

Palmberg Calls Club Back Pelicans Return To Work

Owls' Vacation Cut Short

Coach Wally Palmberg calls his Oregon Tech Owl basketball squad back to the playing court Sunday evening as the Tech cagers return from their abbreviated Christmas vacation.

The Owls are pointing for their next maple court play January 2 and 3 against Westminster College at Salt Lake City. On their road trip, they will tangle with Northwest Nazarene January 5 at Ontario on their way home.

Palmberg has two-a-day practices billed for the Techmen this coming week as they prep for their three-game road trip, the first going away from home this season.

Earlier in the season, Northwest Nazarene whipped the Owls twice on the Mile High Campus floor, opening up a new basketball rivalry for OTL. The two-game series with Westminster will add another new foe on the Owl basketball records.

Reporting along with the Oregon Tech squad this evening will be a few new faces, which are expected to strengthen the Owl basketball roster. Heading the list of newcomers is 6-4, 240-pound Arnold Metcalf, the big Tech football tackle who was waiting until the end of the fall term to become eligible for basketball.

Metcalf, who moves extremely well for his size, has been working out and is reportedly in good shape. McCutcheon is a name familiar to local basketball fans. Jess is the younger brother of OTL's all-conference standout John McCutcheon who finished his college basketball eligibility last season under Palmberg. Jess, a freshman, stands 6-4 and has enrolled for winter term at OTL. He played his prep basketball at Willamette of Eugene and Springfield, the latter as a member of the Millers state tournament team.

With the addition of Metcalf and McCutcheon, Palmberg may move Ardell Hamilton to a guard spot to strengthen the Owls backcourt weaknesses. Hamilton, the team's leading scorer, has looked impressive at times in the first six games and needs only a little more experience to become a fine ball player according to Palmberg.

Working Hamilton at guard, directing the Tech attack may make better use of his speed and shooting ability. Going into the "new year," Hamilton heads the Owl scoring race with 80 points in six games for a per-game average of 13.4. Second highest point producer for Tech at this stage of the season is Charlie Wilson with 60 points, and an even 10 points per contest.

Wichita Trainer Dies In Corvallis

CORVALLIS (AP) — Lester L. (Doc) Needham, 50, athletic trainer for the University of Wichita, died in a Corvallis hospital early Saturday.

Needham suffered a stroke the night of Dec. 13, when the Wichita team lost a basketball game 72-55 to Oregon State College here.

Sugar Hart Scores Win Over Dupas

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Youth and punch beat youth and experience Friday night as Sugar Hart of Philadelphia took a split decision over New Orleans welterweight, Ralph Dupas in a 10-round bout.

The defeat put an end to Dupas' boast that he never had lost to a welterweight, and the victory for Hart bolstered his position as a contender for Don Jordan's crown.

How soon the Philadelphia will get a title shot is problematical, but Harry Markson, International Boxing Club executive director who watched the fight, indicated Hart would have to wait a while at least.

Dupas was not particularly downhearted by his setback, which was by the narrowest of margins. Asked how he rated Hart among the other welters he has met, he said he rated him right along with Vince Martinez as the toughest he has fought. He beat Martinez.

It was a ding-dong battle from the start in Miami Beach Auditorium, and it was Hart's punching power — he had registered 20 knockouts in 29 previous fights — which was the difference.

Although Dupas is the same age as Hart—23—he started young and has had 90 bouts, exclusive of the Hart affair.

Referee Jimmy Peerless gave the fight to Dupas, 98-97, based on the 10-point "must" system for the winner of each round. Judge Gus Jacobson had Hart in front, 96-95, and Judge Stu Winston's card had Hart on top, 97-94. The Associated Press card had Hart winning 97-94.

The nationally televised bout drew 2,846 fans who paid $7.17.25 to see the ranking welters battle it out. Hart is rated No. 2 and Dupas No. 4.

