

Pine Orders Hike Noted

PORTLAND (AP)—Western pine orders and production this week increased over the week before, but shipments dropped, the Western Pine Assn. reported Friday.

Orders this week were $5,162,000 board feet, compared to 70,492,000 board feet the previous week and 68,551,000 board feet for the same week of 1957.

Shipments dropped to 71,666,000 board feet this week from 72,992,000 the week before, but the figure was above the 66,392,000 feet of the same week a year ago.

Productions figures for the three periods were 75,716,000, 73,965,000 and 71,803,000, all in board feet.

Insurance May Figure In Killing Of Student

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Police investigating the mystery slaying of a 400-a-month clerk are trying to figure out where $67,000 worth of life insurance fits into the picture — if it does.

James Bullock, 27, was found dying of bullet wounds in front of the City Art Museum Wednesday night. He worked for the Union Electric Co. by day, attended classes at the University of St. Louis three nights a week and Saturday, and sang in a church choir on Sunday.

His wife of six months, Edna Ruth, 23, added $250 a month to the couple's income as a kindergarten teacher. In addition, they received $130 a month rent on the other half of a recently-purchased duplex in which they lived.

That gave them a total of $780 a month — before taxes and deductions.

Police, who provided the figures, said that out of this modest income the couple was paying $255 a month on the duplex, $55 on a car, and $35 on furniture. They also were making payments on a $2,000 credit union loan used to make part of the down payment on the duplex, and paying premiums on the $67,000 worth of life insurance.

A lie detector test also was refused, police said, by Thomas Johnson, a high school teacher who testified he met Engleman at the dentist's office at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday and they didn't part until 8:55 p.m. after visiting a drugstore below the office.

It was about 7:30 p.m. Wednesday that Bullock was found dying in front of the museum.

The druggist at the downstairs store, Oliver C. Funsch, testified that he and an office boy tried to arouse someone in Engleman's office shortly after 7 p.m. but got no response. He said that was after he received a telephone call from an anonymous woman who expressed concern for the dentist's safety. Funsch said the caller told him she was phoning for a woman friend who had been in Engleman's office earlier.

The druggist said Engleman and a friend walked into the drug store about 7:40 p.m.

The inquest was recessed until Tuesday after Engleman balked at testifying. Mrs. Bullock was excused from testifying after her attorney said she was suffering from shock.

An insurance policy for $45,000 came to light Friday when a quarterly payment of $85.85 was due. Police said Mrs. Bullock had told them she knew of only $42,000 worth of life insurance on her husband; a $9,000 policy with his employer, two $5,000 policies, and a $23,000 policy covering the mortgage on the duplex.

The investigation turned up other baffling angles. For example: Mrs. Bullock was married for about two years to a dentist, Dr. Glenn E. Engleman, 31. They were divorced more than two years ago.

Engleman refused to testify at an inquest Friday on the ground that he might incriminate himself. He also refused to take a lie detector test, police said.

Networks OK New Contract

NEW YORK (AP)—Major radio-television networks and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists have agreed on a new contract, ending a dispute which produced threat of a strike.

Donald F. Conaway, national executive of AFTRA, called the new pact "highly satisfactory." The union represents 12,000 announcers and performers, most of them in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles.

The new contract includes an increase in guaranteed base annual pay of announcers from $10,000 to $11,000. They also will get extra pay for overtime or free-lance work.

Performers will be paid for the first eight times a taped show is repeated on the air instead of the first five times.

The agreement also shortens the base pay rehearsal time and boosts the hourly rate for rehearsal overtime. Pay scales for all performers were not disclosed.

Rancher Sees Price Hike

PORTLAND (AP)—An Oregon rancher, who is president of the National Assn. of Wheat Growers, says reduced wheat acreage allotments and support prices will push marketing cost margins between the producer and consumer up.

Floyd Root of Wasco, in Portland en route home from Washington, said he conferred with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson.

He said he believed the U.S. Department of Agriculture would recommend further reductions of both the acreage allotments and price supports.

This, he predicted, would cause the farmer to shift his production from wheat to feed grain, thus forcing an increase in the feed grain surplus while reducing the wheat surplus.

"It is the opinion of the National (Assn. of Wheat Growers) the lower prices for wheat will not aid in solving the problem of excess supplies, but will only serve to increase the margins of marketing costs between the producer and consumer," he said.

Court Frees Slay Witness

TILLAMOOK, Ore. (AP)—A silent witness jailed for contempt of court has been released from the Tillamook County jail here.

He is Airman T.C. David Meyer, 21, Tillamook, who refused to testify in the second degree murder trial of Lelani Batke, 21, Tillamook.

Meyers was held in the jail for three months prior to the trial as a material witness.

When he refused to say whether he knew Miss Batke, Meyers was found in contempt and sent back to jail.

Circuit Judge Jack Bohannon Friday disclosed he ordered Meyers' release from the jail Tuesday. Meyers is stationed at a radar station at nearby Mount Hebo.

Miss Batke, charged with killing her new-born son, was found innocent by reason of insanity, and released.

Cousins Admit Robbery Attempt

LA GRANDE (AP)—Two cousins walked into court here Friday and admitted trying to rob a La Grande market.

Circuit Judge W.F. Brownson handed out two-year state prison terms to Alonzo Williams, 20, and Elijah B. DeClue, 21, both of La Grande.

The youths had fled empty-handed from the market.

ALL-POINTS
BOSTON (AP)—Police broadcast to all-points that its two Christmas trees had been stolen. Headquarters said the trees vanished en route from a local florist shop. Neither the truck nor its driver could be found.
