VFW Auxiliary Holiday Party

MERRILL — A Christmas gift exchange, buffet dinner and various games highlighted the evening of Wednesday, December 17, at the annual Christmas party of the Merrill VFW Auxiliary. Twenty three members attended the annual event.

Ida Mae Fleck won the cotton ball contest. Judges were Margie Hodges and Bertha McKeen. All the members became contestants in the hula hoop contest with judges Margaret Moore and Roma Walker awarding top prize to Millie Fotheringham.

A clever song written by Jean Rogers was sung by Jean Rogers and Vivian Miller accompanied by Margie Hodges. The gift exchange was conducted by "Santa Claus" Myrtle Rippey. The party chairman was Bertha McKeen.

A buffet dinner was served by Marge Waldrip, Margie Hodges, Jean Rogers, Vivian Miller, Velma O'Neil and Bertha McKeen.

HAZ-BINS

The Haz-bins Christmas party was held at the home of Mary Wells. After the dinner and gift exchange pinocle was in play with high score going to Maudie Larson, second to Louis Davis, and low to Mary Eck. The guest prize was given to Lola Truax. The January meeting will be held January 26 at the home of Lola Truax.

ONE-YEAR-OLD on November 1 was Vaughn Wilson Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Ramsey, 1001 Prescott Street. His brother, Virgill Street, is 2. Their grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Ramsey, Kenosha, Wis., and Mrs. Doris Pahl of this city.

Legion Post 164 Hosts Yule Party

TULELAKE—The annual Christmas party hosted by Tulelake Post No. 164, American Legion, for families of the members was held Tuesday, December 16, in the home economics building of the fairgrounds.

One of the largest gatherings in several months responded to the invitation to the potluck supper. Guests found a lighted Christmas tree and other holiday decorations in the hall with gifts under the tree. Some 100 bags of treats were filled by James DeShon, new post commander and his committee of 20 men.

Auxiliary members headed by Mrs. Della Frailey, president, assisted with the dinner and decorations. Committee members were Mrs. Jean Frey, Kathleen Todd, Phyllis Voss, Marguerite Dayton, Bessie Metz and Cleo St. Peter.

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES were given to Mrs. Mary Berglund on December 11, her 80th birthday, by friends calling at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Gray, 2307 Biehn Street.

Mrs. Berglund and her late husband came to Klamath Falls in 1930. For the past few years she has made her home with Mrs. Gray and in Portland with another daughter, Mabel Johnson. She has two sons, Harold Berglund of Portland, Frank Berglund of Tygh Valley, 10 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

SURPRISE PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Orton were given a surprise party following church the evening of December 14. Rev. and Mrs. Richard Stewart and the congregation of the Lorella Full Gospel Church arranged the party which was attended by 24 guests.

One corner of the party room held the silver tree which held silver dollars for the couple to buy themselves a gift for their home. Christmas greens and silver ornaments were used for decorations. A beautifully decorated cake in pink and silver was on the lace covered refreshment table. The cake was flanked by tall pink tapers. After the first piece of cake was cut by Mr. and Mrs. Orton it was served by Mrs. Kermit Keyser. Mrs. Stewart poured the coffee.

SOCIETY

AAUW Honors New Members

The annual AAUW Christmas party honoring new members was celebrated this year on Thursday, December 11. Chairman of the party was Mrs. E. J. Warrick. During the social hour which preceded the dinner, two of the past presidents, Mrs. William Wales Jr. and Mrs. Florence Pielke, served punch.

A candlelight dinner was served to old and new members in the Pelican Party Room. The clever decorations on the tables and about the room were inspired by the carol, "The Twelve Days of Christmas." Mrs. Robert Harvey was in charge of the meeting arrangements for the decorations committee, which included Mrs. Fred Ehlers, Mrs. Murdo Morrison, Mrs. Richard Newman, Mrs. E. E. Howard, Mrs. Fred Foulon, Mrs. Howard Hall and Mrs. Ralph Chamberlain.

Immediately following the dessert Mrs. Robert Craig presented a vocal ensemble of sixth and seventh grade girls from Conger School who sang "The Carol of the Sheep Bells," "Pat-a-pan," and "White Christmas."

Mrs. Philip Blohm, president, introduced the new members as each was given a holiday corsage. This year's newcomers and the varied schools from which each graduated are Mrs. James Boyle of SOC, Mrs. Ralph E. Chamberlain of Boston University, Mrs. E. L. Coyner of SOC, Mrs. Paul Cruikshank of Smith, Mrs. T. E. Deaton of Stanford, Mrs. George Elliott of Central Washington College of Education, Mrs. Harold Evenson of St. Gaf, Mrs. Oris Goakey of Washington State, Ruth Gustavson of University of Minnesota, Mabel Hanson of University of Oregon, Mrs. Frederick Hyde of Cornell, Mrs. R. Jelinek of SOC, Mrs. John Kelleher of Chico State, Mrs. Orton Mann of Iowa State, Mrs. George McCaa of Stanford, Mrs. William H. Moore of Oregon State, Mrs. Stanley Nettling of Maryhurst, Mrs. Lawrence Priest of SOC, Mrs. Richard L. Siegle of University of Illinois, Mrs. Stewart Snell of SOC, Mrs. Stafford Thomas of SOC, Mrs. James Young of SOC.

Mrs. Eugene Favell, accompanied by Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, sang the theme song, "The Twelve Days