Orangemen Set For Trip South

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI) — Syracuse University's Orangemen went through their last drills here Saturday before leaving for Florida and their New Year's Day meeting in the Orange Bowl with Oklahoma.

By the time the squad finished preliminary drills for the game, Art Baker, a sophomore from Erie, Pa., appeared certain to fill a backfield vacancy that has developed during the squad's two-week drill period here. He will probably take the place of Ed Keiffer at the fullback spot.

Keiffer, also a sophomore, was hurt in the first day of drills and has returned to the team as a second-stringer.

THE GOLD CUP RACE AT SEATTLE
The flamingo-pink Hawaii Kai, running its only race of the year, roared to a convincing victory. Miss Thriftway roared out of control into one of the patrol boats and gave Driver Bill Muncy his punch line for winter banquet speeches:

"I'm the first man to sink a Coast Guard vessel since the Spanish-American War."

The short-short fight was almost a 1958 trademark. Pat McMurry of Tacoma kayoxed in Round 1 by Nino Valdez; Alex Miteff dived in ditto by Willy Besmanoff; Pete Rademacher whacked in the fourth by Zora Foley. And Grandpa Kid Matthews retired and re-retired within a week without throwing a punch.

Skipping quickly around the sports front, these are some of the notable incidents of the 12 gone months:

Klamath To Meet Challenge

The holiday season ended Friday afternoon for coach Dean White and his Klamath Union Pelican basketball team as they settled down in earnest to get themselves set for the 1959 Southern Oregon Conference cage wars which open on Pelican court next Friday night when the Grants Pass Cavemen arrive for their first visit to Klamath Falls.

Following the Friday night clash with the Cavemen, the Pels meet what the dope sheets term the big challenge to their supremacy, the Medford Black Tornado; the game to be played in Medford on Saturday night.

Throughout the coming season, all the SOC contestants play schedules matching two different teams a week.

The contest with the Cavemen finds the Pels meeting the only club to collect a victory over the 1958 KU State Championship squad. Last season the Cavemen caught the Pelicans napping and notched a 52-46 win in the second of their four game series.

In preseason games this year, the Pelicans (4-0) have shown admirable ability as "a come from behind" winner, having scored a pair over the Springfield Millers, 48-44 and 54-53, both games being decided in the last few seconds of play. Their next outing saw them overcome a 13-point deficit at the hands of the Marshfield Pirates and move to within four points with 31 seconds left. Some sharp ball hawking by guard Dave Delap gave the Pels a tie which dissolved in their favor, 74-72, in the second and "sudden death" overtime period.

On the same junket to Coos Bay the Pelicans were nearly caught by a fired-up North Bend Bulldog quintet before they finally eked out a narrow 48-47 victory, this one also in the closing seconds.

The Grants Pass five have collected four wins and two losses so far this year; their wins coming at the expense of Marshfield, North Bend, Weed and a split with Roseburg. The other loss was credited to the Yreka Miners in the season opener.

Medford, like KUHS, is undefeated this season. A 64-48 triumph over Marshfield was followed by a 56-44 win over North Bend. A pair of scheduled games with South Eugene was stopped at the halfway point by an OSAA ruling concerning the Axmen; Medford having already gained a 48-41 victory. Friday night the Tornado blew past the Corvallis Spartans, 58-43, with another test slated for Saturday night.

The practice schedule for the Pelicans puts them on the court each morning at 10 o'clock for the remainder of the week with the possible exception of New Year's Day when they will meet in the afternoon for a short shooting session.

Friday evening's session found the Pels doing without the services of Bob Peterson and Bob Drake, who were sidelined with minor ailments; Peterson with a bruised foot and Drake with an infected tooth. Returning to practice for the first time since the North Bend match when he was taken suddenly ill was Dean Dunson. Dunson had been suffering from a severe tooth infection. Probable starters for the Grants Pass match were unavailable at this time.

