Couple Exchanges Vows In First Church Of God

Marianne Reimers, daughter of Jacob Reimers, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, became the bride of Thomas C. Buckle Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. T. Charles Buckle of Klamath Falls on January 3 in the First Church of God. The Rev. Buckle, father of the bridegroom, read the ceremony before the altar banked with bouquets of mixed flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of imported lace over satin was fashioned with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. A headband of orange blossoms held a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white flowers.

Mrs. Jack Tyrrell, sister of the bride, of Milwaukee, was matron of honor. Mrs. Oscar Wilson, sister of the bridegroom from Alpaugh, California, and Mrs. Carl Buckle, sister-in-law of the bridegroom of Paso Robles, California, were bridesmaids. They wore identical floor length dresses of aqua dotted Swiss over taffeta, with matching headbands of net and flowers. They carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Linda Hyden was flower girl and Edwin Buckle, brother of the bridegroom, lighted the candles.

Paul Kilbourn of Portland was best man. Ushers were Harvey Buckle, Portland, uncle of the bridegroom, and Oscar Wilson, Alpaugh, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Carl Buckle, brother of the bridegroom, and Frank Ballard were soloists accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. Harringshaw.

Mrs. Buckle, mother of the bridegroom, chose a two piece dress of aqua rayon with black faille trim. Her corsage was of pink and white flowers.

Following the service a reception was held in the church Youth Hall. Assisting were Mrs. Bernie Hyden, Louise Ballard, Marilyn Hubbard, Sherald Robinson, Joyce Miller, Joyce Johnson, Ranelle Johnson and Mrs. Joe Monroe.

The bride is a graduate of Good Samaritan Hospital School of Nursing in Portland. Her husband is a student minister having attended Pacific Bible College in Portland.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wilson, Alpaugh, California; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buckle, Paso Robles, California; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Fortune, Roseburg; Mrs. Jack Tyrrell and Jacob Reimers, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Paul Kilbourn, Estacada, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Buckle and Werner Reimers, all of Portland.

Sojourners Hold Meet

Klamath Falls Sojourners met January 14 in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. Following a buffet luncheon a short business meeting was held, conducted by the new president, Mrs. Vernon Neet. The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing cards.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. George Ashbaugh, Mrs. E. W. Carter and Mrs. Robert Garrison.

Mrs. Otto Lunde and Mrs. Bonnie Lane were welcomed as new members.

First time guests were Mrs. R. G. Pollan, Mrs. Ray Wehrdt and Mrs. C. Ward Baldwin. A second time guest was Mrs. Lorraine Wilson.

Guests for the day were Mrs. Don H. Erickson, Mrs. Viola Christie and Mrs. Florence Schonebaum.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. T. F. Bechtel and Mrs. Lloyd Young. High canasta score was received by Mrs. John Van Doren and high in pinocle was won by Mrs. Wayne Newton.

The next regular meeting will be held on January 28 at the Willard Hotel. All new residents to Klamath Falls are cordially invited to attend.

ELECTED TO BOARD

Howard Cain, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler of Klamath Falls, and a junior speech major at the University of Oregon, has been named to the executive board of the University Theater. As an officer of the board he will help decide upon the plays to be produced during next year's season.

New Home Inspires Party

Completely surprised were August and Dick Reeder Friday evening, January 16, when a group of their friends arrived at 6 o'clock, arms loaded with casseroles and roasters, full of good things for a buffet supper. The occasion was the Reeder's recent move to a new residence at 1105 Pacific Terrace.

Enjoying the evening of dancing and singing were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lassett, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Haerby Bechen, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stroud, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Green, Dr. and Mrs. Martin Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Parnell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burgoine.

RUSH CHAIRMAN

Orrin R. Ormsbee has recently been elected rush chairman of his fraternity, Phi Delta Theta, on the Willamette University campus in Salem. He is also acting alumni secretary. Orrin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ormsbee, 906 North Sixth Street, is a sophomore majoring in science. He graduated from KUHS in 1957 where he was active in student government and debate.

Merrill Couple Marks 25 Years

MERRILL—Over 175 guests attended an open house reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. The reception was held on Sunday, January 4, from 2 to 5 p.m. at St. Augustine's Parish Hall.

The couple was married January 3, 1934, in Klamath Falls. They have spent the entire 25 years residing in Merrill where he has had farming interests. The couple has two sons, John Jr., also living in Merrill, and Tommy, a student at Oregon State College. They are also the proud grandparents to grandson, Tommy.

For the festive occasion, Mrs. O'Neil was charmingly attired in a silk multi-colored print frock accented with a red rose corsage at her shoulder.

A silver tree laden with congratulatory cards and dollar bills was presented to the fete couple.

The three tiered ornately decorated wedding cake topped with a heart encircling the numerals "25" was served to the guests by Mrs. Leo McKoen and Mrs. Clifford McKoen. Serving coffee and tea were Mrs. Gene Eggle and Mrs. Bill Lehr. Flanking the lace covered serving table were large baskets of red and white carnations.

The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of red roses. Attending the punch bowls were Rosalind and Colleen Crockett. Mrs. Jess McKoen assisted guests in signing the guest book.

Hosts and hostesses for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shuck, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Victor Shuck, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Trotman, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin G. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice O'Keefe.
