THE ANNUAL FORMAL DINNER DANCE of the Klamath Falls Shrine Club was an event of December 6 in the Klamath Auditorium. President Brick Leach presided at the meeting for the 200 members and their wives who danced to the music of Baldy Evans and his band. Jim Winde was general chairman with Jack Bothwell serving as hospitality chairman. Shown at the beautifully decorated head table, left to right, are Mr. and Mrs. George Hillis, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Newbry, Mr. and Mrs. Brick Leach and Mr. and Mrs. George Dugan. — Photo by Ellis

SHRINE CLUB MEMBERS and their wives danced in an atmosphere of island beauty when Al Nyback used the Hawaiian theme to decorate for the annual formal dance. Orchids and candles floated on a pool at one end of the dance floor which was banked with palm trees and arrangements of flowers. Shown beside the pool, left to right, are Joe O'Neill, Chet Moore, Mrs. Joe O'Neill, Mrs. Chet Moore, Mrs. Sanford Selby, Sanford Selby, Cecil Barkdoll, Mr. and Mrs. Al Nyback, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stonacypher, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jones. — Photo by Ellis Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellington Jr., Dr. and Mrs. John Merryman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Egge, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Al Nyback, Mr. and Mrs. William DePew, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cruikshank, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Franz, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zamsky. All college students are cordially invited.

St. Barnabas Guild Meets

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. C. W. Dearborn entertained the guild of St. Barnabas Church at her home December 11. Margaret Anne Whitlatch, president, was in charge of the meeting. Reports were given on the November bazaar. Grace Dearborn was named as chairman of the nominating committee to be assisted by Donna Dixon and Carolyn Dearborn. A Christmas gift exchange was held followed by the serving of refreshments to 20 members present. After the meeting the women sewed on the angel costumes for the Christmas program to be held December 21, followed by a party for the children. The guild will meet January 22 at the home of Dorothy Peterson in Bonanza.

Bank Employees Guests At Dinner

WEED—The annual Christmas party for employees of the First Western Bank, Weed branch, was held at Don's Restaurant Saturday night, December 6. Guests were invited for the holiday dinner event and were included in the exchange of Christmas gifts that highlighted the festivities of the party. Arrangements of artistically decorated pine cones and lighted candles were interspersed among evergreen boughs for the table decor. Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Riley; Mr. and Mrs. John Kersey; Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Freeze; Mr. and Mrs. John McCoy; Josie Sealise; Claudia Leon; Mrs. Maudie Bianconi; Gilbert Tosarti; and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hopson.

Local Students Receive Honors

From the University of Oregon comes word of the recent initiation of Carolyn Heilbronner into Pi Lambda Theta, national women's educational honorary, whose purpose is the maintenance of the highest standards of scholarship, professional preparation and fellowship among women who plan to enter the teaching field. Carolyn, a senior in education, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, 2338 Reclamation. Jack Barry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barry of Merrill, was tapped for the Blue Key, a national men's honorary at Pacific University. Eligibility for this honor is judged on scholarship, leadership, character and participation in college activities. Jack is a junior majoring in optometry. Wally Sweek recently represented Southern Oregon College at a general election review sponsored by the Oregon Citizenship Clearing House and held on the Lewis and Clark campus. Thirty six other interns plus professors from most of the Oregon colleges and from the College of Idaho were present at the day-long meeting. Featured guest speakers were the campaign managers of the Travis Cross, Republican, and Harry Hogan, Democrat. Oregon State College sends word of two Klamath Falls men who were among 19 engineering students picked for membership in Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honor society. Selection is based on outstanding scholarship, leadership and promise of future achievements in the engineering field. The two are Max D. Heiken, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Heiken, 204 North Third Street, a senior in electrical engineering, and Walter F. Lovell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lovell, 3242 Delaware, senior in civil engineering. Neida Snook played a major role in the recent Oregon State College production, "Mary of Scotland," one of six plays to be presented this year by the OSC speech department. Neida is a freshman in the liberal arts school.

Stephen Hobson has been awarded a partial-tuition scholarship for studies this year at Oregon State. The scholarship is one sponsored by the state system of higher education for outstanding students. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hobson of Route 1, and is registered as a freshman in the school of engineering.
