WALL STREET NEW YORK (AP)—A late rally by rails and assorted industrials pulled the stock market out of an irregular course and put it a bit higher on average. Trading was active with the ticker tape late at the close.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,500,000 shares compared with 3,440,000 Monday. Aircrafts were a firm spot, bolstered by North American Aviation's jump of about 2. Douglas Aircraft and General Dynamics were up about a point and other plane-makers made gains.

U. S. Steel was active and ahead about a point. Youngstown Sheet dipped.

American Motors was down more than a point. Chrysler advanced about a point and other motor shares were steady to higher.

Libbey - Owens-Ford hopped a couple of points. American Telephone was off more than a point.

Pfizer and Merck, ahead a point or so, paced an improving drug group. Baltimore & Ohio and Chesapeake & Ohio fell fractionally.

Raytheon gained a point or better. Moderate gains were made by Liggett & Myers, Lorillard, U. S. Rubber, Sperry Rand, Southern Railway and Republic Steel.

U.S. government bonds drifted slightly lower.

Hit And Run Cases Noted

Three hit-and-run cases were reported by city police today, each with its unusual development. Ralph Shafer, 410 McLean Street, said his car was hit while parked in the Market Basket lot on North Ninth Street Monday. Shafer said a car from California backed into his car and that a woman in the California vehicle asked whether his car had been damaged. It had—the right rear fender was bashed in a hit—but the other car and the woman proceeded to drive off. Jimmy Fritz, 247 Hillside Street, said the left rear tender of his car was dented when struck at the corner of MonClaire Street and Alameda. Later Fritz told police the hit-and-run driver appeared to discuss the matter.

Police Officer John Kennard said his Chesapeake dog was injured by a hit-and-run driver at Hillside and Alameda. The driver of the pickup did not stop, Kennard said, and the dog was badly injured. Later Kennard, too, said the driver had returned. Another incident involving dogs: Mrs. Edmund Deja, 1615 Worden Street, said her dog had been shot while sitting on her front porch. The animal was wounded but not killed, she told police.

MISSING since late Thursday night is this Redding resident, James Mecham, 39, Mecham was visiting his brother, Charles, 1415 Derby Street, Klamath Falls, at the time of his disappearance, and it is feared he may be suffering a lapse of memory. He is 5 feet 10 inches in height, weighing 150 pounds with brown eyes and brown hair. He was last seen wearing a blue plaid wool shirt, Levi's, low cut oxfords and a bluish black cloth jacket. The above photo is 12 years old.

KF Pastor Quits Post

The Rev. H. Edward Hamme, pastor of Hope Lutheran Church, South Sixth and Hope streets in the sixth suburban area, announced his resignation to the congregation of the church Sunday, January 18. His resignation followed acceptance of a call to the Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, Sunland, California. With Mrs. Hamme, he plans to leave Klamath Falls about February 28 to begin his new duties. No plans have been made for a successor. Although the congregation of the church grew slowly during his pastorate here, major development in the two years was the church's growth in financial stability, and plans are now under way for the building of the first unit of a new church at the present location. The Rev. Hamme has been active in the Council of Churches and the Ministerial Association, serving as chairman of the television committee which presents the Chaplain's Corner over KOTV-TV, is a member of the Lions Club and chairman of the troop committee of Boy Scout Troop 3, meeting at Roosevelt School. The congregation accepted the pastor's resignation with regret.

Two Vandalism Cases Reported

Only two instances of vandalism were reported to city police over the weekend. Fred Souther, 1141 Washburn Way, said someone kicked a large hole in the veneer of his front door while he was away from home Saturday. John Kloiber, 1936 Lexington Avenue, said someone broke the aerial, a rear view mirror and a windshield on his car parked at 4329 Greensprings Drive late Friday.

Forger Receives 3-Year Sentence

Jim Howell, 39, Tulelake, was sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary today for forgery of endorsement. Howell was convicted by a circuit court jury late Friday of forging the name of a fellow employee on a $425 paycheck issued by rancher Robert Anderson of Merrill last December 3. Howell once had pleaded guilty to the charge, but his plea was rejected when he said he wasn't certain he had signed the check. A jury subsequently decided that he had, following a three-day trial.

BUSES RIFLED

John Keegan, who resides on Summers Lane near the Oregon, California and Eastern tracks, reported to state police Tuesday morning that county school buses 92 and 4, which are parked at his home at night, had been broken into. Keegan, a bus driver for Altamont School, reported that 15 gallons of gasoline, a fire extinguisher and a tail light lens had been taken from one bus, while eight gallons of gasoline, a fire extinguisher and a gas cap had been taken from the other.

