Graves-Hampton Vows Exchanged In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — The wedding of Norine Pearl Hampton and Ralph Duane Graves was an event of December 27, at 7 o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist Church in Lakeview, with the Rev. Gordon C. Griffin officiating. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Hampton, was escorted by her father for the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, pink stock, snapdragons and pink tapers. The candles were lighted by Anita Hampton, a cousin, and Susan Hampton, sister of the bride. They wore pink nylon dresses with white velvet headbands.

The bride's gown, made by her mother and grandmother, was of all over lace over white taffeta with full skirt. The bodice was closely fitted with long sleeves pointed at the wrists. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was held by a tiara trimmed in sequins and seed pearls. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible and a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Clyde Creel, the bride's twin sister, was her matron of honor. She wore a pink taffeta frock with an overskirt of pink net, and a white velvet headband. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The flower girl, Debbie Watts, was in pink nylon with white headband.

Best man was Donald Callaghan and ushers were Clyde Creel, and Gary Denbrook, a cousin of the bride. Edward Hampton, another cousin, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories, and a white rose corsage.

At the reception following in the church parlors the wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. William Kubat and Mrs. Gary McKentree. Mrs. Charles Harper served the coffee and Mrs. Joe Ayott poured the punch. Nina Evans passed the guest book. Mrs. Leonard Denbrook and Dona Evans received the wedding gifts.

The couple's wedding trip combined with the journey taking them to Huntsville, Alabama, where he is stationed with the O.G.M.S. Redstone Arsenal. For traveling the new Mrs. Graves wore a white and gray knit suit with black and gray accessories, and the roses from her bouquet.

Both are graduates of Lakeview High School, she with the class of 1938 and he in 1933. He is the son of H. R. Graves of Lakeview.

From out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey DeArmond of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wilson of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Don Callaghan, Alabama; and Daisy Turner, Roseburg.

REBEKAH LODGE

The newly installed officers of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge 104 held their first meeting on January 15 with Velma Krauss, noble grand, presiding.

Bernice McCracken, junior past noble grand, presented a 50 year pin to Louise Humphrey in recognition of her years of membership in the lodge.

Edith Barleen displayed the quilt that had been made by members of the social club this past year and which will be sold at a later date.

Harriett Estes was unanimously elected drill captain.

A pink and silver theme was used to decorate tables in the dining hall where refreshments were served by Nina Beck, Louise O'Brien, Goldie McClurg, Martha Baker, Edith Barleen, Zella Blankenship, Edna Blevins and Beulah Bliss.

Linda Shullanberger Bride Of Bruce Clayton Thomas

LAKEVIEW — At a 2 o'clock ceremony on the afternoon of Saturday, December 27, Linda Jane Shullanberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orla M. Shullanberger, became the bride of Bruce Clayton Thomas, son of Mrs. Verna Ferguson of Klamath Falls and Vernon Thomas of White Bird, Idaho.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Wayne Julier at the First Presbyterian Church in Lakeview where the bride was given in marriage by her father. The church decorations were white chrysanthemums and red poinsettias, with candelabra and lighted tapers.

The bride wore a gown of white embroidered taffeta with long, sleeved, close fitting bodice and very full skirt with chapel train. The wide neckline was outlined in scallop trim. Her elbow length veil was held by a half-coronet of embroidered lace to match the dress. Her bouquet was of white rosebuds centered with a white orchid, with trailing ribbon and stephanotis.

Margene Tower of Forest Grove, roommate of the bride at Oregon State College, was her only attendant. Her frock was in princess style of red velvet with very full skirt and boat neckline. She carried a bouquet of white roses with a red poinsettia center.

Vernon Thomas of White Bird, Idaho, was best man for his brother, Ushers were Don Shullanberger, the bride's brother, and James Smythe of Wasalla, Alaska, former Lakeview resident.

The bridegroom's mother was unable to be present at the wedding. Mrs. Shullanberger wore a sheath style dress of dusty rose lace, with cummerbund of chiffon. Her hat and gloves were of a matching shade.

Flowers from the church were used for the table background at the reception which followed at Van's Rose Room. The four-tiered wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Paul Oakley and Mrs. Floyd Reed. Mrs. Chester Clark presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Tom Downs poured the punch. Janet Clark was at the gift table and Mrs. Dudley Steadman circulated the guest book.

Black patent accessories and the orchid from her bouquet set off the black and white tuxedo worn by the bride for her going-away costume. Following a wedding trip in Oregon she will return to Oregon State College where she is a sophomore in pre-nursing. Her husband will leave for North Carolina to resume his training as a paratrooper with the Army.

Both are graduates of Lakeview High School, she in 1957 and he in 1954. He attended Oregon State College for two years and plans to finish his schooling later. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ella Walker of Ventura, California, the bride's paternal grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Thomas of White Bird, Idaho; and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Renn of Bly, the bridegroom's uncle and aunt.