Just for the record: Rose Bowl—Louisiana State 22; Cotton Bowl—Texas Christian 20. Air Force 16; Orange Bowl—Oklahoma 30; Syracuse 14; Sugar Bowl—Louisiana State 22, Clemson 0.

Surprising thing about today's modern football players: They nearly all look forward to a year or two of professional football, no matter what type of a degree they get from college. Nick Pietrosante of Notre Dame would like a crack at the pro game; so would Bronk Nagurski, Jr., another Irish star. "I'd just like a year or so of it to see what it's like," says Bronko, son of the all-time former Minnesota great.

The annual Dolphin Dip, a regular New Year's Day feature, will go on as scheduled at Ocean Beach here next Thursday. "Men" from seven to 70 will dunk in the Pacific Ocean's cool and refreshing waters that day. Anticipated water temperature: About 40 degrees.

A four-man relay race around the icy waters of Lake Tahoe, site of the 1960 winter Olympic games, was supposed to be through heavy snows—not to date, no snow.

A survey taken by the Track and Field News gives Bobby Morrow, triple-Olympic medal winner at the 1956 games in Melbourne, the crown as the greatest sprinter of all time. Under a point system used on the survey, Morrow compiled 432 points against 280 for Ralph Metcalfe and 224 for Jesse Owens. Owens won four gold medals in the 1936 Olympics. Other leaders were: Charley Paddock, 199; Lloyd LaBeach of Panama, 108; Dave Sime, 133; Barney Ewell, 182; Mel Patton, 181; Harold Davis, 172, and Andy Stanfield, 171.

Random thought: One of the nicest guys we've ever met in the coaching profession is head coach Milt Bruhn of Wisconsin. He's here as assistant to head coach Duffy Daugherty of the East Shrine squad.

Bruhn, incidentally, has his own version of how to win football games. It was given to him by the late Bob Zuppke: "A punt and a pass and a prayer don't always win football games. The Lord is on the side of the team with the biggest tackles."

Canadian Ski Star Honored

TORONTO (AP) — Last February, 23-year-old Lucille Wheeler capped 13 years of rigorous training by winning two events in the World Alpine Skiing Championships at Bad Gastein, Austria. The performances stamped her as Canada's Outstanding Female Athlete of 1958.

The award was made official Saturday by the country's sports editors and broadcasters participating in the 24th annual Canadian Press year-end poll. The blue-eyed redhead, only Canadian to win a world title in skiing, took honors by a tremendous margin over 21 other nominated athletes.

Voters were asked by CP to name the best three Canadian female athletes, in order, and the now retired world champion from St. Jovite, Que. dominated the poll with 218 points.

Mrs. Marlene Stewart Streit of Toronto, one of Canada's all-time great female golfers and poll winner in 1957, was second with 127 points. Ernestine Russell, 18-year-old gymnast from Windsor, Ont., who won both the Canadian and American championships, was third with only 28 points.

Ex-Cal Coach Remains Serious

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Old-time University of California head football coach Stubby Allison was reported still in serious condition Saturday but slightly improved from a heart attack suffered Christmas night.

One of California's team physicians, Dr. James Harkness, remained behind to care for Allison when the Bears flew south for the Rose Bowl game against Iowa.

Olmedo, MacKay Draw Nod

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Capt. Perry Jones said Saturday night Barry MacKay and Alex Olmedo would play the opening singles against Australia in the Davis Cup challenge round Monday.

In a hurriedly called late evening news conference, he also announced Ham Richardson, the No. 1 U.S. player, and Olmedo would play the doubles.

Jones' announcement ended long speculation over the singles selections. He said he believes his U.S. lineup has the best chance to beat Australia next week.

Chief counsel Jack Kramer was on hand when the announcement was made. No players were present.

"My decision on this matter was dictated by the physical side of it," Jones said. "I felt that Richardson would be unable to play top-flight tennis in intense tropical heat for three days."

Richardson said he was deeply shocked by the announcement. He criticized Jones' method of making the selection.

