

COOKIES

Cookies with a topping is a top idea for parties. They are fine to serve with mugs of milk or hot chocolate to the small fry or with punch or tea for the adults.

You can buy your favorite type of Grandma Cookies, if you like, such as the good standby Sugar Cookies or Buttermilk Wafers, both of which are fine for adding topping. Just frost the cookies and place in a 375 degree oven for about 12 minutes before serving.

Or, you can bake the topping on unbaked peanut butter mounds, as in this Kellogg recipe.

Colorful as well as deliciously flavored, the topping has a butter and sugar base and combines chopped candied cherries, almond flavoring, chopped unsalted peanuts and corn flakes. This mixture is placed on the unbaked cookies in small mounds and then baked for about 12 minutes. They come from the oven crunchy sweet and golden brown—and by the time the punch is prepared, the cookies are cooled and ready to serve.

PEANUT BUTTER MOUNDS

Dough
1 1/4 cups sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup soft butter or margarine
1/2 cup peanut butter
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg

TOPPING

1/4 cup soft butter or margarine
1-3 cup granulated sugar
1 small egg
1/2 cup chopped unsalted peanuts
1/4 teaspoon almond flavoring
3 cups Corn Flakes

3 tablespoons chopped candied cherries

To make dough, sift together flour, soda and salt. Blend butter, peanut butter and sugars. Add egg and beat well. Stir in sifted dry ingredients. Set aside.

To make topping, blend butter and sugar. Add egg and beat well. Stir in remaining ingredients. Shape pieces of dough into balls about 1 inch in diameter. Place on greased baking sheets and flatten with a fork. Top with about 2 tablespoonsful of Corn Flakes mixture. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) about 12 minutes.

CHEESE CRUST

Combine 1 cup grated Cheddar cheese, 3/4 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, and 1/4 cup melted butter, until well mixed, using pastry blender or fork. Press firmly on bottom and sides of a 9-inch pie pan.

STRAWBERRY "PHILLY" FROSTING

Place a 3-ounce package Philadelphia Cream Cheese in a bowl and cream it until soft and smooth. Add 2 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar gradually, blending it in well. Add 1/4 cup Kraft Pure Strawberry Preserves and mix again. This is enough to frost one 13x9x2-inch cake, or a two-layer, 8-inch cake.

FISH SANDWICHES

It isn't too early to begin planning for Lenten menus. You might make Grilled Fish Sandwiches a specialty of the house as a Lenten substitute for the ubiquitous hamburger. Just fry up some fish fillets. Spread buns with Lemon Mayonnaise (mayonnaise peppered up with fresh lemon juice). Add the fish fillets, lettuce and tomato slices. Serve with pickle slices or ripe olives or both.
