Aria Quartet Sings Tonight

Mothers Club — Oregon State Mothers Club will meet Thursday, January 22, at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Phil Schroeder, 1321 Pacific Terrace. Refreshments will be served by the senior mothers, according to Mrs. Robert Thompson, president. Plans for the dinner meeting at which Dean Poling will be the speaker will be formulated, and all mothers of Oregon State students or alumni are urged to attend.

Ticket holders for tonight's appearance of the San Francisco Operatic Quartet at the Pelican Theater will be treated to a repertoire of a spirited musical performance by four talented young people who have won acclaim under the direction of Maestro Nino Comel, founder and director of the quartet.

Nino Comel earned his Ph.D. in music in his native Italy and after an active career as a conductor, came to America as a director of the Columbia Grand Opera Company. He also conducted for the San Francisco Opera Company for a number of years.

Members of the quartet are Nancy Cronburg, soprano, Margot Blum, contralto, Robert Thomas, tenor, and Ronald Dutro, baritone.

Particularly appealing to music lovers will be the condensed version of the well-known "Barber of Seville," by Gioacchino Rossini in a new English translation by Comel. "Barcarolle" from "The Tales of Hoffman," Jacques Offenbach, the "Boat Song," the quartet from "Rigoletto," Verdi and the duet from "Il Trovatore," (Act IV) Verdi are also favorites on the program.

Admission to the concert is by season ticket.

Home Extension

BUENA VISTA

Buena Vista Extension Unit met at Joan's Kitchen January 13. An enjoyable low calorie luncheon was prepared by the members with Mrs. Gary Price and Mrs. R. L. Adams as leaders. Four new members joined this month.

Next meeting will be a better dress project. Members must have all material needed to make dresses and the date will be announced later.

BONANZA—The Bonanza Home Extension Unit met at the Bonanza Library at 10 a.m. on January 13. Lura Urbach and Eula Prough, project leaders, prepared and served a luncheon featuring low calorie dishes to the 14 ladies attending.

The next meeting will be on textile painting on February 10. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Specialist Slates Talk

A public relations specialist in Klamath Falls for the duration of the "Keep Pace With Tomorrow" program being conducted by the chamber of commerce will speak to three service clubs this week.

Eugene D. Emunson is scheduled to address the Toketee Lions Club tonight (Wednesday), the Kiwanis Club on Thursday and the Rotary Club on Friday.

Emunson is vice president of the Lloyd A. Wilson Service of San Francisco, a public relations firm that handles only chamber of commerce work.

Emunson, more familiarly known as Gene, has a considerable background in chamber of commerce and public relations work, and has newspaper and radio experience.

With him is his wife, who serves as his office manager on assignments in the United States and Canada. The couple expects to be here until February 20.
