DAR Holds Regular Meet

Eulonia Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met January 5 at the Community Lounge for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, regent, presided.

Delegates and alternates were elected to the state conference which will be held at Gearhart March 5, 6 and 7.

A film showing the correct use of the flag was shown by Mrs. Phillip Brinker.

Mrs. L. H. Stone, local historian, gave an interesting discussion of the provisional government of Oregon which was in effect from 1843 to 1849. She stressed the effectiveness of this government in bringing about the following results: property was made secure; schools were established; contracts were enforced; debts could be collected; post offices and mail routes were established; roads were opened; toll gates were established; ferries were allowed; the Indians were effectively fought; and the majesty of the law was upheld.

It was announced that Sally Robinson, member of the local Children of the American Revolution chapter and president of the state society of CAR, will attend the National Congress to be held the week of April 19 in Washington, D.C.

The next meeting will be held February 2 at which time a film on construction at Big Bend will be shown by H. A. Hurlbut. Husbands will be welcome. The meeting place will be announced at a later date.

Hostesses were Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Phillip Brinker, Mrs. Alfred Cottingham, Mrs. R. K. Schouboe, Mrs. Louis R. Mann, and Mrs. Arch G. Proctor.

Weed BPW Club Christmas Party

WEED—A basket of gifts including food, toys and clothing was assembled by members of the Weed Business and Professional Women's Club at the December meeting held at the Y-Cafe recently, and the basket was designated for a selected family to receive for the Christmas holiday season.

Members attending the Yuletide dinner-party enjoyed an exchange of gifts that were placed beneath a gaily decorated Christmas tree. Mrs. Joyce Holmquist received the special award for the evening as winner of the personality contest enjoyed by the members for entertainment. Singing of selected Christmas carols added to the festivities.

Marshmallow snowmen placed on Christmas cards marked the members' places at the candle-light tables.

Mrs. Hazel Cates, president, presided at the meeting and thanked the members for their contributions to the BPW cheer basket.

Housewarming Party

MERRILL—Forty-five Merrill friends and neighbors surprised Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris with a housewarming party at their home on Saturday evening, December 27.

An autographed guest book containing the signatures of the guests was presented to the couple as a memento of the occasion.

Also presented as a gift was a ceramic vase filled with money to "buy something for the house." A buffet supper, arranged and served by the guests, was served during the evening's festivities.

THE CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT, particularly the science section, of the city library will receive added volumes, pictures and such from the proceeds of the annual benefit tea to be held January 24 by the Women's Library Club.

Oregon Centennial Theme Of Library Club Benefit Tea

Oregon's Centennial of statehood will be the theme for the 1959 annual benefit tea, sponsored by the Klamath Falls Women's Library Club, announced for Saturday, January 24, by Mrs. W. Don Miller, general chairman for the affair.

Mrs. Charles Larkin, project chairman for the club, which yearly undertakes a job which will benefit the community has announced that proceeds from this year's bridge party and tea will be used to purchase science books for the children's department of the city library at Fifth and Klamath.

Decor of this January event will be entirely in keeping with the 100th anniversary of Oregon's entry into the union, according to Mrs. W. C. DePew, president of the club, who will coordinate all decorations. Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, local authority on antiques, will lend her advice and some of her treasured collections for the party. Also lending rare mementoes of early days in Oregon, as well as assistance, will be Mrs. M. E. Cooper, Mrs. Henry Gerber, Mrs. C. F. O'Loughlin and Mrs. E. Jack Warrick.

This year's party will be held in the Women's Library club rooms at the city library, Fifth and Klamath. Bridge will be in play beginning at 1 p.m., and tea will be served beginning at 3:30. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Alan Baker, TU 2-3167, or Mrs. Loren Palmerton, TU 4-6824.

Mrs. Marshall Cornett will be in charge of the card tables, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Spence. Chairman for the tea tables will be Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson. Members of her committee are Mrs. H. O. Juckeland and Mrs. Robert Cuendet.

Mrs. A. H. Patterson Jr. and her committee will make tallies for the card playing. Mrs. Robert Johnson will play tunes popular in the early days of Oregon on her fiddle during the afternoon.
