Pamphlet Removal Set

TOKYO (UPI)—U.S. authorities ordered military chapels today to remove from their shelves a controversial pamphlet urging Americans not to marry foreigners.

The pamphlet, which had begun to create ill will in Japan where 30,000 U. S. servicemen have married foreign girls, was written by a chaplain named George W. Thompson.

Titled "If I Marry A Foreigner," it warned Americans against attempting to hurdle the social and religious barriers involved in such a marriage.

Col. Albert C. Schiff Jr., staff chaplain of the 5th Air Force here, ordered the pamphlet removed from chapel shelves.

"This pamphlet should not be on the literature racks of our chapels," he said in an official statement. "This is not an official pamphlet and was distributed inadvertently. Now that it has been brought to our attention it is being withdrawn."

The pamphlet asked Americans to "think a long time" before marrying a foreigner.

SOME PUMPKINS

COLUMBIA, Tenn. (UPI) — Pumpkins grow high at the W. S. Fleming home near here—as high as 20-25 feet. One pumpkin fell from its vine and broke the windshield of an auto.