"He did not have the courage to tell us," Richardson declared, adding that Jones did not show any conviction.

"As a result, our team has been in a state of strain not knowing who would play and unable to point to the Australians.

"This is my last Davis Cup campaign," Richardson added. "This is my last year of big-time tennis."

He repeated that it was incomprehensible to him that he should be left off the singles line-up, pointing out again his No. 1 ranking and his superior record.

"I am disgusted," he said.

Hawkeyes Work On Field Goal

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — Iowa, one of the nation's finest offensive teams, won't be caught napping if the Rose Bowl game with California comes down to the wire when a field goal would be decisive.

Coach Forest Evashevski had end Bob Prescott hard at work Friday kicking field goals from all distances. The reserve connected on several from the 35-yard range.

Meanwhile, Iowa was devoting considerable attention to passing, with quarterback Randy Duncan and Mitchell Ogletto tossing more than 40 between them. Duncan hit on 14 of 22 in the workout, some to end Curt Merz, who worked out despite a bad knee.

All four favorites won in day-night doubleheaders in the Holiday Festival at Madison Square Garden Friday. Dayton, showing the kind of class that could make it the favored team, bounced back from a nine-point halftime deficit to down Niagara 61-47 as Bobby Jones and Frank Case combined for 34 points in the second half.

St. John's whipped Holy Cross 77-55, husky Utah overpowered Cornell 80-61 and St. Joseph's, the pre-tourney choice, defeated Syracuse 72-63 in other Festival games.

Duquesne, winner of only two of six previous games, provided the upset of the four first round games in the All-College tourney, clubbing Tulsa 78-67. Bowling Green edged Wichita 85-81, favored Xavier of Ohio spurted at the end to defeat Oregon 68-57, and Oklahoma City bounced San Francisco 77-64.

Texas A&M's 66-58 victory over Texas Tech was the only surprise in the first round play in the Southwest tourney. Tech was a 12-point favorite. In other games, TCU beat Baylor 62-55, Rice whipped Texas 62-43 and SMU edged Arkansas 65-64.

Form also followed in the Big Eight's opening doubleheader as Kansas State, with Bob Boozer and Wally Franks combining for 43 points, beat Missouri 69-66 and Oklahoma stopped Iowa State, also by three points, 68-67.

Notre Dame and Purdue actually met for the "championship" of the Hoosier Classic in the doubleheader also involving Butler and Indiana at Indianapolis. The pairings for both days were set, however, and it doesn't rank as an official tournament.

Notre Dame rode Tom Hawkins' 31 points to a 73-67 victory over Indiana Friday night and Purdue, winning its sixth straight, dropped Butler 78-65.

Fralei's Facts, And Figures

By OSCAR FRALEI
NEW YORK (UPI) — Fearless Fralei's facts and figures:

It's okay to "join the Navy and see the world," but if you're a college athlete you sure can play basketball and see the United States.

As example, Seattle's cage squad traveled 12,882 miles last year to lead the nation's collegiate roundball wanderers. Utah was the second most-traveled squad with 17,260 miles.

After those two came Memphis State and Idaho State with 16,000 miles each; Brigham Young 14,763; Bradley 14,200 and Portland 14,000 miles... and only a bare handful of the nation's teams traveled less than 2,000 miles during the season.

Ed Furgol, the former U.S. Open champion, and slogger Gardner Dickinson both happily report that they are recovering from operations and are ready to take another good shot at the pro tour.

FURGOL BOUNCES BACK
Furgol first was so despondent after a bone chip operation on his good right arm that he said he was giving up tournament golf for good and would take a club job. Now he is optimistic again. Dickinson was out six months after undergoing surgery for a ruptured disc in his back.

