

A FAREWELL LUNCHEON came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Vance Eager when 21 friends met in the Winema Hotel on December 29 to honor Mrs. Vance who, with her husband, left that day for Oregon City where they have purchased a mercantile store. Guests were seated at tables made attractive with arrangements of fall colored chrysanthemums and greens. Shown are those who made the party plans. From the left, Mrs. Harry Glisen, Mrs. David Richardson, Mrs. Eager, Mrs. Frank Rickey and Mrs. Bill Cunningham. —Photo by Kettler

MR. AND MRS. DAVID FRANCIS BOYD
— Photo by Guderian Studio

Ruth Alice George Is Bride Of David Boyd

The altar of Mt. Laki Community Church was banked with large arrangements of white carnations and evergreen boughs on January 2 when Ruth Alice George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren W. George became the bride of David Francis Boyd at two o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Andrew A. Jarvis performed the ceremony before 40 relatives and friends of the couple. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Boyd of Toledo, Oregon.

Larry Hilyard, nephew of the bride, lighted the candles and Robert George, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Marilyn Mack played the wedding music as the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a two piece suit of aqua blue wool and a small white satin hat trimmed with a rhinestone studded veil. She carried pink roses tied with pink ribbon streamers on a white Bible, a gift from her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Matthews.

Mrs. George, mother of the bride, was dressed in a blue and green print silk afternoon dress with matching jacket to which was planned a corsage of white rosebuds. She wore a blue hat.

Mrs. Boyd chose a light blue wool knit suit with black hat and a corsage of white rosebuds.

The home of the bride's parents was the setting for the reception which followed the wedding. A three tiered cake made and decorated with pink roses by Mrs. Garrett Hilyard, sister of the bride, was served by Mrs. Lou Wells, aunt of the bride, Mary Jo Hendrickson and Judy Ackeret, friends of the couple. Mrs. Garrett Hilyard served punch and Mrs. Jim Creswell, sister of the bride, presided at the coffee service.

The new Mrs. Boyd graduated from Henley High School in 1953 and is a senior at Oregon State College. Her husband, a 1950 graduate of Sweet Home High School, served with the Army for two years and graduated in December from OSC. He will be employed as a production technologist.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Francis Boyd, Toledo; Mary Jo Hendrickson of Merrill; Judy Ackeret, Lebanon; Dean Wells Burley, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. James Tegner and Susan, Mrs. Agnes Beardsley all of Ashland.

Merrill Club Names Officers

MERRILL—New officers for 1959 were installed in an informal ceremony during a regular meeting of the Merrill Library Club held Thursday afternoon, January 8, at the Merrill Recreation Hall.

Heading the organization as president is Mrs. Warren Walker. Her assisting officers are Mrs. Bill Poe, vice president; Mrs. Jim Walker, secretary; and Mrs. Grace Walker, treasurer.

The president appointed the following committees to serve this year: Vivian Trotman, hostess; Velma O'Neil assisted by Dorothy Baxter, decorations; Katie Merri-lee assisted by Esther Johnson and Mary Sharp, program; Roma Walker and Mildred Poe, calling.

In addition to having the regular June luncheon, the club also approved having luncheons in the spring and the fall of the year. A Valentine's Day luncheon will be held February 5 with the arrangements handled by Vivian Trotman, Velma O'Neil and Katie Merri-lee.

Bea Mattson, Merrill librarian, thanked the club for flowers sent to her during a recent illness.

RAINBOW INSTALLATION

DUNSMUIR—Jo Anne Kelby will take office as worthy adviser of Dunsmuir chapter, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at an installation slated for 8 p.m. January 21, at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple. Others elected at a special election meeting on Saturday, January 10, were Rayola Hanlen, past worthy adviser; Margie Green, worthy associate adviser; Margie Grenvick, charity; Donna Parsons, hope; Linda Lockart, faith; Carol Wagner, recorder; and Judy Crowe, treasurer.

HONORARY MEMBER

Sharon Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kirkpatrick, 2177 Patterson Street, was one of 18 new members recently initiated into Alpha Phi Chapter of Phi Sigma, national biology honorary, at the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Washington.

Yreka Baptist Church Setting For Wedding

YREKA—Arrangements of white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in candelabra provided the setting for the recent marriage of Patricia Clyburn of Ash Creek to Bernard Aseltine of Yreka. The Rev. L. Ray Sanford officiated at the double ring wedding service in the First Baptist Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clyburn of Ash Creek, was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown was of white nylon with pink trim. The full skirt was ballerina-length, with a fitted sleeveless bodice, featuring a sweetheart neckline. A matching bandeau was worn in her hair, and her bridal bouquet was fashioned of white carnations, tied with white satin ribbon streamers.

Margaret Head, the bride's sole attendant, chose a ballerina-length blue nylon, similarly fashioned to that of the bride's gown, featuring the full skirt and sleeveless bodice. She wore a white feather half-hat, and a corsage of pink carnations.

