BEDECK YOUR HOLIDAY TABLE with this pretty Christmas tree made of paper toweling. Shape a cone about 12 inches high from stiff paper. Cut one-inch wide stripes of folded towels on the bias. Fold each strip and snip with scissors along one edge for fringe. If you wish, you can curl this slightly with a small knife. Spiral the strips of folded towels on the bias. Fold cover completely. As a finishing touch, dab white paste lightly over the entire fringe and sprinkle with sparkle dust, or attach tiny colored stars. A bright foil star tops the decoration.

A PENNY FOR THE THOUGHTS of young Geoffrey Custer as he watches old St. Nick rock back and forth in the sleigh drawn by three white reindeer. This attraction delighted both children and adults at the Christmas display at Suburban Flower Shop on Sunday, December 7.
