Jean Neptune Is Bride In Double Ring Service

McCLOUD — The Mount Shasta Community Methodist Church was the setting for the double ring ceremony which united Jean Neptune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Neptune and Theodore Howard Crocker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Howard Crocker Sr., of Dunsmuir on November 27.

The Rev. H. L. Engdahl read the marriage service at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of nylon and lace over silk, fashioned with a long fitted bodice and scalloped square neckline. The full skirt featured a pleated nylon net insert in front and a butterfly bow at the waist in back. She wore a full length veil held in place by a small hat and carried a pink rosebud bouquet.

Cynthia Ann Neptune was her cousin's maid of honor and wore a ballerina length gown of blue lace over tulle. She carried a nosegay of pink chrysanthemums.

Sandra Lee Hough was bridesmaid. Jack Crocker was best man for his brother, Everett Nash and Harry Marsh were ushers.

Flower girl was Barbara Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nash of McArthur. Benjamin Neptune, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neptune of Mount Shasta, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Neptune's gown was of pink lace. Mrs. Crocker chose a blue dress. Both mothers carried pink chrysanthemums.

Carolyn Clark sang "Always" and "If Dreams Come True" accompanied on the organ by Albert May McElroy.

A reception was held in the church social room where the newlyweds cut a three tiered wedding cake, which was served to 120 guests by Dorothy Smith. Albert Nash was in charge of the guest book.

The bride was graduated from Mount Shasta High School. Her husband was discharged from the Navy in June and is employed by the McCloud River Lumber Company. They will make their home in Mount Shasta.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Larry Konyk and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith of Sacramento.

Clark accepted the gavel.

Mrs. Helen Spicer was installing matron. Will Hoskins, father of Mrs. Hughes, was the installing patron.

Installing Marshal Mrs. Ruby Goulden, in conducting the worthy matron-elect to her station, was greeted by Benny Hughes, who continued toward the east with his mother.

Andrea Hughes met her father at the south, from where she escorted him to his station in the east.

Mrs. Alice Ingraham was honorary marshal.

All of the attractive floor work was done to a variety of marches played by Mrs. Marie Mathews. Flag bearer was Donald W. Hicks.

KEEP KITCHEN A MONOTONE

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—A "one-color" plan often is best for kitchens, says Jane Graff, home furnishing expert at Michigan State University. Door, windows, and furnishings break up space in rooms, and often give a cluttered or "busy" look. Use of only one color can help hold the parts together, Miss Graff added.
