BPW Club Enjoys Indian Program

The Business and Professional Women's Club had an interesting and informative meeting December 1 at the Willard Hotel, with President Alice Gallup in charge. Eva Cook, parliamentary procedure chairman, prepared and presented the program, which included authentic Indian dances put on and described by Lefty (Wild Eagle) Wilder, assisted by his talented family dressed in beautiful Indian costumes.

Reva Martz ably described parliamentary procedure. A question and answer period followed. The next meeting of the club will be the Christmas party, Monday, December 15, at the Willard Hotel. Each member is asked to bring a gift for some needy child marked for boy or girl, also a gift with the giver's name for the club exchange.

Institutions of religious orders were known to the ancient Egyptians and to the Jews before the Christian Era.

Graham Family Holds Reunion

DUNSMUIR — In an unusual setting the Graham family held a family reunion at Bray on Thanksgiving weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Kohlhafer of Dunsmuir, hosts, have recently purchased the old Southern Pacific depot at Bray. Mrs. Kohlhafer's mother, Mrs. Margaret "Grannie" Graham, was the senior member of the party of 30 relatives who ate dinner in the old waiting room of the depot, converted into a living room. Upstairs offices are now used as bedrooms. Kerosene lamps and water from the well added a touch of novelty to the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Kohlhafer's guests included their daughter, Carol, Mrs. Margaret Graham, Mildred Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. Don Noyer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen and family, Mrs. Lyle Alton and children, all of Dunsmuir; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jacob and children and Malcolm Graham of Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gumbert and children of Klamath Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Graham of Canyonville.

Local Couple Returns To West

The Presidio is to be home to two Klamath Falls young folks, Joan Fitzpatrick Ustick, her husband David and two tots, Debbie, almost 2 and young David, almost 8 months.

Trip from Fort Lee, Virginia, was by air with not a peep from the small fry who slept most of the way from starting point to Klamath Falls.

Here they will visit paternal grandmother, Mrs. Freda Ustick, 2209 Applegate Avenue, and maternal grandpappa A. L. Fitzpatrick. David senior, a sergeant first class in the service in the East for three years, will break trail to San Francisco seeking spot to settle near U.S. military post.

Small fry will watch for Kris

Kringle this year in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. U. once were on staff of Herald and News.

FAMILY DINNER

MONTAGUE—Thanksgiving day at the C. L. Churchill home also marked the birthday of Mrs. Churchill and that of Christine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Churchill, who was seven on November 29. Present for the birthday - Thanksgiving dinner besides those mentioned were the C. L. Churchill's two daughters, Mrs. Myra Davidson, Hayward, and Mrs. Jeanette Flower and son, Lloyd, of Sacramento; and Stevie and Patricia Churchill, children of the Jack Churchills.

Merrill Club Has Yule Party

MERRILL—Members and their families of the Now or Never Club held their annual Christmas party at the Merrill Recreation Hall on Sunday afternoon, December 7. Christmas gifts were exchanged and secret sister names were revealed following a buffet turkey dinner.

A musical program pertaining to the Christmas season was presented by Jany Hodges, Dana and Terry Falvey and Nancy, Paula and Donnie Harris.

Grace Walker was awarded the meeting gift. The next meeting will be held in January at the home of Mrs. Anna Sterner in Klamath Falls.

REBEKAH LODGE

At its regular session on Thursday evening, December 4, the members of Prosperity Lodge No. 104, discussed plans for participation in the Odd Fellows family Christmas party to be held on Friday evening, December 21. There will be a program and treats from Santa Claus.

The district deputy president announced that installation will be held on Friday, January 2. Practice will be on Sunday afternoon, December 28, at 2 o'clock.

A certificate of perfection was presented to Helen Blanas and seals of perfection to Laura Verlings, Jennie Hurn, Bernice McCracken, Velma Krauss, Helen McCracken and Vera Fritsch. The incoming noble grand and vice grand gave the ritualistic work required by those two officers.

Debate Given At Club Meet

"Classical Music Is The Best Entertainment" was the title of the debate given at the regular meeting of the Mt. Mazama Toastmistress Club on December 4 at the Willard Hotel.

Speakers for the affirmative were Floy Johnson and Blanche Petroff. The negative points were presented by Doris Abernathy and Leigh Fenning.

Inez Lambert was guest evaluator for the meeting.

Mrs. Leola Thompson read some of her own poetry which will be printed and presented at Oregon's Centennial next year.

Guests are welcome at the next meeting of the club on December 18 when a Christmas program will be presented.

ZULEIMA NILE

A special program of choral music by the KUHS freshman chorus highlighted the Zuleima Nile Club Christmas luncheon meeting December 3 at the Willard Hotel. Harriett Johnson presented Director Steve Stone and his young singers of some sixty voices who gave an outstanding performance of special selections.

Lorene McCollum was chairman of the day. The Pine Grove room was decorated in the Christmas theme and the tables were gay with Santa's sleigh and reindeer, high red tapers tied with large bows on silver leaves and green holly. Dulcy Motley was decorations chairman, assisted by Eloise Elliott, Vera Fritsch and Ailsa Kuykendall.

Vera Powell had charge of calling the members and was assisted by Melvyn Nitschelm, Geraldine Duncan, Hazel Hagelstein, Katherine Lignam, Marie Pike, Wilma Strode, Ruth O'Hara, Beatrice Beane, Gladys Bingham, Ann Fairclough, Mae DeFuy, Mary Barkdall, Kathryn Stonecypher and Rita Boudon.

The Christmas box table, in charge of Karen Young, was piled high with gift wrapped presents which will be sent to the crippled children in the Portland Shriners Hospital. Also displayed were 36 lovely dolls which had been repaired and dressed for the hospital out-patients.

Helen McCracken reported on the cases of fruit juice sent at Thanksgiving and Louise Estes said that five electric popcorn poppers had been mailed to the teenagers in three Shriners hospitals.

Marie Orem of Fort Klamath was introduced to the club as a new member of Zuleima Temple.

Beatrice Wilkes and Nellie Nichol won the birthday prizes. Special prizes went to Veva Anderson, Helen Rajnus, Madelon Hensley and Marie Pike.

The next club meeting will be on January 7 with Ruth Rennie in charge.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

MONTAGUE — Mrs. Everett Conroy honored her son, Richard, with a party to celebrate his sixth birthday on December 3 at her home. After an afternoon of games the birthday cake was served to Wayne, Noralee and Esther Burch, Terry and Dan Fraser, Larry and Darrel Reed, David, Charlotte and Shirley Manning, Paul Owens, Danny, Betsy, Bruce and Beth Ann Paul, Gary High, Mrs. Bernice Burch, Mrs. Doris Owens, Mrs. Irene Paul and Mrs. Beanie Reed.

Cornell University is authority for this fish story and they swear its true: Starfish slide their stomachs outside their mouths, invite a tasty clam or other morsel to come in and then slide their stomachs back inside for digestion.
