OTI Women Host Party

OTI Faculty Wives and Women's Club entertained members of the club and faculty recently at its annual Christmas party.

The group gathered in the cafeteria on the campus at 6:30 p.m. for a social hour which was followed by dinner.

Entertainment for the evening was furnished by Mr. Walter Hoag, an instructor in the school of Allied Arts and Sciences. He showed pictures which he took when he and Mrs. Hoag visited the Brussels World's Fair. Christmas carols were sung by the group.

The party was chairmanned by Mrs. Frank Stanko. Her assistants were Mrs. Delbert Folk, Mrs. Alman Geiss, Mrs. George Marostica, Mrs. Russell Madsen, Mrs. Robert Baird, and Jean Underwood and Shirley Brusso.

CASHMERE DRESS

The cashmere sweater has stretched. It's turned into a full-length dress that's the height of luxury but not fabulously priced. Fully lined, of course.

Salem Family Greets New Baby

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter on January 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pickett of Salem. The baby, Pamela Jean, was the first New Year's baby to be born in Salem. She joins a 2-year-old brother, Tommy, and weighed 7 lbs., 5 ozs. at birth.

Bill Pickett was a 1952 graduate of KUHS and is also a graduate of Willamette University.

Grandparents are Mrs. A. F. Stainbrook of Klamath Falls and S. V. Pickett of this city and Mrs. Opal Nieswander of Salem.

Open House Marks 25 Years

MERRILL — An open house reception celebrating the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Stolt was held at their home from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, December 21. All of the reception arrangements were planned by the hostesses, Mrs. Jim Bradshaw, Mrs. Ivan Icenbice, Mrs. Henry Sherrill and Mrs. Charles Cunningham.

The couple exchanged wedding vows on Christmas Day, 1933, at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. A. Pindexter, Klamath Falls. A corsage of white carnations and a white carnation boutonniere were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Stolt on the gala occasion by their son, Richard. Mrs. Stolt was charmingly attired in a royal blue velvet two-piece suit.

The refreshment table, covered with a white linen hemstitched tablecloth, was centered by the cake, ornately decorated with silver bells, leaves and a large white heart. Tall, gleaming white tapers in double holders flanked the cake on either side.

The cake was served by Mrs. Wesley Haskins. The punch bowl and coffee service were attended by Mrs. Roy McNeill and Mrs. Virgil Rexford. Assisting the approxi-
