Bly Regains Winning Ways; Henley Bows

The Bly High School Bobcats regained their winning ways Friday night in non-league basketball play, while the Henley High Hornets fell short in their game with Phoenix.

Bly stepped out of County B League action to meet the Henley Jayvees, and walked away with a 50-40 triumph over the young Hornets. This was the Bobcats first outing since being knocked off earlier last week by the KUHS Wildcats.

Henley traveled to Phoenix Friday night only to lose in the closing minutes, 41-40. The game was a non-league fracas for the county's lone A-2 school.

There were no reports received from the Bonanza-KU Wildcat or Gilchrist-Sisters games played Friday night.

Monday night the Malin Mustangs return to conference play as they tangle with the Bonanza Antlers at Bonanza in a match postponed from last Friday.

The Bly Bobcats were again paced by the high-scoring efforts of center Jerry Patzke who scored 29 points and raised his season total to 149 in six games, an average of over 24 points per game. The flashy Bly cager dropped in 14 of his evening's total in a torrid third period drive that left the Henley Jayvees staggering in its wake.

Bly held a 13-8 first period lead and then moved ahead 28-13 at halftime. At the close of the third quarter, following Patzke's surge, the Bobcats were in complete command 46-31.

Following Patzke in the scoring column was cousin Jim with 13. High for the Henley juniors was Bob Chapman with 21 points.

In the preliminary contest, Henley's freshman club walloped Bly's junior varsity 40-24.

Henley's loss was a heartbreaker, after the Hornets led through the second half up to the last minute. Then Phoenix pulled the non-league conquest out of the hat.

Phoenix led 11-7 at the end of the first period, but Henley pulled up to a 19-19 deadlock at halftime. After the third period's action, the Hornets led 35-28 and seemed to be on their way to a win.

With two minutes left in the game, Henley led 40-35. But two long shots by Dick McClurg and another field goal by Don McIntosh put Phoenix into a 41-40 lead. With one second left in the game, Henley's Burrell Gober had a one-and-one freethrow attempt that could have tied the game, or even won it for the Hornets, but the ball rolled off the rim no good.

McIntosh led the winners with 11 points. Henley's Phil Swisher tallied 13 for game honors.

Oregon Game Hunters Get Time To File

Big game hunters have until January 15 to file application for the 1959 emergency season list, the Oregon Game Commission said recently. Interested persons are urged to apply by post card for eligibility on the list. Applicants are cautioned to apply for only one county since duplicate applications will be discarded.

Authority for emergency big game hunts was authorized by the 1957 Legislature to control crop damage. Under provisions of the law, the commission may declare a damage control season on short notice for not more than 75 animals in an area less than a township in size.

Since the need for emergency hunts cannot be predicted, it is necessary to establish rosters of eligible hunters in advance. Any resident 17 years or older may apply by mailing a post card to the Oregon Game Commission, 1634 S. W. Alder, Portland, Oregon.

All post cards received before 5 p.m. on January 15 will be considered in the drawing to be held January 20 to determine the listing order of applicants. Information required on the card includes full name, age, address, telephone number, and county applied for. A hunting license is not required at the time of applying but is necessary before participating in a hunt.

The order of eligibility for each county will not be published, but rosters will be available at the Portland and regional offices of the game commission by February 1. Eligible hunters will be notified in the order of their eligibility on the county roster when a season is authorized.

Experience during 1958 indicates that the individual hunter has a poor chance of being called. Only seven emergency hunts were declared and all involved elk damage. These included two in Union County, one in Wallowa County, two in Clatsop County, one in Douglas County, and one in Coos County. A total of 101 hunters participated and bagged 50 elk. More than 7,000 hunters applied for eligibility on the 1958 county rosters.

