Girl Scout Tell Plans

Recommendations made by the Girl Planning Board of the Klamath Area Girl Scout Council, which met January 24 in the YMCA headquarters, will be channeled to the adult program chairman for consideration in the overall planning of the program committee. Eighty one delegates and guests discussed spring program events in which troops throughout the council will take part.

Hal H. Ogle, Klamath Falls, related stories of early Klamath country days in anticipation of the Girl Scout May Festival theme for 1959, "Home Frontiers." The program will tie in with Oregon's Centennial Observance and the International Senior Roundup for Girl Scouts.

The board also considered plans for annual Girl Scout Week, March 8-15, observance of the organization's 47th birthday anniversary, the council-wide cookie sale starting April 10 and service projects in which Brownies, Intermediates and Senior Scouts will combine efforts.

Mrs. Harriett Brotherhood, executive director of the Klamath Area Girl Scout Council, in reviewing the objectives of the scouts says, "the learning of, and carrying through on our democratic system, is evidenced in the procedure which our Girl Scouts follow on their broad, practical preparation for future adult citizenship of leadership caliber."

Girl Scouts are one of the United Fund Youth Agencies.
