New Year's Eve Ceremony Unites Toby Kay Fox And David Deller

The Methodist Church of Ashland was transformed into a setting of winter splendor with arrangements of snowy evergreens, silvered holly and pine cones for the New Year's Eve wedding of Toby Kay Fox and David Wendell Deller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deller of Klamath Falls. The chancel of the church was lighted by tall white tapers and the pews were marked on the aisle by clusters of glittering pine needles and leaves.

The Rev. Hershel Hall read the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the presence of 200 guests. The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Thelma Fox of Hollywood, California, and the late William Emerson Fox, was given in marriage by the Rev. Lawrence May speaking for her mother. Her gown of white net over satin was fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves. The flaring skirt was made with panels of clipped rose pattern Chantilly lace. A full-length crown of seed pearls held a fingertip veil of illusion net and she carried a white orchid with bouvardia shower on a white lace-covered Bible.

Mrs. Richard Long of Ashland was matron of honor. Lois May Ashland, and the bride's cousin, Mrs. William Sim of Albany were bridesmaids. They wore pink chiffon frocks with trapeze backs and velvet and pearl trim. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations encircled by frosted fir and Oregon grape.

Leading the bridal procession to the altar were the flower girl, Kathy Hopkins of San Francisco, and the ring bearer, Robin Newport of Tangent, cousins of the bride. Kathy wore a pink chiffon floor length dress and carried a basket of pink rose petals. Ballerina length gowns of pink were also worn by the candlelighters, Sally Schurman of Portland and Christina Leach of Ashland.

M. E. Deller of Portland served as best man for his brother. Ushers were George Brandt and James Southwell, both of Klamath Falls.

Wedding music was played by for the ceremony by the church organist, Mrs. Frank Davis. Mrs. William Allen sang "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" and Robert Schomp of Orange, California, cousin of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer," both accompanied by Mrs. Davis.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fox wore a pink lace knit two-piece suit with matching sequin hat. Mrs. Deller chose a side-draped brocade satin dress of shell pink and small hat of a matching shade.

The newlyweds received their guests in the Fireside Room of the church where a pink and white color scheme was used in room and table decorations. Frosted evergreens and a striking all-white arrangement on the mantel added to the festive atmosphere.

A handmade cloth, gift of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. James Fox of Tangent, covered the bride's table which was centered by the three-tiered cake, topped by pink satin heart and wedding

MYRNA KAY HEATON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Heaton, 4619 Boardman Avenue, is the bride-elect of Donald Finney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Finney, 700 Upham Street. The engagement news was revealed January 6 to Myrna's Gamma Phi Beta sorority sisters at the chapter house on the Oregon State College campus where she is a junior majoring in secretarial science. Both she and her fiancé graduated from KUHS. He also is a student at OSC, a sophomore in business administration, and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. No date has been set for the wedding. — Photo by Ferebee

SHARON RUCKMAN'S engagement to David Molatore was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ruckman of Fort Peck, Montana. The bride-elect graduated from Glasgow High School in Glasgow, Montana, and is presently a student nurse at St. Patrick's Hospital in Missoula, Montana. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Molatore of this city. He is a member of the Oregon Society of X-Ray Technicians and Phi Sigma Chi fraternity. He is interning at St. Patrick's Hospital and will return to OTI in March. He will receive his degree in X-ray technology in June. A late spring wedding is planned by the couple. — Photo by Haugen Studio, Missoula

EARLY AMERICAN FURNISHINGS provide an appropriate setting for these library club members who modeled dresses of yesteryear, some of which will be worn at the annual benefit tea January 24. Mrs. E. Jack Warrick seated, at left, and Mrs. H. O. Juckland wear dresses which belonged to Mrs. Ida Campbell Gerber, member of a pioneer Langell Valley family. Mrs. Juck-

land is seated, at right, in a chair once belonging to the late Charles Wood Eberlein. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. A. H. Patterson Jr., Mrs. Robert Guendet and Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson in gowns from the collection of Mrs. Bert Thomas. The spinning wheel and banquet lamp are prized possessions of Mrs. M. E. Cooper in whose home this picture was taken. — Photo by Kettler

RECENT GUESTS at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gilfillan, 1919 Melrose Street, were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Torgerson and their children, Jim and Madi, pictured above. Mrs. Torgerson will be remembered as the former

Suzanne Gilfillan. They also visited Kenneth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Torgerson, before returning to their home in Portland where he is associated with Proctor and Gamble Company. — Photo by Ellis
