

*Herald
&
News*
December 7, 1958

DR. HARRY FREDRICKS, president of Kiwanis Club, which is sponsoring the Oberammergau Passion Play, meets with representatives of the Klamath Falls Ministerial Association, whose members have endorsed the play. Checking details, are left to right, Dr. Fredricks, Capt. Louis Kendall of the Salvation Army, the Rev. Dallas McNeil of the Methodist Church, Mrs. McNeil and Mrs. Fredricks. The small picture at right shows a portion of the children's park being developed along Kit Carson Way by the Kiwanis Club. Proceeds from the play will be used for this park project.
—Photo by Kettler

MR. AND MRS. DICK KENYON have called Klamath Falls their home for the past month as they make preparations for the Passion Play. Although busy, they have been able to do some sight-seeing. A four day trip over Thanksgiving weekend took them to Reno, Lake Tahoe and Mount Shasta. They have also seen Crater Lake. Mrs. Kenyon has been in the United States for only seven years from her home in Czechoslovakia. Her husband, from Akron, Ohio, has been general advance representative for the Passion Play for two years.
—Photo by Ellis

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT MAINHARDT shown with their daughter, Kathy, 7, at left, and Molly, 4, came from their home in Diablo, California, to visit Mrs. Mainhardt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bubb, 1244 Eldorado Avenue, for the Thanksgiving weekend. Mrs. Mainhardt will be remembered as Janice Bubb before her marriage. Her husband is vice president and general manager of Aerojet General Nucleonics at San Ramon, California.
—Photo by Ellis

STEPHEN CRAIG, 8, and David Scott, 10, came to Klamath Falls to have Thanksgiving dinner with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, 2032 Earle Street. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Triebwasser of Fair Oaks, California. Their mother is the former Jean Wiesendanger. Arthur Triebwasser is a certified public accountant with offices in Sacramento. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Triebwasser, the boys' paternal grandparents live in Oakland.
—Photo by Ellis

SOCIETY

A MORNING COFFEE was given by Mrs. Frank Drew on November 25 at her home, 1991 Van Ness Avenue. Her guests were neighbors and friends asked to meet Mrs. Dick Kenyon, who is in the city with her husband making plans for the presentation of the Passion Play. Shown left to right are Mrs. Harry Fredricks, Mrs. Kenyon and Mrs. Drew.
—Photo by Ellis

THE THANKSGIVING WEEKEND was a busy one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Albrecht, 319 Pacific Terrace, when their daughter, Merlyn, and son-in-law, Thomas M. Howard, came with their three young sons. They are shown above with Timmy, 6, at left, and the 3-year-old twins, Rick and David. The Howards make their home in Orinda, California, where he is connected with a brokerage firm.
—Photo by Ellis