Hal Wood's Weekend Short Shots

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Weekend shorts:

Golf professionals believe that John Brodie, San Francisco Forty Niner quarterback, will click on the rich winter golf tour. Brodie won the Northern California title last summer and announced at that time he would turn professional. However, he did not turn in an official announcement and cannot collect money in PGA-sponsored tournaments for six months more. . .

Coach Len Casanova of Oregon is in favor of moving the goal posts up so that college kids would have better chances to kick field goals, a la professionals.

Two sons of former Shrine East West football stars will be competing in this year's classic next Saturday. They are Broko Nagurski of Notre Dame, son of the old Minnesota All-American; and Bernard Svendsen, son of another Minnesota ace. . .

Andy Kerr, who will be participating in his 32nd Shrine game adds to the legend of the great Bronko Nagurski, the first: "What a man," recalls Kerr. "He could play every position. We were going to play him at guard in the 1930 game, but our fullback wasn't too good. So we shifted Bronko to full. All he did was tear our defensive line to pieces in practice. Once he ran through the line and went right on through the wooden fence, tearing a big hole in it, at the Stanford practice field." . . .

Tip to the Iowa Rose Bowl team: Don't defense Joe Kapp for short passes on his pass-run option plays. The versatile quarterback is working on those long throws and may take a shot at a few of them New Year's Day. . .

California ski resorts have given up hope of having snow for Christmas this year—first time in memory there has been no snow at the 6,000 and 7,000-foot levels. . .

University of San Francisco, perennial power-house in West Coast basketball, lost its first three home games. But the betting is that coach Phil Woolpert will have a top-contending team—and again one of the best in the West—by the time the championship season rolls around. . .

It's a big deal for most sports editors to be honored at one testimonial. But Alan Ward, sports editor of the Oakland, (Calif.) Tribune, was the guest of honor the other night at the "22nd annual Alan Ward homecoming" staged by the Lions club of Hayward, Calif. . .

Remember when the NCAA decided to de-emphasize football by cutting down the number of post-season bowl games? Wha' hoppen? This season there will be something like 20 post - season games played. . .

Willamette Tops Southern Oregon

ARCATA, Calif. (AP)—Willamette University of Salem, Ore., met the California Aggies in the final round of the losers' bracket at the Far West Invitational basketball tournament Saturday.

Willamette defeated Southern Oregon 70-60 Friday and the California Aggies upset Chico State, 63-54.

Humboldt State and San Francisco State met in Saturday's championship game.

Montana '5' Bounces WSC

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—Montana's Grizzlies, putting on their best shooting attack of the year, upended Washington State College Friday night, 53-43, for their first basketball win in six starts.

Montana took a quick 7-4 lead, increased it to 10 points in the last 10 minutes of the first half and went into the intermission with a 25-17 edge.

With Danny Balko and Marvin Suttles bearing the Grizzlies' heaviest scoring artillery, the host club got off fast in the second half, extended the margin to 43-26 and coasted the rest of the way.

Montana hit 21 of 53 for 30 per cent, the Grizzlies best shooting mark so far this year. Washington State scored on 17 of 49 shots from the field for a 28 per cent average.

Balko led all scorers with 19 points. Jim Ross had 12 for the WSC Cougars.

Indiana Topples OSC Five

CORVALLIS (AP) — Oregon State's Beavers met Indiana Saturday night in an intersectional basketball game after losing Friday night to them 57-53.

It was close all the way, but the Beavers missed their big chance to tie things up in the final five seconds when Lee Harman missed a shot from just outside the key.

Indiana grabbed the rebound, then sank two free tosses to move into their winning four - point margin.

Sophomore Walter Bellamy led the Hoosier offense with 17 points, but he shared scoring honors with Oregon State's Steve Flynn, who also scored 17.

The Beavers tied the game seven times in the first half and led at the midway point 30-29.

After 10 minutes of the second half the Beavers led by seven points. Then the Hoosiers—with the 6-foot-10½-inch Bellamy on the sidelines—rallied and pulled ahead.

