

Man Offers To Help Police Solve Disappearance Case

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—James E. Harrison offered help today in a nationwide investigation of his disappearance more than three months ago.

Harrison turned up alive and well in Phoenix, Ariz., 110 days after his station wagon was found in Jacksonville. He said he could remember nothing, but an officer said he is not convinced Harrison's story is true.

Lt. H. L. Sands of the Duval County sheriff's office said after interviewing Harrison at Miami Sunday that "there are too many points in his story I find hard to believe." But he added he had checked Harrison for weeks "and every indication is that he is of excellent character."

Officers all suspect someone was slain in Harrison's station wagon Oct. 7 but they haven't been able to find a body.

NY Jazz Spot Chief Slain

NEW YORK (AP)—The assistant manager of a popular Broadway jazz spot was slain early today in a brief scuffle at one of the night club's bars. Police spread a 15-state alarm for a man and woman who left the place moments later.

The fatal assault was witnessed through a haze of cigarette smoke and the glare of spotlights, by several of the musicians on the Birdland bandstand.

The victim was Zachariah Levy, 36, of Valley Stream, N.Y. Police said that he was killed by a stab wound in the chest.

The couple sought were a 5 foot 10 heavyset man of about 45 with blue eyes, sandy hair, clad in a brown suit; and a dark complexioned, short woman of about 30 who was wearing a dark, low cut dress and black evening coat.

A Sunday night crowd listened in the basement ballroom to the music of Urbie Green and his band during the slaying.

'Missing' Lad Found Safe

CHICAGO (AP)—A couple dashed into the West North Avenue police station Sunday night, waving their arms and shouting "Our boy is gone," they cried, then, lapsed into Italian, Omero Fuggiti, 32, and his wife, Louisa, finally managed to report their son, Adriano, 3, was missing.

Policeman Robert Star searched through the snow, questioned neighbors, and returned to the Fuggiti home with no lead, but a strong hunch.

He told the Fuggitis: "Quite often a missing child is not really missing. He may be in an attic, or a buggy, or a basement. Let us look." They looked—and found Adriano, cuddled up in the back of a console television set. He was warm and comfy and asleep.

LAUNCH NEW ATTACKS
ALGIERS (UPI)—Algerian rebels launched new attacks against trains, buses and bridges Sunday. The single casualty reported was a Moslem civilian, who suffered a flesh wound when rebel waylaid a bus near Setif, in eastern Algeria.

Harrison, 32, an Indian River City businessman, told police an armed man forced his way into his station wagon at a spotlight in Cocoa, Fla., and demanded a ride to Jacksonville.

Harrison said he couldn't remember anything between driving his car into a Jacksonville parking lot at the gunman's order, and waking up Friday night at Phoenix.

Officers said they discounted a California convict's repudiation of a confession he made to killing a man with Harrison's identification papers at Jacksonville.

Roy Victor Olson, 29, facing a five-year sentence for slaying a Sacramento, Calif., television announcer, said he buried the man in a shallow grave south of here.

The confession said Olson and James A. Leach, 21, of Jellico, Tenn., were given a ride near Lake City to Jacksonville Oct. 7 by a man Olson thought was Harrison. Harrison's bloodstained station wagon was found abandoned here a week later.

Olson said he stole the vehicle after slugging and stabbing the driver, then left the station wagon in Jacksonville.

Leach, arrested after Olson's confession and held temporarily at Knoxville, Tenn., was released on his own bond Sunday.

J. C. Patrick, chief investigator for the Duval sheriff's office, said state and county warrants against Leach were dropped.

"We're going to nail this thing down once and for all," Patrick said. "We are going to ask the cooperation of every police agency in this country in tracking Harrison's movements."

Adlai Says U.S. To Blame For Public Education Ills

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Adlai Stevenson charged today that the American people themselves must shoulder the blame for the ills of public education in this country.

"If the community wants driver education or bachelor cooking instead of Latin and mathematics, it will get it," he told the annual convention of the National School Boards Assn. in a prepared address. "And if the colleges give scholarships to boys with coordinated bodies rather than with coordinated minds, what will a student value?"

The titular head of the Democratic party reminded the school board members from across the nation that "students and their families are reluctant to borrow for education. They will buy TVs, autos, washing machines, even travel, on time and credit, but not education for their children. Is it less necessary?"

He said "improvement is imperative," despite "the anti-intellectualism of so many communities, the inertia of so many pupils, the poverty of so many school districts."

Stevenson rapped the nation's schools of education and teachers' of intellectual ferment in the great colleges for what he said was liv-