CHIEF OFFICIAL RESIGNS

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI)—Interior Minister Enrique Ortuzar Escobar has resigned "for reasons of health," it was announced today. He will retain his post as secretary general of the government.

Obituaries

PETERSON Robert A. Peterson, 22, a native of Stockton, California, and a resident of Winchester Bay, Oregon, was drowned there in a fishing accident on November 17, 1958. He is survived by the widow, Dorrina; a daughter, Merry Ann Peterson; a son, Robert A. Peterson Jr., all of Winchester Bay; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Peterson; a brother, Alan Peterson, all of Klamath Falls; a sister, Mrs. Joanne Erickson, of Costa Mesa, California. Mr. Peterson's body was recovered January 19, 1959. O'Hair's Memorial Chapel will announce the funeral arrangements.

HANSEN Lawrence F. Hansen, 76, a resident of Klamath Falls for 42 years, died at the family home, 158 Lewis Street, January 19, following a long period of ill health. He was born in February, 1883, at San Diego. Mr. Hansen devoted his lifetime to the building trade, operating here for many years as a contractor. He was a member of Klamath Falls Lodge, BPOE No. 1247, which will conduct the funeral services to be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, January 22, from O'Hair's Memorial Chapel. Final rites and interment will be in Klamath Memorial Park. Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Katherine Hansen, this city; one daughter, Mrs. Ralph Morozoni, and a grandson, Larry Morozoni, both of Stockton; also three sisters, Mrs. Annie Butler, Mrs. Caroline Young and Mrs. Mary Butler, all of San Diego.

STEPHENS LAKEVIEW—Elizabeth Stephens, 62, a resident of Lakeview, died in Eugene January 18. She had been visiting relatives in Eugene for only three days when she died. Mrs. Stephens was born January 23, 1896, in Almy, Wyoming. On June 28, 1914, she was married in Burley, Idaho, to Mitchell Monroe Stephens, who survives. Also surviving are three sons, Mitchell Jr., Ralph O. and Rex A., all of Lakeview; three daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Lampert and Mrs. Ruth Evans, Myrtle Creek, Mrs. Cleda Vossen, Eugene; two brothers, Charles S. Jamieson of Lakeview and W. M. Jamieson of Portland; two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Dent of Plush and Mrs. Ella Vandergow of Lakeview; and 14 grandchildren. Services will be held Wednesday, January 21, at 2 o'clock in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Lakeview. Interment at Sunset Park Cemetery. Bishop John McDonald officiating. Ouseley Osterman Mortuary in charge of arrangements. Pall bearers will be Fred Pearl, Elmer Williams, Bill Vandergow, D. E. Jenkins, Homer Baldwin and Frank Jaska Jr.

BIKE THEFT REPORTED

Theft of a red and white Schwinn bicycle from Altamont School was reported to state police Monday afternoon. The bike, which belongs to Richard Murray, 2466 Pershing Way, had its handlebars turned upside down and had no front fender.

NOT SERIOUS

An early morning call to the city fire department Tuesday, to put out a fire on the roof of Drews' Manstere, 733 Main Street, turned out to be "grossly exaggerated." It turned out that the appearance of smoke pouring off the roof was due merely to a broken steam line.

Officials Emphasize Figure Might Be Scaled Downward

A proposed off-street parking district that has been in the discussion stage for a number of months began to take shape at the regular Monday night session of the city council in city hall. City Manager G. S. Vergeer pointed out that he had been unable, up to Monday, to get any criteria by which he could determine assessment by benefit for participants in such a district, but that he had just received such information on Monday and would have it ready for the next meeting.

It was determined that appraisal values had remained the same on the property involved, and Vergeer estimated that the figures quoted in the off-street parking survey would still stand. From these figures, it was determined that cost of lot No. 2, on Eighth Street at Klamath, would be $151,200. Lot No. 3, corner Fifth and Klamath, currently city owned, would cost $2,700 for metering, and lot No. 4, corner Fifth and Pine, would cost $68,100. Total cost of the district was estimated at about $222,000, although the opinion was expressed that the bonding procedures should permit about a 20 per cent adjustment.

After considerable discussion, it was determined to set the amount of the bond issue at $275,000. It was emphasized that this amount could be scaled down considerably easier than it could be boosted. The council set Monday, February 16, as date of the next meeting, when City Attorney Henry Perkins is expected to have the initial ordinance ready creating the district, and Vergeer will have an assessment roll drawn up on the basis of $275,000. Otis Metsker, 1755 Oregon Avenue, appeared for the second successive week to discuss the police situation. He asked the council for permission to have free access to the police station, to consult with officers, make inspection and suggestions.

