

$85,000 Accident Claim Lodged Against KF Man

A mother and her infant son have filed suit in circuit court against Norman C. Ogier seeking $85,000 damages from an automobile accident last January 20.

Suits brought by Mrs. Janace Hopkins and infant Richard Gordon Hopkins, age 7 months, allege injuries from an accident at Sixth and Lark streets when the Hopkins car collided with a pickup truck driven by Ogier.

Annual Rainfall Above Normal

FORT ROCK—The year 1958 at Fort Rock proved one of the best yet from the standpoint of moisture and good growing weather.

With the abundant rainfall went a good long frost-free growing season making possible the more tender garden items. Grain crops were above average.

Argentine Gals Breathe Easier

MENDOZA, Argentina (UPI)—Argentine womanhood breathed a sigh of relief today. The swift kick man is in jail.

The swift kick man was Humberto Victor Hidalgo, 34, who was identified at the police station by a dozen of the young ladies he had annoyed.

Hidalgo operated by dropping a coin on the sidewalk. If a young lady stopped to pick it up, the questionable Don Juan would dash out of his hiding place, administer a swift kick and flee on his bicycle.

Home Extension

FAIRHAVEN—Fairhaven Home Extension group held a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Richard Harris, when a turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served to members and three guests.

Guests were Miss Ruth Gustavson, home extension agent; Miss Lillian Hoffman, 4-H agent, and Mrs. Lane Smith of the Keno unit. Fruitcakes were donated for use of the Klamath Mission, and gifts were exchanged.

The January meeting will be held from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the Stewart Lenox Baptist Church January 9. Low calorie meals will be demonstrated by Mrs. W. Blakesley and Mrs. R. Hanna.

MEASLES KILL INFANTS
TEHRAN, Iran (UPI)—More than 2,000 infants have died from a measles epidemic sweeping the Bam and Narmashi areas near Kerman, in central Iran, the newspaper Keihan reported Sunday.

NEW BUSINESS
CHILOQUIN—Another new business in the area opened recently when Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hayes, Williamson River, opened a trailer park. The River View Trailer Homes is located on a bluff above the river close to the Williamson River Mission on the Lakeshore Highway. Hayes leveled a large tract of land, installed laundry and restroom facilities, and a road. He expects the park to be used especially during the summer months when fishing in the river and lake is good. Hayes, until this fall, had operated a mechanic service in a shop near the trailer park. He has sold this business to his son-in-law, Jess Pike, who moved from Woodland, California, with his wife, son and daughter.

PROPERTY SOLD
CHILOQUIN—Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Freid have sold their City Center Motel in Roseburg. They have spent most of the last month in Roseburg, redoing the units, relieving their managers, and making the transfer of property. The Freids live in Chiloquin where he is in business with his brother-in-law, Earl Hall, operating an oil company distributing center. Until recently Freid also ran a local service station.

Court Hears 'Bama Aides

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Alabama officials, who defied the U. S. Civil Rights Commission, today attempt to convince a federal judge they acted legally.

After the hearing in U. S. District Court, the judge will rule on the officials' contention they lawfully withheld from the federal agency evidence on Negro voting.

The ruling of U. S. Dist. Judge Frank Johnson Jr. can be appealed, however, and the clash of federal vs. state authority eventually may reach the Supreme Court.

Arguing immunity to civil rights investigators are Circuit Judge George Wallace of Clayton and five present or former voter registration officials.

Wallace refused to appear at the Civil Rights Commission hearing here Dec. 8-9. The registrars balked at testifying under oath about the Negro voting complaints. Designated judicial officials.

PROTEST RED TERRORISM
SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI)—The government of South Viet Nam said today it had protested to the International Truce Commission over alleged sabotage, terrorism and murders committed by Communist Viet Minh agents.

once again—at the risk of jail terms for contempt—to produce the requested evidence on Negro voting.

Failure to convince Judge Johnson they are immune from the commission's probe would put them under federal subpoenas.

Johnston already has ordered the rebellious officials to obey the commission subpoenas. He postponed execution of his command pending today's hearing.
