Reds Bemoan Circus Fate

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Culture, the Soviet Union's leading cultural newspaper, spoke out sorrowfully recently against the "decline" of the circus in the Western nations.

"The circus in the West," it wrote, "is changing from a genuinely popular, democratic art into a spectacle geared to a narrow circle of snobs. . . .

"Cruel competition, characteristic for bourgeois society, is appearing even among circus entrepreneurs (who) are filling their programs with café singers and dancers who have little in common with a genuine circus act."

Soviet Culture, charging that the Western circus has fallen into the hands of "traders in art," said the situation was about equally unhappy in the United States, France and other European countries.

SAY CHEESE

SOUTHBORO, Mass. (UPI)—Arthur J. St. Maurice's hobby is photographing insects. He uses $5,000 worth of photographic equipment, and has obtained some of his most unusual "shots" after getting his subjects "drunk" on chloroform.
