Larson-Leland Vows Exchanged In Eugene

Exchanging their vows at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Eugene, January 11, were Darlene Sue Leland and Lester Gale Larson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Leland of Port Angeles, Washington, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larson of Klamath Falls.

White stock and carnations decorated the church for the 3 o'clock nuptials performed by the Rev. Steen Whiteside. A reception followed the rites in the church parlors.

A floor length gown of white nylon organdy was chosen by the bride for her wedding. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with inserts of Venetian lace. The fitted bodice featured short sleeves and low round neck outlined with lace. A cap of organdy trimmed in seed pearls held in place her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a white orchid encircled by white, carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Leslie W. Inman, Portland, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Meride Broliar, Sacramento, Mrs. John H. Sociolovsky, Eugene, and Melinda Leland, sister of the bride from Port Angeles. They wore dresses of pink velveteen made in the chemise style with harem skirts. Pearl crowns held small veils in a matching color. They carried pale pink carnations and baby rosebuds tied with velveteen cord.

Darrell Larson of Portland was best man for his brother. Ushers were Ron Larson, Eugene, brother of the bridegroom, Randall Souder, nephew of the bridegroom from Klamath Falls, and Edward Livingston, Eugene.

Mrs. Arthur Bergstrom was soloist.

An electric blue gown was selected by the bride's mother and Mrs. Larson wore a pink lace dress. Their corsages were pink roses and carnations.

Pouring at the reception was Mrs. Gordon Stenderson of San Diego. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Darrell Larson and Mrs. Cyril Morgan, Vancouver, B.C. Mrs. John J. Jensen, Hillsboro, and Mrs. Harold Schrupp, Seattle, presided at the punch bowl. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George Keeley of Portland, Mrs. George Williams of Redwood, Mrs. T. J. Keeley, grandmother of the bride from Aberdeen, and Mrs. E. P. Livingston of Eugene.

For her wedding trip along the Oregon coast the new Mrs. Larson donned a light blue wool dress trimmed with blue fur collar, a black coat and white hat. The orchid from her bouquet was pinned at her shoulder.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Her husband attended Oregon State College where he was a member of Kappa Delta Rho. They will reside in Portland where she is a teacher in the city school system and he will continue his studies.
