Grants Pass Girl Bride Of Kenneth M. Schrier

Chrysanthemums in the rust and yellow shades were used to decorate the First Baptist Church in Grants Pass on November 22 when Anna Marie Born, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis W. Born, Grants Pass, became the bride of Kenneth Merle Schrier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel J. Schrier of Klamath Falls.

The service was read by the Rev. Gilbert Meyers at 7:30 in the evening.

Mrs. J. W. Isbell sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Fredrick Brock Jr., who also played the wedding music.

JOYCE GUNTHER of Chapter 467, Women of the Moose, was in charge of the social service chapter night, December 2, in the Moose Hall. She was assisted by Ann Arnold.

Entertainment was provided by the Klamath Mid-jets from Klamath Music Center. A talk on juvenile delinquency was given by Eugene Alt.

15 members attended the meeting.

Masonic Installation

ALTURAS — William M. Clark was installed as worshipful master of Alturas Lodge No. 248, Free and Accepted Masons, on Saturday night, November 29, by Milan Briles of Cedarville, past master of the Alturas lodge, who was assisted by William K. Derby as master of ceremonies and Estle Argabright Sr. as installing chaplain.

Arthur Hughes was presented with a past master jewel. Officers for the ensuing year are senior warden, William A. Goodfellow; junior warden, Van Norman Riley; treasurer, W. R. Jones; secretary, Donald W. Hicks; chaplain, William K. Derby; senior deacon, Carlo Neilson; junior deacon, Robert Baker; senior steward, Raymond E. Schaad; junior steward, A. B. Stephens; marshal, George Waterman, and Tyler, Everett Starkebaum.

The closing prayer was by the Rev. Karl E. Olson, pastor of the Alturas Federated Church.

DeMolay boys were ushers and programs were passed by Rainbow Girls.

Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Hughes served refreshments to their guests at beautifully appointed banquet tables decorated with blue candles which blended with the Blue Lodge emblem centerpieces, and pink wild roses and greens. Blue napkins bore the emblem of the Blue Lodge and name of the worshipful master. Rose decorated napkins bore the names of Arthur and Frances Hughes.

The lodge room was decorated with large baskets of pink chrysanthemums, carrying out the colors of the worthy matron-elect, pink and leaf green. Her flower is the wild rose.

Mrs. Hughes wore a blue satin floor length gown and carried her emblem, fashioned from frenched pink carnations with tiny yellow chrysanthemums as its center.

The ladies of her staff wore wild rose corsages and the gentlemen wore wild rose boutonnieres.

"Prayer Perfect" was sung by Mrs. Goulden, accompanied by Mrs. Mathews.

Mrs. Mary Hight received a past matron's pin from junior past worthy matron, Mrs. Ruby Goulden. William Goulden, junior past worthy patron, presented the past worthy patron pin to Carol Hight.

Mrs. Irene Bigler was piano soloist.

The Mizpan benediction closed the ceremonies.

why does Magnavox stereophonic high fidelity cost you less?

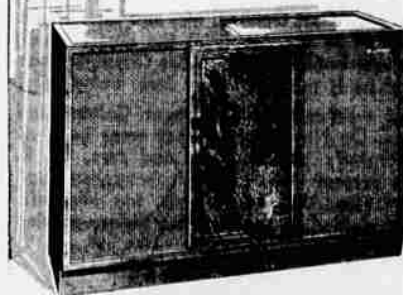

here's why...

Magnavox sells directly from the factory, only to a limited number of fine stores in each community. "Middleman" distributor costs are cut, and you save the difference. This — plus specialized manufacturing — results in the greatest value for your money.

Magnavox has long been regarded as one of the finest instruments made — having specialized in the manufacture of quality electronics for over 47 years.

Magnavox builds most of its own precision components and fine cabinets, resulting in greater quality, dependability and the finest furniture your money can buy... all readily apparent when you see and hear a demonstration.

Pay as little as $16.50 down...only $14.00 per month

TWO COMPLETE SOUND SYSTEMS... in one beautiful cabinet. Six Magnavox speakers — including two 15" bass. Powerful dual-channel amplifier. Stereo Diamond Pick-up. Gliding top for access to changer and controls. Library space for over 90 new stereo or LP records. Select from mahogany, oak, cherry or American walnut finishes. Optional — extra FM-AM radio.
