AF Postpones Orb Launching

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Launching of the first satellite from this West Coast base has been postponed for technical reasons.

The launching, scheduled for Wednesday, was set back more than 24 hours, but the Advanced Research Projects Agency gave no further details.

The satellite will be the first of a dozen or more in the Discoverer series aimed at gaining information to pave the way for man to venture into space.

The agency said launching preparations will be resumed "as the readiness of the vehicle permits."
