

THE JOY OF THE CHRISTMAS SEASON is being spread by these five young people as they sing the familiar and popular carols. They are members of the junior choir of the Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church and will sing with the combined choirs during the Christmas services. THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS cannot come too soon for Larry, 4, at left, Randy, 5, and Scott Lee, 1 1/2 years old, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Magallanes, 518 High Street. They were only too happy to dress up for the photographer in their bright red and white outfits made by their mother, the former Beverly Karnes. Grandparents who will help them explore the contents of their fancy socks on Christmas morning are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Karnes, 4539 Clinton Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Mauro Magallanes of Worden. —Photo by Ellis

THE ENGAGEMENT of Karen Lee Lavenick and Ivan L. Pankey has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lavanick. The bride-elect graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in 1958 and is attending Capitol Business College in Salem. Her fiance, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pankey, also is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy. He is a freshman studying pharmacy at Oregon State College and is a pledge of Kappa Delta Rho fraternity. — Photo by Ferebee

RECENTLY announced by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robbins of Grants Pass is the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Beverly Joan, to Tom McNeal Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Simmons also of Grants Pass. The bride-elect graduated from KUHS in 1958, and her fiance was graduated from Grants Pass High School in the same year. He is employed by the Daily Courier as an apprentice pressman. The wedding date is set for January 3.

Lodge To Honor Police, Firemen
WEED—A banquet to honor the Weed Volunteer Firemen, Weed Police and Auxiliary Police was held Friday night, December 5. The banquet is slated for Monday night, December 22. Mrs. Nella Wade was reinstated into membership and was welcomed by the presiding Pocahontas, Mrs. Dorothy Sottana. A Christmas party will highlight the December 19 meeting. Secretaries will exchange gifts and reveal their identity, followed by the drawing of new names for the ensuing year. A dinner will precede the party event. Mrs. Virginia Anderson received the award for the evening. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hazel Coggins. According to a 1958 Federal Reserve Board Survey of Consumer Finances Americans have assets of at least a trillion dollars.

Santa Claus Says
"this Christmas be unusual ... give Miss Saylor's Remembrance Chocolates!"
The gift that pleases everyone, whoever they are, wherever they are. The tropic aroma of the lovely chocolate blends perfectly with the fragrant flavors of the creams, fruits, nuts and chews to make Miss Saylor's Remembrance Chocolates a never-to-be-forgotten treat. Exquisitely different... deliciously irresistible. This Christmas give Miss Saylor's Remembrance Chocolates. You'll be remembered for your good taste.
