out of control Thursday afternoon and eventually destroyed a deserted cabin, the county fire department reports. The Oretch fire department assisted the county unit in fighting the blaze, which burned off a couple of acres. Firemen said they were unable to determine ownership of the building, which has reportedly been vacant for years.

Oregon Weather

Table with columns: Location, Max, Min, Prep. Rows include Baker, Bend, Eugene, Lakeview, Medford, Newport, North Bend, Pendleton, Portland, Redmond, Roseburg, Salem.

Eastern Oregon — A few snow flurries in the north tonight spreading over remainder except the extreme south Saturday. Cooler, low tonight 15-25 except 10 above in some high valleys; high Saturday 34-42.
Western Oregon — Partly cloudy through Saturday with some patches of early morning fog. Chance of a few light showers, possibly mixed with a few snow flurries. Cooler. Low tonight 25-35; high Saturday 40-46. Mostly northeasterly coastal winds 8-15 miles an hour.

Northern Oregon Beaches — Mostly cloudy through Saturday with increasing showers tonight and Saturday. Snow showers in coast range. Temperature range 32-48. Westerly to northwesterly beach winds 5-15 miles an hour.
Grants Pass and Vicinity — Fog tonight and Saturday morning, but clearing in afternoon. Low tonight 25-30; high Saturday 45-50.
Baker and Vicinity — Partly cloudy through Saturday with chance of a few snow flurries Saturday. Low tonight zero to 15 above; high Saturday 28-38.

Denham also mentioned that his group has considered revisions of organizational law, increase of salary from $11,500 to $15,000 per annum for state superintendent of public instruction, the anti-loitering act, absentee ballots for school elections, and permissive legislation for kindergartens to be established in communities of less than 20,000. This is not to be attained through the use of basic school support funds, Denham commented.

V. F. W. WINTER DANCE SEASON

STARTS SAT. NITE, DEC. 6th Members and Their Guests Cordially Invited Music by Don Phelps Trio

REHEARSAL for the J. W. Kerns' Christmas parade float was caught by a Herald and News photographer as the cast tried out their costumes on Thursday afternoon. They are posed before the stage in the store where the annual puppet show will be held each Friday and Saturday without charge until Christmas. The costumes are full size replicas of the three kings in the puppet show. Heald, at left, is Judy Kerns. The kings, from left, are Melvin Alfred, Joe Kerns and Betty Kerns. The music from the children's opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," will be broadcast and the original recording will be used for the puppet show at Kerns' store. The annual Christmas parade, sponsored by the Klamath Merchants Association, will start at 11 a.m. on Saturday.

Position Given Recreation Chief

Bob Bonney, city recreation and park director, will head the Inter-Agency Council during 1959. Elected to the new corps of officers at the December 3 meeting to serve with Bonney are Wilbur Womer, vice president and program chairman, and Lillian Hoffman, re-elected secretary. Jerry Thorne is retiring president.
Jack Grewell, Oregon Technical Institute instructor, presented movies taken in the Hawaiian Islands during the year he spent there as an exchange teacher from O.T.I.

False Arrest Suit Lodged

George Yost, well known Tulelake rancher, has filed a false arrest suit against Tulelake Police Chief Jerome Ternus and the town of Tulelake.
Yost seeks $37,500 damages on the ground he was maliciously arrested on a misdemeanor drunk driving charge. A jury acquitted him of the charge last August 21.
The suit filed in Siskiyou County Circuit Court maintains that Yost was arrested "maliciously and without cause for the sole purpose of intimidating" him and to prevent his testimony in a civil suit filed by Mrs. Evelyn Carson against the town of Tulelake.

Guilty Plea Given In Drive Case

An 81-year-old Klamath Falls man pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving in district court Thursday, after the pickup he was driving collided with another vehicle in the parking area at the intersection of Highways 66 and 39.
State police say that Frank Smidt, Route 1 Box 552, told them that he was headed east on 66 when he decided to stop at a Lakeview Junction tavern. They say that he was driving at a high speed and in a reckless manner so that when he came into the parking area he skidded 77 feet and knocked another car nearly six feet sideways.
Judge D. E. Van Vactor sentenced Smidt to pay a $100 fine or to spend 47 1/2 days in jail; he was committed. He also had his license suspended for an indefinite period.

Reluctant Baboon Returns To Zoo
FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The baboon that spent a cold 20 hours atop a church steeple to escape the veterinarian's needle, is back in the Frankfurt Zoo. And she's had the needle.
The 2 1/2-year-old baboon escaped to the top of St. Nicolai's steeple Tuesday night when the veterinarian tried to give her an anti-tuberculosis injection. She stayed on her lofty perch through subfreezing weather while men from the zoo shivered and waited below.
She finally came down Wednesday night.
