Pictures Taken At Party Lead To Husband's Arrest

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Color photographs taken at a sorority party shortly before the mutilation slaying of a young mother have resulted in a warrant charging her husband with murder.

Police said Thursday night the photographs showed Mrs. Ruth Ann Montague, 32, was wearing gold-colored, dome-shaped earrings later found in the possession of her student laboratory technician husband. The earrings were not on her body when it was found Jan. 8, the day after the party. Mrs. Montague had been strangled, sexually molested, and her mutilated body abandoned in a car in front of the home where Phi Mu Sorority held its party on the night of Jan. 7. Chief of detectives James Chapman said the earrings, encased in a form of plastic wood, were found in Charles E. Montague's coat pocket Tuesday night. Montague, 34, the father of two children and a former mental patient still under treatment for alcoholism, was remanded Thursday to Malcolm Bliss Hospital here.
