Bethel 6 Installation

Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters public installation of officers was held Saturday evening, December 27, in the Masonic Temple. The lodge room was attractively decorated in the Christmas theme with accents of blue and silver. "Queen Pat" was lettered across the window draperies in the east. Claudia Lane was in charge of the guest book and Dawn Hilton the programs.

Candles in the east and west were lighted by candlelighters, Barbara Evans and Cheryl Reinmiller, before the entrance of installing officers. Installing officer, Honored Queen Jancy Meador was assisted by the following past honored queens of Bethel No. 6, Sharon McConnell, guide, and Sandra Adams, marshal; Joan Marshall, honored queen-elect of Bethel No. 21, chaplain; Becky Mack, Bethel No. 6, musician; Gail Mollison, Bethel No. 6, recorder; Babs Moore, honored queen of Bethel No. 61, senior custodian, and Becky Short, honored queen-elect of Bethel No. 31, junior custodian.

New officers installed were Pat Crawley, honored queen; Ann Anderson, senior princess; Susan Moss, junior princess; Linda Heyden, guide; Joan Winzer, marshal; Norma Young, chaplain; Carol Brisson, senior custodian; Sharon McCormick, junior custodian; Amy Kerr, recorder; Jane Ann Craig, treasurer; Kathleen Ball, musician; Harmon Biehn, librarian; Lynette Lawrence, first messenger; Peg Seideman, second messenger; Terri Goeckner, third messenger; Stephanie Walker, fourth messenger; Margaret Gallagher, fifth messenger; Heather Hamaker, inner guard; Eleanor Bergman, outer guard; Roberta Renie, lady of the lights; Suzanne Feedback, historian; Diane Drew, soloist, and Tam Wagner, assistant recorder.

Assisting with the installation was the Klamath Falls Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Mrs. Margaret Sheridan sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Visiting dignitaries from the various Masonic bodies, Eastern Star, and Job's Daughters were introduced and given a welcome. Esorted and introduced in the East by Honored Queen Pat were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Crawley. Gifts were then presented to the present and retiring honored queens.

Mrs. Margaret Sheridan, accompanied by Becky Mack, entertained with a vocal solo, "Gesu Bambino."

After the ceremony there was dancing to the music of the Starlighter's Trio in the dining room downstairs. It was beautifully decorated in dark and light blue streamers of crepe paper, silver tinsel and blue Christmas balls, centered with an abstract tree trimmed in angel hair and blue balls. Punch and cake were served at artistically arranged serving and individual tables.

ALTURAS FAMILY REUNION

ALTURAS — A family reunion was held at the home of Judge A. K. Wylie recently and was the first gathering of the clan at the family home in Alturas in 29 years, according to the host, Judge Wylie. He was assisted in entertaining by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wylie, who share his home. Diane Wylie, daughter of Fred Wylie, came from San Francisco for the occasion; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fitzgerald and son, Charles, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Ginzler, of Millbrae, California, were also guests at the affair; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lujan and sons, Larry and Eric, of San Bruno, California, made the gathering complete.
