DUNSMUIR—About $250 still remains to be raised to finance Dunsmuir's foreign exchange student, according to the local American Field Service committee.

The committee headed by Reg Thom and aided by Armand Brunel, finance chairman, reports $427 toward the $600 goal has been donated or pledged by service clubs, organizations and individuals.

Letters have been sent to all of the communities' clubs and among those contributing so far are Dunsmuir High School PTA, Epps Post and Epps Auxiliary Unit, American Legion, the Business and Professional Women's Club, the Dunsmuir Women's Club, the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Rotary Club.

A heel barrel mounted with a giant thermometer indicating progress of the campaign is displayed in downtown Dunsmuir when the weather permits for individual contributions.

This is the second year Dunsmuir is hosting a foreign student under the American Field Service program. Last summer Susan Thom of Dunsmuir went to Germany under the exchange policies and the Dunsmuir Women's Club has already donated $200 toward the expenses of another local student who will be chosen for the AFS 1959 summer exchange.

Gasoline Firm Named In Suit

DORRIS — Fenton and Gladys Mahrt, Dorris, have filed an $80,250 damage suit against the Union Oil Company and James Dyeche, to whom their truck stop and service station was subleased.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahrt charged in a complaint filed by Mark Brawman, Yreka attorney, that their service station and truck stop cafe located on Highway 97, one half mile south of Dorris, was destroyed "due to the negligence" of the defendants. The suit also named Milton Crutchfield and J. L. Walker, employees of Dyeche who was station manager.

The Mahrts placed an estimated value of $25,000 on their property. An added charge of "willful destruction" of the building was made against the defendants and punitive damages were asked.

The building has since been rebuilt and is now in operation as a cafe and service station.

Psychology Professor Says Clothes Make Man, Woman

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Have you ever wondered what would happen if some cosmic calamity suddenly rendered every person in the world stark naked?

You probably haven't, but Dr. Arthur M. Vener of Michigan State University has.

And—as you may have guessed—one of his specialties is psychology.

Dr. Vener is an assistant professor of social science at MSU. He recently completed research on the psychological and sociological aspects of clothing.

He reveals that universal nudity would be quite baffling.

If you walked into a store, you couldn't tell the salespersons from the customers. The floorwalker wouldn't be any help. He wouldn't even have a buttonhole, much less a carnation.

How would you find a policeman unless you saw one directing traffic?

And, if you entered a restaurant, how would you identify the waitresses?

Dr. Vener holds there's something to the old adage clothes make the man. He says we all look at clothes to help determine the job, social status and traits of a stranger.

Here are some other bare facts Dr. Vener uncovered in his clothing research:

1. Persons who have "come up in the world" are more aware of clothes than those who have been in the same economic and social group all their lives.
2. Some of these individuals are so discerning they can almost always tell the occupation and social status of a stranger by the way he is dressed.
3. But, a person's clothes consciousness is not passed on to his children.
4. In fact, father has little influence on the dress habits of his teen-age children. Mother carries some weight, but the teen-agers also rely on others in their age bracket.
5. Girls have more clothes awareness than boys, especially those who care more about the opinion of others.
6. On the other hand, girls who are more socially confident usually have less clothing awareness than other girls.

Oldest Early-Day Teacher Still Works Math Problems

Mrs. Katie Whiteline, who lives with a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Waggoner, 1246 Laurel Street, is the oldest of the early day teachers still living in Klamath County. She came in 1891 to teach a one room school and all grades at Bonanza.

Her birthday on January 8 was her 91st and just to "keep my mind from getting rusty," she works algebra problems. Mrs. Whiteline's brown eyes sparkle and there are dark streaks in her white hair, worn in a bun.

She was born January 8, 1868, in Ontario, Canada, where she taught school, she also taught in Vermont, then came to Oregon to continue her work in the school-room. She taught at Hildebrand, at Bonanza, in the old Central School and elsewhere in the county for many years. Her brother, James G. White was superintendent of Klamath County schools. The family built a home of native rock on Riverside which still stands. Mrs. Whiteline is the mother of three sons and a daughter. Among the pupils whom she taught, still living in Klamath County, are Mrs. Henry Grimes, Mrs. George Grizzle and Mrs. Edna Carnahan who have kept in touch with Mrs. Whiteline. They made a trip to her home on her birthday anniversary to present her with a gift.

MOTHER LIKE DAUGHTER

CHICAGO (UPI) — Mrs. Earl Reid, 33, gave birth to her seventh child, a boy, Sunday just 62 hours after her 16-year-old daughter, Mrs. Raymond G. Brier, presented her with her first grandchild, also a boy.