Allen Schlegelmilch's three straight field goals sliced the Oregon State margin to one point, then LeRoy Johnson scored a field goal that moved Indiana ahead 47-46.

Although Flynn, a 6-foot-5 sophomore, led Oregon State scorers, he drew strong support from Lee Harman. Harman played an outstanding game and scored 12 points.

Oregon State's two big men—6-foot-8 Gary Goble and 6-foot-9 Karl Anderson—fouled out in the second half. Goble left just before the Indiana rally.

Skin Owner Ponders Sale

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Marshall says he might sell out his controlling share in the Washington Redskins if—

He could swing a deal that would net him a lot of money.

The new owner would permit him to continue running the pro football club for at least a decade.

Marshall didn't say how much money he'd want, but it probably would take a seven figure sum to buy his 69 per cent interest. He has controlled the club since it entered the National Football League in 1932, first at Boston and later in a franchise switch here.

Marshall told newsmen Friday that more than 20 persons have asked about buying the team over the years.

NY Rule Waived For Moyer Fight

NEW YORK (AP)— State rules say fighters under 20 years old must engage in nothing longer than 8-round fights, but 19-year-old Denny Moyer of Portland, Ore., has been granted permission to meet welterweight contender Gaspar Ortega of Mexico in a televised 10-rounder Jan. 2. in Madison Square Garden.

The New York State Athletic Commission waived the rule because of Moyer's record. It's perfect. He has won all 18 of his fights, four by knockouts.

Ortega, who is 23, is ranked fourth nationally by Ring Magazine and sixth by the National Boxing Assn. And he has had 62 fights, winning 47.

Fraley's Facts, And Figures

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

Leo Durocher took a lot of raps a few years back for his printed philosophy that "nice guys finish last" yet this same feeling by Pee Wee Reese, one of the nicest guys ever to wear cleats, is what kept him from wanting to be a manager.

Reese, who has stepped off the playing field to be a coach for Los Angeles, could have had the managerial spot with the Dodgers. But Pee Wee was smart enough to know that a winning manager has to get tough with his players from time to time—and realistic enough to know he just couldn't do it . . . He didn't want to be one of the nice guys to finish last . . .

In these days when professional bowlers are making big money, Steve Nagy recalls with a chuckle that when his team captured the Cleveland city championship 25 years ago each man won $2.

LIKE THAT CASH

"They gave us a nice watch fob, too," he chuckles. "Well, I went out and bought a dollar watch so I could wear the fob. The rest of the team kidded me so much that I heaved the watch up against the wall." . . . In other words, medals and such are fine, but no substitute for cold cash . . .

Four new "super" country clubs may set a trend in "commercial" country club development, the National Golf Foundation reports. These mammoth clubs, with memberships ranging from 1,700 to 5,000 offer private quality clubhouse, golf and other recreational facilities on a volume basis with low-cost membership and dues.

Indian Spring, Md., has 1,700 members, two 18-hole courses, three swimming pools and driving range. Atacosita, Houston, Tex., CC, has 4,000 members. Dallas has two super clubs, River Lake with 2,200 members and Brookhaven with 2,600 members, three 18-hole courses, three swimming pools and two clubhouses . . . The question is, how do you find the other members of your foursome?

THE WINNINGEST

West Virginia's all - opponent football team lists three men from Oklahoma and two from Syracuse, which meets Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. But the Mountaineers gave honorable mention to four Syracuse players and only two Oklahomans . . . which would seem to figure out that nobody should sell Syracuse too short on Jan. 1 . . .

Adolph Rupp, the baron of Kentucky, is college basketball's winningest coach with an .852 average on 585 wins and 102 losses over 28 years. Ed Diddle of Western Kentucky has won the most games, 679 over 36 years, with 235 losses for a .743 percentage . . . which takes in a lot of bounces. . .

