

Family Gathers At Holiday Affair

A family get-together was held Christmas day at the Shasta View Grange Hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lundsten (Lillian Stiles) of Oxnard, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stiles (Karen Broilers) and daughters, Cathy and Kendra, of Manhattan Beach, all former residents of Klamath Falls. A traditional turkey and ham dinner was served after which games and dancing were enjoyed.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Alston and Ginger, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alston, Mrs. Willard Jessup and Jerry and Keith, Mrs. Bertha Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Redfield and Rhonda, Richard and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Don Redfield and Donna and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young and Gloria and Pamela, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Whitmore and Lorice and Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lundsten and Rita, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gordon and Lynn, Mike and Kelle, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clement.

Friends Asked To Open House

Pink carnations used with traditional holiday greens provided a most attractive setting for guests as they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cheyne and Mr. and Mrs. David Richardson at an open house December 27 at the Cheyne home, 3907 Alva Street.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Gwilliam of McCall, Idaho, of the engagement of their daughter, Esther, to Tom Murdock, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Murdock, 4079 Shasta Way.

The bride-elect is a senior at Willamette University where she is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Willamette University where he served as president of his fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Presently teaching at KUHS, he is a Postulant for Holy Orders from the Episcopal Diocese of Oregon and will enter seminary in the fall.

MRS. ADA SPARRETORN, a longtime Klamath County resident, was honored at a coffee hour in the Fireside Room of the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, December 21. Hostesses were Mrs. Minnie Grizzle, Mrs. John Simmons and Mrs. Arthur Sisson. More than 150 friends greeted the honor guest who will leave soon to make her home in the new Sunset Homes at Eugene, sponsored by the Lutheran Church.

In 1909 she and her late husband came to the Bonanza area where they operated general stores for many years. They donated land for a public park and Mrs. Sparretorn was instrumental in the organization and national affiliation of the Bonanza Library.

During her residence of nearly 20 years in Klamath Falls, Mrs. Sparretorn has made many friends through activities in her church, the Retired Teachers Club and the Library Club.

MR. AND MRS. VIRGIL R. WELLS were married recently at Raton, New Mexico. The bride, formerly Artie Naomi Micka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Micka of Merrill, wore a white wool jersey sheath dress and a corsage of roses for the wedding ceremony which was solemnized by the Rev. Carl Johnson, Baptist pastor.

The newlyweds are now at home at 412 West Eighth Street in Pueblo, Colorado.

The bride graduated from Malin High School where she was active in the Girls Athletic Association and drill team, and was a member of the Order of Rainbow Girls. She attended Colorado State University at Fort Collins, and is now a home economics major at Pueblo College where she is a member of Varsity Sioux.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Wells of Wray, graduated in 1956 from Canon City High School. Here he was active in ROTC and 4-H Club work. He also attended CSU and is now a student at Pueblo College. He is employed as male nurse at Colorado State Hospital and is a sergeant in the National Guard.

RAINBOW LODGE

MALIN—The regular December meeting of the Malin Rainbow Assembly was held in the Malin Masonic Hall with Worthy Adviser Nancy O'Riley presiding. Also in the east was Mrs. Frances Kalina, mother adviser.

Honored guests introduced were Judy Cunningham, grand service of the Grand Assembly of Oregon; Mrs. Connie Kruger, past mother adviser of the Malin Assembly; and Mrs. Madelyn Dupuy, worthy matron of Prosperity Chapter.

It was announced that election of officers will be held January 5 with installation of officers to be Sunday afternoon, January 11.

Following the business meeting a Christmas party was held with refreshments served by the Rainbow board members, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Victorin, Mrs. James Ottomian, Mrs. Connie Kruger, Charles Hale, Mrs. Don Unruh, and Mrs. Kalina. The tables were attractively decorated by Mrs. Cecil Jackson and Mrs. Halousek.

Kingsley Officers Hosts To Reserves

Officers of Kingsley Field served as hosts on December 13 when they held open house for reserve officers of all branches of the service residing in Klamath Falls.

The officers club was made festive for the occasion with decorations in the Christmas motif. Guests danced to hi-fi music during the evening.

Lee Girls Holiday Guests

Stephanie, Andrea and Penny Lee, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lee, former residents of Klamath Falls now living in Portland, were guests in the city over the holidays.

Penny visited Judy Cullimore before Christmas. Stephanie, guest of the Dr. Merrymans, and Andrea of the Rex Hiatts spent the week after Christmas in the city. A tea on Monday and a dancing party on Tuesday night were events at the Hiatt home. On Wednesday evening a group gathered at the Merrymans to celebrate the New Year.

All of the girls attended the installation of the officers of Job's Daughters Bethel No. 6 on Monday evening.

HOLIDAY PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hricizisce gave a dinner at their home in Langell Valley on Christmas Day. Cards and a social time were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hricizisce, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Spillane, Maurice Jr., John, Gene, Sheila and Patricia Spillane, and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hricizisce and Norman of Klamath Falls.

SIX YEARS AGO Michael House was born in Klamath Falls and lived in Langell Valley and Bly until his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave House, moved to Sacramento. He is the grandson of J. E. House of Langell Valley.

Landrys Leave For The South

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Landry left shortly before Christmas for a winter vacation in the south.

Making the trip in a brand new 26 foot trailer, their first stop was Berkeley where they spent Christmas with their daughter, Ruth Landry, who does social work in the Bay Area.

They are now seeking the sun near Brownsville, Texas, and weather permitting, they will spend three months along the Rio Grande.
