

NEW YEAR'S EVE party ideas were in the air at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, Tulelake, when this threesome got together. Mrs. Thomas, left, Mrs. Roy Campbell, center, and Mrs. J. Merton Brown, all came to the Tulelake country in the early homesteading era and since that time have taken part in church, school, PTA, community and civic happenings. They have been members of the same bridge club, the Octave Club, for 20 years and had been present for their annual Christmas get-together the day before the Herald and News photographer passed by. Present for the luncheon and afternoon of bridge on December 18 were Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Lawrence Horton, Mrs. George Yost, Mrs. Clark W. Fensler, Mrs. George Frey, Mrs. William Hooper and Mrs. Pat McGinley.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums were at the altar rail for the 11 o'clock double ring service read before the immediate family and close friends.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a ballerina length dress of white lace over pink taffeta. Her brief off-the-face veil was held in place with a band of tiny white flowers and seed pearls. She wore a blue garter made by her great-aunt, Mrs. Jack Anton of Los Angeles. Something old was the heirloom pearls given her by her sister, Mrs. Roy Hodges, and something new was the handkerchief, a gift from Mrs. Lloyd Gift, of Langell Valley. Borrowed was the mother of pearl prayer book she carried topped with an orchid and stephanotis.

Mrs. Roy Hodges of Sacramento, sister of the bride, was the only attendant and wore a ballerina length dress of white lace and aqua taffeta. Her flowers were a bouquet of pink carnations.

George Silva of San Jose, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Roy A. Hodges and Dan House.

Coralee Hodges, niece of the bride, wore a blue bouffant nylon dress and carried a basket filled with rose petals down the aisle. Her headpiece was pink.

Mrs. Leavitt wore a navy blue

MR. AND MRS. FRANK L. SILVA were married in Saint Roses Church in Sacramento. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt of Bonanza. Mr. and Mrs. John Silva of Ferndale are parents of the bridegroom. The newlyweds will reside in Ferndale.

Local Girl, Bride In Eastside Rites

The Full Gospel Tabernacle atore with white accessories and Eastside was the setting for the wedding of Mary Catherine Barker to Charles William Dunn. The Rev. Charles Hughes officiated at the double ring ceremony on November 23.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alston, 634 Owens Street. Mr. and Mrs. George Mason of Hutchinson, Kansas, are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by James Miller, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white Chantilly lace and net over satin. A coronet of small white flowers held a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums on a small white Bible.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Geraldine Mull, wore a frock of pink taffeta and carried a nosegay of chrysanthemums of multicolors.

Bonnie Mull and Connie Mull, twin sisters, lighted the candles. Lonnie Mull was the flower girl. Best man was Byron Mull.

Mrs. Cleo Crutchfield sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Alice Hennessy at the piano.

Following the reception held in the church social room, the bride changed to a travel dress of dark blue in the chemise style which she