Best man duties were performed by Dan Clyburn of Hawkinsville, a brother of the bride, while guests were seated by two other brothers, Paul and Dave Clyburn, both of Ash Creek.

Solo selections sung by Mrs. John Gibbons were "Because" and "Oh, Promise Me," with Mrs. James Steinhaus as accompanist at the piano.

Approximately 50 guests registered in the guest book, which was in charge of Mrs. Robert Head.

Mrs. Clyburn, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a silk print afternoon frock, with matching accessories, and a corsage of carnations. Mrs. Vada Powers, the bridegroom's mother, was unable to attend her son's wedding.

Fort Jones Couple Weds

FORT JONES — The Sacred Heart Church was the setting for one of the most beautiful weddings of the season on December 27 when Linda Veale became the bride of Robert Gilmore in an afternoon ceremony with the Rev. Francis A. Sullivan officiating.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and red carnations and lighted Christmas trees. Holly tied with white satin bows marked the pews.

The bride was lovely in a waltz length white lace gown and a shoulder length veil held by a pearl tiara. She carried a white Prayer book with stephanotis on white streamers of ribbon.

Mrs. Ray Baker Jr. and Nadine Hovenden, the bride's attendants, wore dresses of holly red satin with matching headbands, and carried white carnation muffs.

Alvin McBroom was best man and ushers were William Stacher and Robert Towne of Etna. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Frank Branson at the organ.

The bride's mother, Mrs. C. J. Veale, wore a white knit suit with blue accessories and an orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Craig Wild, mother of the bridegroom, chose a green wool suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds greeted one hundred guests at Cadola's where punch and wedding cake were served in the dining room decorated with white chrysanthemums and red carnations.

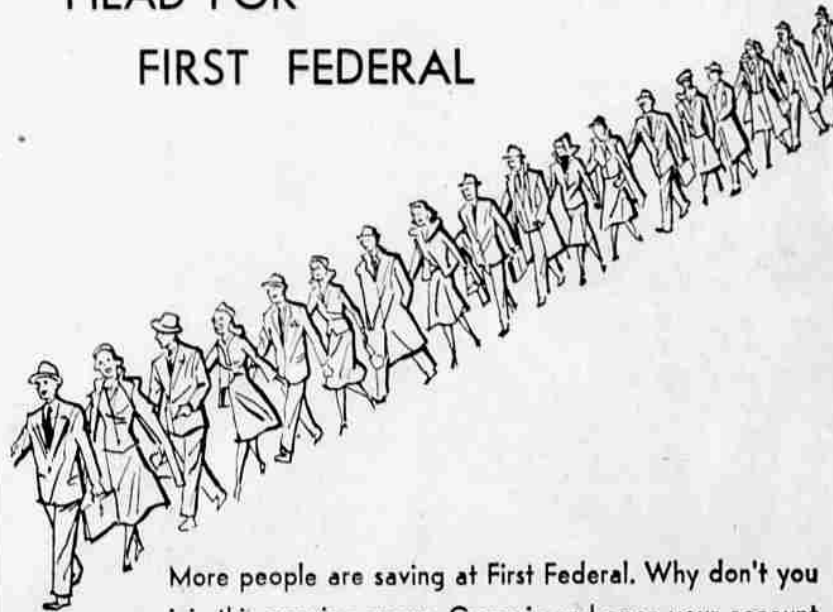

The new Mrs. Gilmore is a recent graduate of Fort Jones High School and student at Chico State College. Her husband is a graduate of Etna High School and is currently employed by Erling Hjertager in Etna where the newlyweds are at home following a brief honeymoon in Southern California.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Coates of San

FIRST CHILD

Virginia Dare, first child of English parentage to be born in the New World, was born in Sir Walter Raleigh's "Lost Colony" of 1587, which was on Roanoke Island, N.C.

HEAD FOR FIRST FEDERAL

More people are saving at First Federal. Why don't you join this growing group. Come in and open your account soon.

Current Dividends 3 1/2% Per Annum

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS —LOAN ASSOCIATION

540 MAIN STREET
Member Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation

GLENHAVEN SUITS YOU

...to perfection
in smooth
rayon flannel
only $25.00

Slim and graceful, the lines of Glenhaven's softly tailored suit with dem-belt low on the waist. In refreshing spring colors.

Stoner Electronics

4842 So. Sixth St.

Will Be

CLOSED

January 19th Through 26th

For Vacation

NOW!
your child can play the Hammond Organ
SPINET MODEL
and reach all pedals with ...
HI-PEDAL

Now Hi-Pedal makes it possible for your child to reach all the foot pedals (including the Expression Pedal) and play the organ completely with a feeling of pride and accomplishment.

Only 39.95

see HI-PEDAL demonstrated in our studios.

HI-PEDAL is a wonderful new convenience for your Hammond Organ which attaches to your own organ in less than one minute, bringing the foot pedals with easy reach of any child. It is completely adjustable! As your child's legs grow longer, HI-Pedal can be adjusted to the correct position for comfort and effective playing.

LOUIS R. MANN
PIANO COMPANY

120 North 7th

Phone 4-7182