Sojourners Club Christmas Party

Sixty members and guests of Sojourners Club attended the annual Christmas party at the Willard Hotel on Wednesday, December 10.

Mrs. Wayne Horton, Mrs. G. L. Crowe, and Mrs. Hal Rotrock, hostesses for the afternoon, greeted arrivals into the beautifully decorated dining room. Candlelight accented the table decorations which were most unique. Mrs. A. V. McVey, decorations chairman, with the assistance of her committee members made centerpieces of silver-sprayed twigs from which hung colorful ornaments. The ornaments were brightly enameled egg shells trimmed with bits of glitter, lace, braid and ricrac. Inserted in the center of each shell was a cut-out motif from Christmas cards. Sprays of silvered evergreens with little angel figures and candles were arranged the full length of the long tables. Favors of perfume were at each place, compliments of local concerns.

A social half hour preceded luncheon at which the Willard Hotel management was host.

Installation of officers for the next six months followed luncheon. Mrs. George Ashbaugh served as installing officer while the retiring officers pinned corsages on respective new officers as they were recognized. These new officers are Mrs. Vernon Neet, president; Mrs. Dick Bowers, vice president; Mrs. Robert Comstock, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Scott, secretary.

Mrs. Robert Wright, retiring president, presented two attractive metal trays by Mrs. Neet in appreciation of the former's leadership of the club these past six months.

A review of the last six months' activities of the club was cleverly compiled in the form of a series of personal letters to an anonymous friend by Mrs. Harry Mauch.

Mrs. Neet, after announcing the new appointments to the board, declared the meeting adjourned. Mrs. Otto Biber, party chairman, introduced the afternoon's program with the entrance of Santa Claus.

Following the customary gift exchange, Mr. Stone from Fremont School, presented a program of Christmas music. Among the selections rendered by the 17 girl Fremont ensemble were: "What Child Is This?" from "Green Sleeves," "Evening Prayer" from "Hansel and Gretel," an old Russian carol "Hark, The Vesper Hymn Is Stealing," and an old French Carol, LeRoy Anderson's arrangement of "Sleigh Ride" concluded the program. Linda Hanville and Janis La Grande were the piano accompanists for the ensemble.

In addition to Mrs. Otto Biber, the committee on party arrangements was composed of Mrs. George Callison, Mrs. Hal Rotrock, Mrs. G. L. Crowe, Mrs. Robert Cuendet, and Mrs. A. V. McVey. First time guests were Mrs. Lorraine Wilson, Mrs. Mara Maloney, and Mrs. Rosemary Moon. Those who were in attendance for the second time were Mrs. Estelle Lunde, Mrs. Bonaie Lane, and Mrs. Kathleen Vergeer. Mrs. Rosalie Baughm was welcomed as a new member of Sojourners while Mrs. Miriam Lloyd, Mrs. Ruth K. Ray, and Mrs. Shonebamber were guests of the day.

SEWING CLUB

DUNSMUIR—Mrs. Joseph Kelly entertained members of her sewing club at a Christmas party at her home on the afternoon of December 8. The serving of refreshments concluded the afternoon. An exchange of gifts is an annual event of this group.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

DUNSMUIR—The Lady Firemen of Dunsmuir were hostesses at a Christmas turkey dinner for their husbands and families at an annual Christmas party given at St. Barnabas Guild Hall. Santa Claus appeared at the dinner's close with gifts for the children present.

PINOCHLE

BONANZA — Mrs. Bob Schmor entertained at her home in Bonanza on the evening of December 17, with a pinochle party. High prize for the evening went to Mrs. Roy Fernlund, second high to Mrs. Homer Dixon and Mrs. Jess McFall won the traveling prize. Others enjoying the cards and refreshments were Mrs. Howard Schmidt, Mrs. Charles Schmidt, Mrs. George Simmons, Mrs. Donald Horsley and Mrs. Edward Adams.

Carolyn Lake Bride In Ceremony

Carolyn Lake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dillis O. Ellison of Crescent Lake, became the bride of Juddy Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson D. Brown, Route 3, in a recent ceremony performed by the Rev. Charles W. Myers in the Immanuel Baptist Church.

The bride wore a gown of white net over silk with scalloped lace outlining the neckline and the full floor length skirt. A pearl and sequin tiara held a veil of illusion. She wore elbow length mitts and carried white roses and carnations on a white Bible.

Pamela Fletcher, maid of honor, wore a full skirted blue frock and carried pink rosebuds. A similar style in pink was worn by the bridesmaid, Mary Evans, who also carried pink rosebuds.

Candlelighters were Georgia Brown and David Larkey, niece and nephew of the bride.

Kenneth Brown was best man for his brother. Ushers were Jack Burnett, Dee Valentine and Dale Spencer.

Ann Rexford was soloist accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Charles Myers.

Mrs. Ellison chose a pink lace dress for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Brown wore a black knit suit and pink hat. Both mothers wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

Ferns and chrysanthemums encircled the base of the pink and white three tiered wedding cake cut by the couple at the reception held in the church parlors. The cake was served by Mrs. Ann Rexford. Mrs. E. V. Zell poured coffee and Mrs. Clara Benson served the punch.

The bride attended schools in Gilchrist and was active in 4-H and Girl Scout groups. Her husband served with the Marines after his schooling at Henley. Both are members of the Skin Divers Club. They will reside at 2449 Illrannie Hagler, Mr. and Mrs. Bisbee Street.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Paul Larkey and David, Mount Shasta; Mary Evans, Crescent; May Downey, Nadine Reed, Mildred Bowersox, Edna Holverson, Illrannie Hagler, Mr. and Mrs. Ellison all of Crescent Lake; Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bradley, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Stan McMahan, Eugene, and Meta Collins, Chiloquin.

Party Honors Malin Girls

MALIN—On that important date in every young girl's life, her 16th birthday, Mary Jayne Fisk and Marcia Kenyon were honored at a party held Saturday night, November 30, in the Malin Community Hall. Both girls are popular members of the sophomore class at Malin High School and are two of the school's yell leaders.

Theme of the party planned by the girls' mothers was "Melody Lane" with large black musical notes decorating the walls. The beautifully decorated birthday cakes were centers of interest on the refreshment table covered with a pink cloth. In the center of the table were the names of the guests of honor in black letters surrounded by musical notes. The girls' younger sisters, Cathy Fisk and Cathy Kenyon helped with the decorations.

The 60 guests enjoyed dancing and games. Chaperons for the fun occasions were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fisk and Mr. and Mrs. Elmont Kenyon. Refreshments of punch and cake were served.
