

THE REV. OLAN TERRELL congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Glenn William Lucas Jr., following their marriage November 29 in the First Methodist Church of Dunsmuir. Mrs. Lucas is the former Carla Walter.

Lucas-Walter Rites In Dunsmuir Church

DUNSMUIR — In a candlelight service on the afternoon of November 29 in the First Methodist Church, Carla Walter exchanged wedding vows with Glenn William Lucas Jr. The Rev. Olan Terrell officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The family Bible was displayed in the church foyer with a decor of wedding bells.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Walter, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white satin styled with an empire lace bodice, a square neckline outlined in sequins and long tapered sleeves. A pearl and sequin tiara held a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a Job's Daughters Bible with streamers of Stephanotis.

Olivia Walter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a princess style frock of green tulle and carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Bonnie Bishop of Redding was bridesmaid. Her dress and flowers were similar to those of the maid of honor.

Robert Lucas of Davis was best man for his brother. Another brother, David Lucas, and Ray Walter of Sacramento seated the guests and lighted the candles prior to the ceremony.

Mrs. Ludford Elvy, sister of the bride, played the wedding music. Mrs. Elvy and Helen Chiment sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Wilma Jean Freysinger.

Mrs. Walter wore a garnet colored suit with black accessories and white hat. Mrs. Lucas chose a navy blue ensemble and white hat. Both mothers wore white corsages.

Wedding bells, evergreen boughs and holly were used to decorate the church social hall for the reception which followed the ceremony.

Guests were served refreshments by Mrs. Lee Huddle, Mrs. Morris Estep, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. L. Speaker and Mrs. Arthur Pickthorn. The guest book was passed by Virginia Hull. Howard Jones furnished background music.

The bride attended Dunsmuir schools, Shasta Junior College and Sacramento State College. She is a past honored queen of Job's Daughters.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr.

Nerseth Family Plans Reunion

Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerseth will hang four Christmas stockings on the fireplace mantel this holiday season. This year, both daughter and son on the family tree will arrive in advance of Santa in time to put a gentle whisper of suggestion into the old Saint's receptive ear.

Daughter Gail will arrive this weekend from College of the Pacific down Stockton way where she is a junior and has shared her vocal talent with Stockton folks.

Son Marvin, discharged just last October 4 after a tour of duty including one and a half years in Germany, will be beneath the family roof tree. Interesting sidelights on his sojourn abroad, he left his native land as a second lieutenant, came home with a silver bar of first lieutenant upon his shoulders... and for three months he attended an Army German language school at Oberammergau. He's catching up on family happenings since he last saw his parents during summer when they flitted a bit about the European continent.