Bob Turley of the New York Yankees and Archie Moore, off his bout with Yvon Durelle, appear to be the best bets to receive the $10,000 Hickok belt as the pro athlete of the year. The winner will be named in a poll of the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters but a private poll indicates that Turley, off his 20-game season and two World Series wins, is the probable winner. It's a case of a season's work outweighing the work of one night.

GOLFERS BIG SPENDERS
Don't ask me what this proves but the Clemson college football team, which plays L.S.U. in the Jan. 1 Sugar Bowl game, is shoulderguard deep in lassies. The five coaches have 14 children and 12 of them are girls. Of the 11 married players on the team, six have children—and only one is a boy... probably don't want 'em to follow in the old man's footsteps.

The Department of Commerce says that more money is spent on golf than on any other sport. Supporting this claim are figures from the National Golf Foundation showing a total investment in golf facilities of $1,325,000,000; an annual maintenance cost of $107,000,000; annual spending of $50,000,000 for new facilities; and the annual spending of $51,000,000 for equipment, accessories and supplies in pro shops alone.

College Cage Slate Jammed With Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
College football came up with its first big post-season bowl program Saturday, so college basketball answers with this salvo:

1. Six major holiday tournaments.

2. Such important doubleheaders as West Virginia vs. Northwestern and Seattle vs. Chicago Loyola at Chicago and Butler vs. Indiana and Notre Dame vs. Purdue at Indianapolis.

3. A bundle of major games, including matches for the team with the longest winning streak going, Auburn (against Florence of Alabama), unbeaten Bradley (against Gonzaga), and Georgia Tech-St. Louis, Virginia-Tennessee, Temple-Connecticut, Minnesota-Washington, Louisiana State-Florida State, Princeton-Ohio State, and Utah State-Idaho.

The tournament schedule, holding the key interest at the moment, reached the semifinals stage Saturday night in the ECAC's Holiday Festival at New York, the All-time College tourney at Oklahoma City and the Southwest Conference tourney at Houston.

Finals showed up Saturday night in the Evansville Invitational, with Tennessee Tech playing host to Evansville for the title. Tech nipped St. Mary's (Calif.) 69-63. Friday night and Evansville welcomed Washington of St. Louis, 84-53.

All four favorites won in day-night doubleheaders in the Holiday Festival at Madison Square Garden Friday. Xavier Whips Ducks In All-College Clash

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The University of Oregon, beaten 67-57 by Xavier in Friday's round of the All-College Basketball Tournament, met San Francisco in Saturday afternoon's consolation round.

Wichita played Tulsa in the other consolation game. The championship semifinal round pitted Oklahoma City University against Xavier and Bowling Green against Duquesne. The tournament final will be Monday night.

Oregon jumped to an early lead in its game, but was quickly smothered by Xavier, the nation's No. 10 team. Xavier led 32-28 at the half.

Oregon took the lead early in the second half, 37-32, on nine straight points. But the Ducks cooled off again and Xavier went on to win.

Hank Stein led the winners with 18 points. Chuck Hask was high for Oregon with 16.

OCU, which lost in last year's finals to San Francisco 60-45, came out from behind early in Friday night's first round game and then staved off a San Francisco rally to win 72-64.

The Chiefs, small but fast, will have a tough time trying to continue the shooting of Xavier's Stein and an aggressive attack that has made him a top-seeded Xavier the nation's No. 10 ranked team.

Both Oklahoma City and Xavier went into the tournament with 5-1 records. The only other team with a 5-1 record, Tulsa, was upset 78-67 by Duquesne, which had a 2-4 season mark before the tourney.

Tulsa played a listless game, and was completely out-manned on the boards. Roger Wendel saved Tulsa from a complete rout with 29 points, the most made by any player in the tourney's first round.

The meet's opening game proved to be the closest, when Bowling Green won in the last minute from Wichita, 85-81.

Oklahoma City University, the only team remaining in the championship round which has won the meet, took the trophy in 1949 and 1951. The Chiefs have been runners-up for the past three years.

San Francisco had won two all-college titles and Tulsa one.
