

THE 25TH ANNUAL stockholders' meeting of the Klamath Production Credit Association, to be held January 17 at the Klamath Auditorium, is expected to bring a larger membership than the 1958 meeting held last January 18. Above is the near-capacity crowd of over 400 present for the smorgasbord lunch and business meeting last year. Similar meetings have been held annually since the association was organized in 1934. Preparations are being made to serve more than 500 guests at this year's event.

Six Perish In NY Fire

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Six persons, including a family of four, died early today in a fire that swept a three-story building in the city's northside. Five others escaped.

The flames trapped two families of four in a third-floor apartment. Only a man and a small girl escaped.

A family of three in a second-floor apartment fled down a stairway. A grocery store was on the ground floor.

The dead were Mrs. Joyce McDonald, about 21, and her son, Steven, 5 months, occupants of the third-floor apartment; and their visitors, Ralph Benedict, about 25, of Rochester; his wife, Mary 21; and their two children, Rosemary, 2, and Annette, 5 months.

Mrs. McDonald's husband, James, 23, carried his daughter to safety. He was hospitalized for smoke inhalation. The girl was taken to her grandparents' home.

Fire Lt. Joseph Nalore said the fire was believed to have started on the third floor. The cause was not determined immediately.

Gen. Marshall Given Honor

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—They sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" Wednesday for this resort community's most famous citizen.

Gen. George C. Marshall, ill and abed, listened intently as a military band from nearby Ft. Bragg and relatives and friends played and sang the old ballad outside Marshall's window.

Marshall celebrated his 78th birthday. Several dropped by to visit, including his step-daughter and her husband, their three children, and other close friends.

The former Army chief of staff, secretary of state and secretary of defense, who has spent much of his time abed in recent months, was in good spirits.

Mrs. Marshall relayed the song request to the band. It is one of the general's favorites.
