

THE LATE James B. Phelps brought this Bible published in 1880, to Oakland, California, from New Hampshire in 1886. He was the father of Mrs. Arch G. Proctor, seated, regent of the Klamath Chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists, and the late Lawrence Phelps, also of Klamath Falls. The Bible is being cared for by Mrs. Lawrence (Alpha) Phelps. Mrs. Robert Odell, standing, secretary of the chapter whose family has been identified with the history of Klamath County since the Modoc War, is assisting in compilation of the records.

American Colonist Group Plans Cataloging Bibles

By RUTH KING

An undertaking which should be of great value to historical research is being started by the Klamath Chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists.

Under the supervision of the chapter regent, Mrs. Arch G. Proctor, Klamath Falls, and with the cooperation of the residents of Klamath County, it is proposed to catalog all family Bibles which contain records of births, marriages and deaths.

Preparation of this catalog which will be a card index, is the chapter's project in commemoration of Oregon's Centennial year.

Women Object To Howling Dog

City police told a Crescent Avenue man to get his Labrador dog outside the city limits Tuesday after three neighborhood women complained about "barking, yelping and howling."

The warning was served on Rex Davis, 1526 Crescent, after police received a complaint signed by Mrs. Bertha McKim, 1530 Crescent; Mrs. Isabel Bishop, 1518 Crescent, and Mrs. Nora Smith, 1344 Johnson Street.

Other police reports: A camera, an Argus C-3, was reported lost in the Pelican Cafe by Cecil Drew, 310 Loma Linda Drive, and a gasoline pump and hose were reported found in back of the house by Gene Cunial, 2419 Reclamation Avenue.

Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science, was married three times.