So you're a good bowler? Well, keep an eye on the ladies. Out in Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Alys Price rolled 224-238-246 — 708. If you think that's an isolated case, Julia Ward bowled 238-209-257—704 on the same night Eleanor Fisher rolled a 685 series . . . So don't be condescending to the gals.

Fog Hampers Iowa Workout

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Maybe California's football team can't stop Iowa but California's smog can.

Coach Forest Evashevski cut short the second of two heavy workouts Friday when some of his Hawkeyes complained the thick smog blanketing the field was too much for them.

The boys from the Midwest found it hard to catch their breath when they gulped in lungfuls of the smog-tainted air. Even if the air had been crystal clear, however, they would have been out of breath. For Evashevski drove them hard in both workouts.

The Big Ten champs, who face California in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day, are making up for time lost because of inclement weather at home after their regular season closed.

Mountaineers, Kentucky, NC Nab College Basketball Wins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The battle lines are forming early this college basketball season and, with pairings like Kentucky-West Virginia, North Carolina-Northwestern and Auburn-Alabama, the sport had itself a tidy Saturday program.

West Virginia, which used the Kentucky Invitation Tournament as a springboard to the No. 1 national ranking a year ago, met host Kentucky in the current renewal at Lexington. North Carolina and Northwestern, both unbeaten clashed in the Blue Grass Tournament finals at Louisville, and the Auburn-Alabama match was for the championship of the Birmingham Classic.

The top basketball fan nearly had his fill Friday night with eight of the AP's top ten in action together with most of the hopeful challengers.

West Virginia, No. 7, hitting 76.2 per cent from the field in the first half and 54.9 for the game, overwhelmed Oklahoma State 67-49 and Kentucky, No. 2, despite the illness of regulars Don Mills and Billy Ray Lickert, thrashed Ohio State 95-76.

North Carolina, with Lee Schaffer whipping in 24 points, toppled disappointing Notre Dame 81-77 and Northwestern, matching the Tar Heels' 4-0 record, beat host Louisville 73-66 in the Blue Grass.

Auburn's winning streak, longest among the major schools, rose to 15 in a 70-47 romp over Wyoming in the Birmingham Classic before Alabama clipped previously unbeaten Texas A&M 66-62.

In other tournaments, The Citadel (78-52 over Georgia) and Miami of Florida (85-79 over Florida State) made it to the title game of the Citadel Invitation at Charleston, S.C., and Catawba and Troy (Ala) reached the Stetson Invitation wrapup. Catawba beat Birmingham Southern 86-69 and Troy eliminated Stetson 68-63.

Along with Kentucky, Auburn, North Carolina and Northwestern, five other teams extended their perfect records in the bustling Friday action while four others besides Texas A&M were dumped from the all-winning class.

Mississippi State, with Bailey Howell scoring 31, coasted over Morehead (Ky) 87-63 for its seventh straight, and St. Joseph's of Philadelphia — maybe the East's best — made it 6-0 by downing Kansas 67-63 in overtime. That one came as part of a doubleheader at Manhattan, Kan. before Kansas State, behind Bob Boozer's 19 points, recorded North Carolina State's first loss in six starts, 69-67.

Xavier of Ohio, defending NIT champ, rallied behind Hank Stein's 15 points in the second half for its fifth straight — nine over - all — 80-68 over previously unbeaten Seattle. Niagara is 5-0 after a 72-71 squeaker over Kent State and Cornell stands 4-0 after surprising Syracuse 77-74.

Southern California and Muhlenberg suffered their first losses — the Trojans to Oklahoma 60-50 and the Mules 52-51 to five-time loser Temple as Bill (Pickles) Kennedy hit with a jump shot with five seconds left.

The Pacific Coast Conference swept a doubleheader from the Big Ten at Madison, Wis., with Washington topping the host Badgers 62-48 and California, now 4-1, defeating Iowa 71-52. Indiana recovered a little conference prestige, nipping Oregon State on the West Coast, 57-53.
