Girl's Group To Fete Dads

Camp Fire Girls in six school areas will entertain their fathers at three dad-daughter dinners this week. The annual potluck dinners are festive affairs planned and served by the girls and their leaders to honor and say "thank you" to dads. Girls from all divisions of the Camp Fire Girls program participate, from Blue Bird girls, age 7 through Horizon, age 18.

Two of the dinners will be held Monday and Tuesday evenings at the new KUHHS cafeteria. The one on Monday for girls and their dads from Roosevelt, Conger and Pelicans schools is chairmanned by Mrs. Joe Hicks, who says that they are expecting over 200 to attend.

The Tuesday evening dinner is planned for girls and dads from Fairview and Sacred Heart schools with Mrs. Gordon Veitch serving as chairman. Gilchrist, Crescent and Chemult area Camp Fire Girls have scheduled their dinner for Saturday evening, January 24, in the Gilchrist School cafeteria and Mrs. Tom Colister is chairman.

Camp Fire Girls locally and nationally are busily working on their new national conservation project "The Cares-Do You?" A tree census taken by girls in Klamath County is now being completed and the census reports will soon be presented to an adult advisory committee which will suggest species of trees which should be planted in this area. Planting of seedling trees will start this spring and special events are being planned for Arbor Day.

Chess is one of the oldest games known to man. The object of the game is to capture the opponent's king.
