Merrill Club Elects Officers

MERRILL—New officers were elected by members of the Merrill Library Club during a regular business meeting held Thursday, December 4, at the Merrill Recreation Hall. Taking over their official offices in January will be Glenna Walker, president; Wanda Shuck, secretary; Grace Walker, treasurer; Eva Bowman, parliamentarian; and Bea Mattson, librarian. Serving on the nomination committee were Grace Walker, Dorothy Baxter and Mildred Walker.

The meeting was conducted by Glenna Walker in the absence of the president, Esther Johnson.

It was reported that Mrs. Raymond Mattson was serving as librarian during the illness of Mrs. George Mattson.

New members introduced were Mrs. Mildred Poe and Mrs. Agnes Keck.

At the close of the meeting a program of holiday songs was rendered by Mrs. Harold Snapp accompanied by Mrs. Lillian Thomas. Members also exchanged gifts. A potluck luncheon attended by 30 members and guests preceded the meeting.

BETHEL NO. 6

International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 6, met in regular session Thursday, December 4, with Honored Queen Nancy Meador presiding in the East.

New capes were purchased and worn for the first time this meeting.

Carolyn Osborn, grand page of the Grand Bethel and marshal-elect of Bethel No. 61 was escorted and given a welcome.

Officers elected for the ensuing term were Pat Crawley, honored queen; Ann Anderson, senior princess; Susan Moss, junior princess; Linda Heyden, guide; and Joan Wisner, marshal.

Myrna and Ellen Freewing were welcomed as new members from Prineville.

Junior Bethel officers held the stations for this meeting and junior librarian, Karen Lindley, read a Christmas poem.

The December 18 meeting will be the last one of this term and initiation will be held.

GUILD CARD PARTY

SUMMER LAKE—Three tables of cards were in play at a party sponsored by the Summer Lake Guild Friday evening, December 5. It was held at the parish hall. High in pinocle were Frank Graves and Bill Harvey. Henry Markus and Rosalie Claggett were low. In canasta Beatrice Harvey won high and Ardy Markus, low. The state bird quilt made by the guild women was awarded to Mrs. Muriel Hergert of Fort Rock. Refreshments were served following the card play.

ON OUR TOES

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American public is well-heeled. We buy 19 pairs of shoes every second. This adds up to about 3½ pairs of shoes a year for every adult and child in the country. One pair, worn steadily for 3½ months, takes a total pounding weight of 73,500 tons — more than the weight of the largest aircraft carrier afloat.

Etna OES Has Installation

ETNA — Evening Star Chapter No. 10, OES, held its 85th annual installation of officers on November 29, 1958, in the Masonic Temple.

Approximately 225 members and friends witnessed the impressive and beautiful ceremony.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was W. D. Mathews Sr., who gave the welcome address and introduced the installing officers as they were escorted to the east: Mrs. Merrill Farley, installing matron; Francis Farley, installing patron; Mrs. Norma Rivallier, marshal; Mrs. Barbara Cross, honorary marshal; Mrs. Cynthia Hjrtager, chaplain; Mrs. Harriet Davidson, organist; Samuel Potter, flag bearer. Courtesy matrons for the evening were Mrs. Bernice Potter and Mrs. Helen Miles. Erling Hjrtager, Harrison Howell and Albert Snyder were ushers.

The Bible was escorted into the chapter room in a very beautiful ceremony by the installing chaplain carrying the open Bible and five star points carrying lights in the five colors.

Mrs. Lucille Gaynor, deputy grand matron, Weed, was escorted to the east and welcomed.

Officers for the year include: Mrs. Viola Stone, worthy matron; Robert Stone, worthy patron; Mrs. Marie Ashcraft, associate matron; Dr. Granville Ashcraft, associate patron; Atlanta Adams, secretary; Mrs. Doris Jackson, treasurer; Mrs. Hazel Bourdon, conductress; Mrs. Irene Davis, associate conductress; Mrs. Mildred Stanton, chaplain; Mrs. Merrill Farley, marshal; Mrs. Jane Arbuckle, organist; Mrs. Jaunita Banning, Adah; Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Ruth; Mrs. Darlene Lampert, Esther; Mrs. Delores Tozier, Martha; Mrs. Shirley Eastlick, Eleeta; Mrs. Clara Williams, warder; Larry Lampert, sentinel and Francis Farley, flag bearer.

Bobby Sheffield, grandson of the newly installed worthy matron and worthy patron, presented his grandmother with an OES Bible covered with pink orchids and deep rose ribbons. Bonnie Sheffield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stone was soloist for the evening, accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Hammer.

Mrs. Viola Stone, worthy matron, was presented with a beautiful gavel and block engraved with the emblems of her year, by her husband, Robert Stone, and their daughter, Bonnie. Mrs. Merrill Farley and Francis Farley were presented with Past Matron and Past Patron Jewels.

The newly installed worthy matron chose a rose lace and net formal for her installation and wore a large white orchid corsage presented to her by Mrs. Merrill Farley. Other incoming officers in white formals wore wild rose corsages. The star points carried bouquets made in the star point shape and colors with ribbon streamers made by Mrs. Viola Stone.

The chapter room was beautifully decorated in the theme for the year. A large wild rose and musical note with the motto, "Love, Harmony and Understanding," was placed in the east, with a basket of wild roses in front of the dias. In the west a display of wild roses and musical notes encircled the worthy matron's and worthy patron's names.

A banquet was served preceding the ceremonies by members of Evening Star Chapter with Mrs. Florence Mathews and Mrs. Ruth Proctor as co-chairmen. Refreshments were also served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Polly Farrington and her committee.

MARILYN KAY MILLER, daughter of Maurice Miller, circulation manager of the Herald and News, and Mrs. Betty E. Dye of Portland, is finding her junior year at David Douglas High School in Portland a busy one. She is a member of the school pep club and is active in music and art groups. She also does modeling of teenage styles in White Stag sport clothes line.
