A LIGHTED PORCH on Thursday evening from 7 until 8 o'clock will be a signal for one of the Marching Mothers to ring the doorbell for contributions to the March of Dimes. The women clasping hands in the above picture are six who will join the march in the interest of those afflicted by polio, birth defects, virus diseases and arthritis. From the left they are Mrs. Francis Schmeck, Mrs. Richard Krois, Mrs. Wes Nearing, Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. Melvin Gordon and Mrs. Wallace Nordwall.

CALICO DRESSES, JEANS, 10-gallon hats and boots were high style for the Chuck Wagon party at Kingsley Field Officers Club Saturday evening, January 17.

Kingsley Field and Klamath Basin Reserve officers and their wives, who numbered 275, were served dinner in true Western style and danced to the Starlighter Trio. Added entertainment was provided by the Merry Mixers with five groups doing intricate square dance routines. Pictured on the left, top, Jim Winde, Mrs. Jack Wil-
