Bates - Miller Rites In Bible Baptist Church

The Bible Baptist Church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums in autumn colors of gold and bronze for the November 27 wedding of Sylvia Deane Miller and Bill Bates. The Rev. Freeman Schmitt performed the ceremony before 300 guests at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Miller, 1727 Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bates, 434 Michigan Avenue, are parents of the bridegroom.

Gene Horn of Roseburg, as soloist, sang "Because" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Bud Chandler who also played the traditional wedding music. Doctor E. M. Causey of the First Baptist Church offered prayer at the close of the ceremony.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a princess style gown of white lace over satin, designed by Mrs. Harold Campbell. The fitted bodice featured a net yolk outlined with lace scallops, small collar on the round neckline and

Engagement Made Known

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Day of Wasco, California, formerly of Tulelake, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ellen to Charles Liberto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Liberto, Tujunga, California.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Tulelake High School and attended Colorado Woman's College at Denver. She is presently a student at California State Polytechnic College at San Luis Obispo and will be a candidate for the degree of bachelor of science in elementary education in June. She is a member of the California Student Teachers Association and is president of her dormitory, Chase Hall, where the engagement was formally announced by a traditional candle-light ring.

The bridegroom-to-be is a graduate of Verdugo Hills High School in Tujunga and attended Pierce School of Agriculture at San Fernando. He received his bachelor of science degree in animal husbandry this month from California Polytechnic.

A June wedding is planned by the couple.

Former Tulelake Girl Marries In California

Rich autumn shades of chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in candelabra provided the setting for the marriage of Janet Diane Schweigert of Concord to Hugo Carzino. The Rev. Alvin Rubin officiated at the wedding service in the Trinity Lutheran Church of Walnut Creek on November 30.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Schweigert of Tulelake and the late Carl Schweigert, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Fernando De Martini. The bridegroom was of white slipper satin. The bodice of Chantilly lace featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. A band of flowers held a veil of double illusion dotted with seed pearls. She carried a white garden basket of chrysanthemums centered with cymbidium orchids.

Maid of honor was Shirley Young of Tulelake. Judy Carlson of Sebastopol, and Donna Hudson of Trace, were bridesmaids.

Charles Morgan of Concord was best man. Guests were seated by John Rusconi of Concord and Peter Pistochini of Martinez. Soloist was William Baum of Walnut Creek.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Schweigert chose a gown of pink lace. Mrs. Carzino wore a dress of aqua and white floral silk. Both mothers wore white orchids.

The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception held in Chubby Humble's Pioneer Inn at Clayton.

The bride is a graduate of Tulelake High School, and is a past grand officer of the Order of Rainbow for Girls State of California.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carzino, was graduated from Mt. Diablo High School in Concord.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the couple will make their home at 5175 Laurel Drive in Concord.

VFW PARTY

DUNSMUIR—The VFW held its annual Christmas party on December 11 at the VFW Hall. Plans for the party were made earlier in the month at a meeting at the home of Susan Marin. It was announced that the auxiliary had recently completed a welfare project for Camp White near Medford.

Ann Lucero Weds Lieutenant

DUNSMUIR—The chapel at Treasure Island was the scene of the recent nuptials of Ann Lucero and Lt. Clayton W. Robson. Both the bride and bridegroom are former residents of Dunsmuir.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Stephen McLennon of Cupertino and she chose a street length dress of pink embroidered satin and chiffon for her bridal outfit and carried an old fashioned bouquet of roses.

The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Orvil W. Robson of Dunsmuir. He is stationed at Warner Roberts Air Force Base in Macon, Georgia, and the newlyweds will live there.

The bride was attended by her sister, Gretchen McLennon, also gowned in pink embroidered satin. The father of the bridegroom served as best man. A reception followed the ceremony at the officer's club at Treasure Island.

EAGLES LODGE PARTY

DUNSMUIR—Eagles and Auxiliary members joined together for a Christmas party for members and their families at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple on Monday, December 8. Dancing and entertainment followed a 6 o'clock dinner. Mrs. Noble Roberts was dinner chairman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laas were host and hostess for the evening.
