A touch of the Orient—asters and peony leaves in oblong container.

THE GIFTING SEASON is upon us, but at all times the pleasure of gift-giving is enhanced when presents have permanent value.

A display of flowers or a small plant, always delightful as gifts, are much more meaningful when arranged in lasting additions to the household—small containers which can be used for fruit, foliage, or candy—to be cherished long after the flowers and the occasion for giving them are gone. There are many lovely bowls or compotes available this season with which to create effective gifts for almost any occasion.

An important side-table group—matching lamp, ash tray, plant holder—makes a generous gift.

Always welcome gifts—fruit bowls or tall, slim pitchers for single sprays.
