

GASOLINE ALLEY

Bill Perry

He's watching TV. Maybe we'd better not bother him, Chipper.

Heck! Let's have a little fun!

Golly, Pop, that's a pretty old western you're looking at!

It is? I haven't seen it before.

I didn't know they ever showed old ones at this time of year.

Oh, heck, we saw that one last summer.

You see, the hired man finds out about the uranium mine, and he's making love to the boss's daughter. Hey, cut that out!

Pop's getting old! You can't kid him any more.

Instead of seeing the joke, he gets mad!

Doggone it! Why doesn't someone answer that doorbell?

I can't stay but a minute, Mr. Wallet, but you tell Mrs. Wallet about this article...etc...

I'll tell her, Mrs. Windy!

She was only going to stay a minute, but—!!

That's right! The kids saw that play. They'll tell me how it came out!

What do you mean, you don't know the ending?

We were just kidding you, Pop. Can't you take a joke?

LITTLE BROTHER HUGO

by Bill Perry

FRECKLES and his FRIENDS

by MERRILL BLOSSER

DAISY INVITED US TO A PARTY!

WHERE ARE ALL THE KIDS, MR. SWEMP?

I PUT THE "CATS" OUT, SO I COULD HEAR TV! THEY MENTIONED RESUMING HOSTILITIES AT VALERIE'S HOUSE!

MAN! VAL'S PLACE IS REALLY JUMPIN'!

BUT LISTEN TO THAT MUSIC... MUST BE A CRAZY NEW TREND!

PARDON US, FOLKS! WE THOUGHT...

IT'S OKAY, KIDS! C'MON IN AND JOIN THE FUN!

HEY, THIS JAZZ ISN'T SO SQUARE, AFTER ALL!

OH, YOU KIDDOS!

WHEW! ONLY ELEVEN O'CLOCK, BUT I'VE HAD IT!

SO HAVE THE OTHERS! PARTY'S BREAKING UP!

WONDER WHERE OUR GANG EVER WENT...

HI, CATS!

WE'VE BEEN WAITING IN THE BIJOU TILL WE COULD MOVE IN AND TAKE OVER!

OH, NO!

LET'S 23-SKIDOO!

SWING AN' SLIDE SHIFT-- HERE WE COME!

ROCHE