

You're Invited... Tomorrow Night... 7:30 P. M.

TOWN & COUNTRY SHOPPING CENTER'S GIANT CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING

At 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night, Lt. Col. Raymond A. Thornton, Deputy Commander, 408th Fighter Group, Kingsley Field, will pull the switch that lights over 2,000 brilliantly colored lights on the annual giant Christmas tree at Town & Country. This big tree (over 100 feet tall) will remain lit throughout the Holiday season for everyone in the Basin to enjoy.

6 FREE TV SETS

Within the next 12 days we will give away absolutely FREE 6, Emerson portable Television sets, plus hundreds of dollars in merchandise from the Town and Country merchants. Here's how you win: The Free merchandise and TV certificates will be enclosed in the Animal Cracker boxes passed out to the kiddies each night by Santa, so be sure and check the box carefully that your youngster gets each evening... it may contain one of the valuable certificates. Nothing to buy, just bring your youngster out for FREE animal crackers each evening.

In just a few short years Town & Country's annual giant tree has become almost a tradition to the families of the Klamath Basin. The merchants of Town and Country invite you to use this big tree as a community tree of the Klamath Basin... to enjoy at any time. The Town and Country merchants offer their very special thanks to Ned Putnam and his crew, and the Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. for their assistance in obtaining, transporting, setting up and decorating this big tree.
