KRAFT'S Miniature Marshmallows, which took the country by storm, have a companion package now of regular size marshmallows. The little ones come in a 10 1/2 ounce package, the large ones in a 10 ounce package.

Marshmallows
Kraft's Miniature Marshmallows sold out in Klamath Falls during the promotion with Kellogg's Rice Krispies and a lot of people learned how easy it is to make Christmas treats combining the two products. Kraft's acknowledged best seller now has a companion—let Puffed Marshmallows.

The first wonderful thing you will notice about the new Kraft Marshmallows is that they are "skinless." They are soft inside and out and there is no hard outer crust. Just try them and see how quickly they melt on top of a cup of hot chocolate.

Here are some of the recipes Kraft's suggests:

STRAWBERRY MARLOW
1 12-ounce package frozen strawberries
24 Kraft Marshmallows

1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
Defrost the strawberries and drain well. Place juice and the marshmallows in the top of a double boiler. Heat until the marshmallows are melted. Chill. Add the strawberries and lemon rind. Fold in the whipped cream. Pour into refrigerator freezing tray and freeze until firm.

GOLDEN TOPPERS
6 canned peach halves
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
1 1/2 cup orange juice
6 Kraft Marshmallows

Place the peach halves in a lightly greased baking dish. Sprinkle with coconut. Combine the sugar and orange juice and pour over the peaches. Place a marshmallow in the center of each. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 15 minutes.

HOW COMFORTABLE this exciting tweed fabric is with Elizabeth Arden Hand and Body Lotion to soothe the skin. Fashion's new textured wools and other fabrics can be worn with ease when the skin is silky smooth.

Elizabeth Arden Winter Desserts
Fluffy mohair coats, rough grained tweed suits, and bulky country sweaters are among the most exciting fashions. Although interesting texture has always been smart, this year it virtually spells fashion.

As soft and flattering as these fabrics look when being worn, too often they feel anything but comfortable. To wear or not to wear becomes the problem. Some women actually forgo the good looks and warm comfort of these alluring wools because of irritation to the skin.

What a shame to miss the smartest look of an entire season! Especially when the blame is misplaced. For the fabrics are not at fault, the trouble is with your own skin. A dry chapped skin is overly sensitive, has a roughened surface which catches the fabric, making you hopelessly uncomfortable.

What to do? Elizabeth Arden has a soft soothing answer. Her rich Hand and Body Lotion makes the sacrifice of fashionable fabrics totally unnecessary. This fragrant lotion is easily absorbed by thirsty skin. Its emollient formula contains an exclusive ingredient that makes it smooth your skin instantaneously. Use it just before you dress, covering the entire body. Its silken slip cover of protection will last all day long, keep you comfortable while a wonderful wash keeps you lovely warm.

Right now when you need it most, Miss Arden is making Hand and Body Lotion available at a special price. It is packaged in a lightweight plastic bottle with flip top dispenser; is delicately scented with either Blue Grass or Geranium.

BATHE IN FLOWERS. Pour a capful of new perfumed foam bath directly under the faucet; then turn on hot water. Bubbles will rise and soon the air will be filled with the bouquet of Quélques Fleurs by Houbigant. And when you slip under the bubbles, your troubles will seem to float away.

Scented Bubbles
The busier you are, the more important it is for you to take time out for relaxation. The easiest, quickest way to relieve that tired feeling is to take a leisurely bath. And, even if you wish there were 48 hours in a day, you will be tempted to linger in the tub if you use a new perfumed foam bath by Houbigant. This new preparation imparts a wealth of fragrance for enjoyment and a million bubbles for a psychological lift. It can be had in either Quélques Fleurs, the loveliest flower arrangement in fragrance or Chantilly, the lace-inspired scent.

For best results, pour a heaping capful of the tiny granules directly under the faucet, turn on hot water full force — the more force the more foam. The scented bubbles will rise and the fragrance will permeate the bathroom and adjoining rooms. As you slip under the soft blanket, you will feel tight nerves unwinding, tired muscles relaxing. And, later, when you bathe in the scented suds, you will find that your face looks smoother, more serene, relaxed.

SPRING OMELET
Beat two eggs with a fork or whisk, add salt, pepper and 3 tablespoons of milk or cream. Fry omelet over low heat. Turn, then spread over half of the omelet 1/2 cup of cream-style cottage cheese. Fold omelet and serve. For texture and taste contrast, add chopped celery, ripe olives and chopped onion or green pepper to the cottage cheese before spreading on the omelet.

PEACHES MARCO POLO
Preheat your oven to 400 degrees. Arrange drained, canned cling peach halves in baking dish, cut side up. Mix 1/4 cup honey, 1/2 cup chopped raisins, 2 teaspoons finely chopped candied ginger and 2 tablespoons wine vinegar together and fill cavities of the peaches. Bake for 20 minutes. Serve warm, spooning syrup over them. Garnish with vanilla ice cream if desired.

BILL GORSCH, who with his wife, Jane, operated Quartz Mountain Inn, a favorite stop between Klamath Falls and Lakeview, now has this territory for "Spackle." As shown here, the pressurized can contains instant fire air for automobile, motorcycle or trailer. It also serves as an instant fire extinguisher. Just remove cap from Spackle can, turn nozzle toward base of fire. Directions also state that Spackle applied to the fuel pump and fuel line of an automobile will release vapor lock. For protection to the skin, always wear gloves when using Spackle.

Sack Dress Now Passe

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor NEW YORK (AP)—There's no here to stay.

Today's champions of the female form divine include designers Jo Copeland, Oleg Cassini and Ben Zuckerman. The only holdout of the season to date is Larry Aldrich, who has been beating the drums for the "relaxed" silhouette for night on to live years and still shows it, modified but recognizable.

Jo Copeland, the all-American designer who claims she never has taken a single cue from Paris, shows a feminine, flattering and strictly elegant group of daytime and evening fashions, the latter planned definitely for moonlight, roses and romance. Most dramatic of her evening gowns is a full-length sheath of white chiffon with jeweled midriff and floating panels, elegant as all get-out.

In a less formal mood is a short dress of black silk faille with a ruffled white eyelet-embroidered petticoat, which is supposed to show.

Cassini goes happily back to his roots, sleeping as low as the law allows, insisting that "the boom is here to stay."

"Women's dresses are supposed to appeal to men," Cassini says. "Now men look at fashion in a basically simple way. It's the shape that interests me."

Ben Zuckerman shows a well-bred, discreet and wearable group of superbly tailored suits and coats, the suits all with short jackets and slim skirts. Notable in the collection is a group of simple and sophisticated black silk cocktail dresses with cover-up jackets, to convert them to 24-hour duty.

BLACK BEAN SOUP
Serve piping hot black bean soup by pouring it over a lemon slice in the bottom of the soup dish. Garnish the top with sieved hard cooked egg yolk.