Councilman Walter Fleet took issue with a move to refer Metsker to the city manager, and said, "This is a council problem. We spent $3,000 for a survey by the most efficient up-to-date police department in the United States. We intend to follow the recommendations of that report right down the line. Metsker has not been in police work in the last 15 years that I know of." Fleet moved to refuse the request, and his motion received unanimous consent of the council.

When questioned, Metsker stated he had been a member of the Klamath Falls police department from 1937 to 1941, a period of four years. The council re-affirmed its faith in the Young report, and its intention to follow that report down the line. Metsker, however, was invited to bring any criticisms and suggestions concerning the police department to the city manager who is now the administrative officer of the city.

Action on a proposed agreement between the school district and the city on operation of Conger Park was deferred a week to permit the council members to study the proposed legal agreement. The results of a study of lighting at Moore Park were presented to the council by Vergeer. The areas investigated were (1) entrance lighting to the park, (2) the area surrounding entrance to cottage, (3) outdoor lighting at animal pen, (4) flood lighting at shop entrance and overhead lighting of vehicle ports, and (5) flood lighting of tennis court entrance path.

Kingsley Airman Injured In Wreck

Leon Jackson, 21, an airman based at Kingsley Field, was believed to have sustained a severe head injury in an accident which occurred shortly before midnight Tuesday on Altamont Drive, state police report. Police said Jackson was southbound when he lost control of his car and failed to negotiate a curve. The vehicle, which skidded about 142 feet and turned over, was extensively damaged. Jackson was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital, where he was reported to be "doing fine" Tuesday morning.

Trial Postponed Until Spring

The trial of Earl Arthur Brown, scheduled to open in circuit court Monday, was continued until an indefinite date in May. The continuance was granted yesterday by Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg after much discussion on a motion by Attorney Robert G. Danielson representing the defense. Danielson explained that nobody has been able to locate a defense witness, Penny Jackson, for whom the court issued a subpoena January 7. Brown, 37, was indicted by the November grand jury on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses resulting from a $20 check cashed at Broadway Cleaners without benefit of a bank account.

Mothers Set Dimes Drive

The Mothers March for the March of Dimes campaign is to be sponsored by the Venture Club who is asking mothers to volunteer in order to make this year's march a success. This year's fund will be used for rehabilitation of victims of polio, for children with birth defects and for those suffering from arthritis. Residents of the city are asked to leave their porch lights on between 7 and 8 p.m. Thursday, January 29, if they wish to contribute to the fund. Anyone who can assist in any of the districts designated may call the Venture Club march chairman, Joanne Borden, at her home, TU 2-3017 after working hours. She is employed at the First National Bank.

The following leaders may be called at the numbers listed with the school districts they will serve: Roosevelt, Mrs. Lois Rea, TU 2-0852; Mrs. John E. Resistance Law Collapse Brings Up New Question

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The collapse of Virginia's massive resistance laws in the courts raised the question today whether segregation will be breached in public schools before a new anti-integration program can be formulated. Two separate court decisions Monday stripped the state of the laws which for more than two years had prevented classroom integration.

In a 5-2 decision, the State Supreme Court said the package of anti-integration laws passed by a special session of the Legislature in the summer of 1956 violated Virginia's constitution. It was under provisions of one of these laws that Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. closed and seized control of nine white public schools last September as the state moved to prevent court-ordered integration.

Almond planned to give a radio and television report on the school crisis to Virginians tonight. Contributing further to the demise of the massive resistance laws was a ruling by a special three-judge U.S. District Court in Norfolk that the school-closing statute violates the federal constitution. The state court ruling is not appealable. Its effect was to return to local control nine closed schools in Norfolk, Charlottesville, and Front Royal. Only in Norfolk did school officials demonstrate sentiment to reopen schools quickly. Thirteen thousand students were displaced by the school closings. Ralph Schweitzer, chairman of the Norfolk School Board, said the board "is interested in educating the children of Norfolk. I personally feel that our first obligation to the children is to get our schools back in operation in an orderly manner at the earliest practicable date."

Charlottesville's school board met with City Council to discuss the school problem and deterred action pending an opinion from the city attorney. Q. D. Gasque, Warren County school superintendent, said the board would "stand fast until we have an opportunity to discuss the matter with our counsel."

In Arlington County, across the Potomac from Washington, the school board directed its attorneys to ask for a stay of the federal court order of last September which called for admission of four Negro students to Stratford Junior High. The board indicated the decision would be appealed up to the Supreme Court, if necessary. However, the board said if all appeals are turned down it would direct the county school superintendent to "take such reasonable and lawful steps as he deems necessary to maintain order and continued effective operation of the school."
